

CHRONOLOGICAL RECORD, 1899.

Some of the Most Important Events of the Year,
Up to December 19, Arranged in the Order of Their Occurrence.

JANUARY.

1-The sovereignty of Cuba formally transferred from Spain to the United States.
2-Civil war broke out in Samoa.
3-Fast mail trains on the C. B. and Q. and the C. and N. railways, running through Iowa, reach a speed of a mile in 37 seconds.
4-Elder Sampson O. Hale, "Mormon" missionary, died in Alabama.
5-Treaty of peace between the United States and Spain presented to the United States Senate.
6-Announcement made that Aguinaldo had determined to oppose American sovereignty in the Philippines, and to open war on the American forces there.
7-President McKinley's proclamation sent to the Philippines, stating the American intention regarding the government of the islands.
8-Liberal party in Spain, in power during the Hispano-American war, dissolved.
9-President McKinley decided to force the issue in the Philippines, by ordering American troops landed at Manila.
10-Ten persons killed and forty injured by a boiler explosion at Hewitt's ship-building yards, Barking, London, England.
11-Passenger yacht Paul Jones blown up in the Gulf of Mexico and eight persons all on board, lost.
12-Legislature of State of Utah met in Salt Lake City.
13-Eighteen persons killed and twenty-five injured in a railway collision on the Lehigh Valley railway, at West Dunellen, New Jersey.
14-Joseph Choate appointed American ambassador to England.
15-Human skeletons found in a well on a plantation near Manguito, Cuba. The victims were supposedly thrown in alive.
16-Death of Dr. Chas. M. Cannon in Salt Lake City.
17-Commissioner Gen. Egan, in testimony before the war investigation commission, uses abusive and insulting language concerning General Miles, in reference to the "embalmed beef" scandal.
18-Judge H. P. Henderson chosen to succeed Ex-U. S. Marshall Brigham on the Salt Lake City board of education.
19-Charles Johnston, a miner, frozen to death at Mercer, Utah.
20-Death of George Goddard, the veteran Sunday school worker, in Salt Lake City, Utah.
21-British ship Andania captured in Fager Sound, and captain and crew of eighteen men drowned.
22-Utah Stock Exchange organized in Salt Lake City.
23-Historical society of Utah held its second annual meeting.
24-Voting for U. S. Senator began in the Utah Legislature.
25-Violent storm in England does much damage.
26-Earthquake in Greece; great damage to property.
27-Aguinaldo proclaims the Filipino republic.
28-Mormon meeting in Bristol, England, disturbed.
29-Battle in Bolivia; 700 killed and wounded.
30-Bill introduced in Congress to disqualify polygamists from holding a place in the national law-making body.
31-Adelina Patti married to Baron de St. Germain.
People at Springville, Utah, decide to construct a sugar factory.
32-Ex-U. S. Attorney General Garfield drops dead while addressing the Senate.
33-Samuel Capener, 28 years old, accidentally shot and killed near Collinston, Boulder county, while out hunting rabbits.
34-A. A. Clark elected U. S. senator from Montana. Charges of bribery were freely made.
35-Storm in Rocky Mountain region interrupted traffic.

FEBRUARY.

1-Announcement that the Oregon Short Line would build a branch road to St. Anthony, Idaho.
2-Railroads east and west blocked by heavy snowstorms. Weather very cold. Several persons killed and several injured in the Denver Rio Grande railway, Colo., by a snowslide.
3-Filipino outbreak at Manila, by an attack on Americans. The rebels were driven off with heavy losses. The Utah light artillery took a prominent part in the fighting around Manila on this and the succeeding days. Three Utah soldiers killed and three wounded. The killed were Dr. Harry A. Young, Orson John G. Young and Private William Goodman of Salt Lake City. The losses in the two days in killed and wounded were: Americans 209. Filipino 2,000 to 4,000.
4-Gen Egan sentenced to dismissal from the army. President McKinley added the sentence to suspension from office for six years.
5-Heavy storm blocks traffic east and west. Street cars in Salt Lake City tied up to death.
6-Colocotron, near Manila, captured by Americans. From that time the capture of Philippine towns and positions became frequent.
7-President sent a message to Congress about a cable to the Philippines.
8-Washington on the Atlantic coast intensifies cold.
9-Peace treaty with Spain signed by President McKinley.
10-Billiard in Colorado and Wyoming.
11-Iloilo, island of Panay, captured by American troops.
12-Snowslide in Colorado buries 24 persons, 12 of whom were killed.
13-Seventeen inmates of the South Dakota insane asylum burned to death by a fire at the institution, in Yankton.
14-Fire in the Mississippi valley and along the Atlantic coast. Ten persons frozen to death.
15-Snowslide in Bingham Canyon, Utah, killed J. W. Garretson and C. A. Dewey.
16-Mrs. E. B. Wells of Salt Lake City, died second recording secretary of the National Council of Women, in Washington, D. C.
17-Polix Padre, president of France, died suddenly, of heart disease.
18-Two snowslides in Bingham Canyon, Utah, covering five men; all were rescued.
19-M. Loubert elected president of France.
20-Representative A. A. Law, of Cache County, made a statement in the Utah Legislature, accusing A. W. McCune, candidate for U. S. senator, of attempting to bribe him.
21-Porting in Paris left homeless by a fire at West Washington, W. Va.
22-Battle in Paris against the new government and over the proposed return of the Dreyfus case.
23-C. W. Miller, champion long distance miler, died in a contest and broke the world's record, at San Francisco, Cal.

an investigation of the charge of bribery against A. W. McCune.
In Congress, the House committee on elections acted favorably on an anti-polygamy amendment to the national Constitution.
21-In the corridor of the city and county building, Salt Lake City, Representative Cook struck Representative Bywater. Both were members of the lower branch of the State Legislature.
22-Island of Negros, Philippine archipelago, assented to American sovereignty.
23-Fatal snowslide at Silver Plume, Colorado.
24-Fire at Manila; 600 to 700 houses burned.
25-American navy took peaceful possession of the island of Cebu, Philippine archipelago.
26-Cuban soldiers parade in Havana.
27-Royalist conspiracy unearthed in Paris.
28-Snowslide at Alta, Little Cottonwood, Utah, destroyed a number of houses.
29-Salt Lake City public building bill passed the national House of Representatives; appropriation, $300,000.
30-Admiral Dewey warned Germans at Manila to observe strict neutrality.
31-Union Pacific railway blocked by snow in Wyoming.
Jasper Davis fell fifty feet at the Daisy mine, Mercer, Utah, and was killed.
Fatal collision on the Central Pacific, near Hot Springs, Nevada, killed three men—two firemen and one engineer—and injured one engineer.

MARCH.

2-In the Law-McCune bribery investigation by a legislative committee in Salt Lake City, Attorney W. Van Court struck Attorney D. Evans in the face, Mr. Evans having accused Mr. Van Court of stating what was false.
Chicago & Alton railway changed hands.
President McKinley signed the bill including an appropriation for federal building in Salt Lake City.
Blizzard in Colorado stops railway traffic.
4-Congress adjourns.
National Live Stock association gives out statement that 700,000 cattle had perished in the February storms.
6-Forty persons killed and over 100 hurt by a powder magazine explosion at La Gouban, France.
Three persons were killed and seven injured in a tornado at Madisonville, Tenn.
6-Utah Legislature passed a resolution denying that Congressman B. H. Housers was elected by undue influence.
Majority of the Utah legislative committee in the McCune bribery investigation find that the charges against McCune are not sustained.
10-Utah Legislature fails to elect a U. S. senator.
Six men killed by a gunpowder explosion in the Creede mine, Colorado.
11-Sale of Union Pacific lands in Utah.
Gen. Gomez publicly advises the Cuban army to disband.
15-Killing of strikers at Henson, Colo., requires the calling out of troops to preserve the peace.
16-Six men fatally shot in a row over politics at Hot Springs, Ark.
Death of David S. Emery, ex-recorder of Salt Lake City.
17-Queen of Spain signs the peace treaty with the United States.
Case of smallpox discovered at Fort Douglas, Utah.
Windsor hotel, New York, burned. Sixteen lives lost; forty-two persons injured.
21-Charles Haun and a nine-year-old boy named Hull killed at Murray, Utah, by being struck by a train while crossing the Rio Grande Western railway track.
22-Bombardment of Apla, Samoa, by American and British war vessels. The bombardment of towns along the coast lasted for eight days.
23-Filipino army defeated at Marikina, north of Manila. The Americans won a long series of victories extending before and after this date.
24-Snow blockades on Colorado railroads broken, having continued since the early part of the month.
25-Lieuts. Critchlow and Davis, and two guns of the Utah artillery captured thirty Filipinos in battle.
26-Thomas H. Handers, night watchman in a store at Layton, Davis county, Utah, murdered by burglars.
Steamboat Rowena Lee blown up on this morning, and sixty persons drowned.
28-Stevie Stella, plying between Leeward, England, and the Channel Islands, foundered at sea. One hundred and thirty persons were drowned.
29-United States troops enter Malolos, the Filipino capital.

APRIL.

1-One hundred blue jackets from American and British warships, landed at Apla, Samoa islands, ambushed by natives, who killed seven and wounded several. The natives were beaten off.
Judge W. N. Dusenberry, of the Fourth judicial district, Utah, resigned.
Rear Admiral Carpenter, retired, U. S. N., committed suicide.
2-Dwight L. Moody addressed the inmates of the Utah State prison.
3-Ian Macdonald, (Dr. John Watson) lecturer in the Salt Lake Assembly hall on traits of Scottish character.
4-Thomas H. Hilton confirmed chief of the police department, Salt Lake City.
5-One hundred and fifty Japanese fishermen drowned in a storm off the coast of Japan.
6-Sixty-ninth annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints convened in Salt Lake City. Utah State Daymen's association met in Salt Lake City.
Latter-day Saints' meeting house burned by a mob at Clinton, Tenn. This was the third instance in a few months of burning "Mormon" meeting houses in the South.
7-Six persons burned to death and several injured in a dwelling house fire in New York City.
8-Utah Supreme court decided that trial by jury of eight is a valid trial.
9-Reunion of veteran artillerymen in held in Salt Lake City.
10-Vesta throws himself back on his hands, on a three-year-old child, Vesta Morgan, Morgan City, Utah, and causes death.
11-Race riot at Pana, Illinois, between white and colored miners. Six negroes killed and eight wounded. Troops sent to the scene.
Justice Stephen J. Field, for over thirty-four years a member of the United States Supreme court, died in Washington.
Mothers' congress held in Salt Lake City.
11-Pour men killed and five injured by the giving way of a temporary bridge at Gilling river, New York.

F. B. Cooper selected for superintendent of public schools in Salt Lake City.
15-Lieut. J. C. Gilmore and fourteen of the United States gunboat Yorktown's crew captured by Filipino insurgents.
18-Pennsylvania fails to elect a United States senator.
21-Bartlett Tripp, United States commissioner to Samoa, stops over in Salt Lake City, en route to the islands.
23-Sam Hise, negro murderer, burned at the stake in Georgia.
24-A negro minister, Lige Strickland, who induced Sam Hise to commit the murder, lynched by hanging, near Palmetto, Georgia. These incidents caused Admiral Dewey leaves Manila for home.

Peace commission from Aguinaldo arrives at Manila. No arrangements to stop the insurrection were entered into.
25-Seven negroes lynched at San-diego, Mexico.
27-The Walker site, corner East Temple and Market streets, selected for the site of the government building in Salt Lake City.
Eightieth anniversary of Queen Victoria's birth elaborately celebrated in Great Britain.
27-Report of Major R. W. Young, on the work of the Utah light artillery in the Philippine islands made public.
General conference of Mutual Im-

thirst on the California desert discovered.
26-Lieut. Henry Pearson, of Draper, Utah, who was at the battle of Manila Bay, arrived in Utah. On June 25th he addressed the congregation in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, relating his experiences.
Hiram R. Hanson of Oxford, Idaho, drowned while bathing in Kona lake, New York. He was in the Eastern States as a missionary.
21-Mrs. Harriet Taylor Parkinson, of Franklin, Idaho who had taken ill while engaged in missionary labors in the Northwestern States, died at her home.
23-Death of Abraham Gould, brother of Jay Gould, at Salem, N. Y.

11-National Educational association convention met in Los Angeles, Cal.
12-Disastrous flood at Mantu, Utah.
Train on Colorado Southern railway in New Mexico held up and robbed.
Heavy floods in Wayne county, Utah.
13-Eddie Simpson, 10 years old, killed by a cave-in on the north bench, Salt Lake City. A boy companion named Vincent was not out alive.
First vestibule car run on a street railway in Salt Lake City, on the S. L. C. R. R. line.
14-Gen. Jos. H. Wheeler passed through Ogden en route to the Philippines.
15-New Stake tabernacle at Richfield, Sevier county, dedicated.
17-Burton C. Morris shot and killed in Salt Lake City, Utah, by John Benbrook.
Eight-hour law in Colorado declared invalid.
Edward Johnson shot and killed at Santquin, Utah, by Ab. York, in a drunken row.
18-Four firemen fatally hurt and sixteen others injured at a fire in Milwaukee. Wisconsin, during a street railway strike.
Eruption of volcano of Mauna Loa, Hawaiian islands.
19-Dynamite used in the street railway men's strike in New York to blow up tracks.
Secretary of War R. A. Alger resigned.

20-Earl Luffkin, 10 years old, drowned in Jordan river, Salt Lake City, while bathing.
T. B. Lewis, of Ogden, a prominent Utah educator, died at Boston, Mass., after undergoing a surgical operation.
21-Dynamite outrages in Cleveland, during street railway strike.
Troubles continued over a considerable period.
Death of Col. Robt. G. Ingersoll, the noted lawyer and agnostic lecturer.
22-Anglo-American athletic contest in England. English win five events, American four.
23-Brian Westenkamp, 11 years old, killed by being caught under a Rapid Transit railway street car, in Salt Lake City.
24-Three miners killed in a coal mine explosion at Brownsville, Pa.; seventy other men rescued.
Daniel Seegmiller, a prominent citizen of southern Utah, shot and killed at Ranch, Kane county, Utah, by a neighbor, Wm. Roundy, who afterwards killed himself.
25-Rocky Mountain Medical Society met in Salt Lake City.
Engineer killed and fireman hurt in Central Pacific passenger train wreck at Clark's station, Nev.
Yaqui Indian uprising in Mexico.
26-President Ulysses S. Grant of Santo Domingo assassinated.
27-One hundred and fifty-five persons drowned through a collision of vessels on the river Volga, near Nijni Novgorod, Russia.
Utah forest reservations opened to sheep owners.
"Mormon" Elders mobbed in Jackson county, Georgia. A member of the Church, Mrs. Cunnard, shot and dangerously wounded by the mob.
28-Apostle Heber J. Grant arrested in Salt Lake City on a charge of unlawful cohabitation.
Latter-day Saints' College in Salt Lake City reorganized.
29-Three men killed in a Union Pacific railway collision at Walcott, Wyoming.
30-Utah light artillery returning from the Philippine islands, arrived at San Francisco.
31-Robert Cobbley, 16 years old, killed by an Oregon Short Line railway train near Pleasant Grove, Utah.
Gov. Candier of Georgia issued an appeal to the people of his State, against mob violence.

AUGUST.

1-Elihu Root of New York became United States secretary of war.
2-Seventeen months' drought broken by copious rains at St. George, Utah.
Chief Justice Chambers of Samoa visited Salt Lake City.
3-Engineer and fireman killed in a Rio Grande Western railway wreck 60 miles east of Price, Utah.
Floods in Emery county, Utah, stop railway traffic.
Storm along the coast of the Gulf of Mexico does great damage.
4-Heavy rainstorm in Salt Lake City. E. M. East, aeronaut, of Salt Lake City, drowned in Leech Lake, Minn.
5-Joseph Hogan, Jr., of Bountiful, Davis county, on a mission to the Netherlands, drowned while bathing in the river Rhine.
6-Hundred lives lost by a typhoon on the coast of Japan.
7-Thirty-six persons killed and many injured by an electric car going over a trestle at Bridgeport, Conn.
Eighteen persons drowned by the collapse of a gang plank at a ferry at Bar Harbor, Maine.
8-New trial in the Dreyfus case began at Rennes, France.
9-Sergeant John Jackson shot and killed at Fort Douglas, Utah, by Private Wm. H. Carter. In an exciting chase, Carter was shot while attempting to escape.
10-More lives lost (estimated 2,000) and a vast amount of property destroyed by a hurricane in Porto Rico.
11-Gov. Wells of Utah proclaims Saturday, Aug. 19, a day of thanksgiving for the lives saved and property preserved by the arrival in the State, from the Philippines, of the Utah light artillery.
Body of Simeon Alvord, supposed to have been murdered by a traveling companion 25 years previously, found near Meadow, Utah.
14-Attempt at Rennes, France, to kill M. Labori, counsel for Captain Dreyfus.
15-British-Transvaal dispute assumes an alarming phase, the Transvaal government having failed to yield to the demands of Great Britain.
16-Lady Linty, the actress, married to Hugo de Bathe, son of an English baron.
17-Methodist conference met in Salt Lake City, attacked polygamy. Congressmen Roberts and "Mormonism" were the subjects of the session.
Six persons drowned in White river, Indiana, by an accident to a ferryboat.
President McKinley issues an order for recruitment of volunteers for service in the Philippines.
Wellman Polar expedition arrived at Tromsø, Norway, from an exploration of Franz Josephland.
18-Cup challenger Shamrock, six Thomas Lipton's yacht, arrived at New York from Great Britain, to engage in the race with the Columbia, for the America's cup.
Seven men killed and three injured by a boiler explosion at Cardenas, Mexico.
Twenty-five persons killed by a coal mine explosion in Glamorganshire, South Wales.
19-Utah volunteer light artillery arrived in Salt Lake City, and received an enthusiastic welcome.
Incorporation of a company to build an electric railway between Bingham Canyon and Salt Lake City.
20-Elder Thomas Bell, of Glenwood, Utah, on a mission to the Southern States, died at Berzella, Cal., of heart failure; he had been ill with fever.
Riot in Paris, France; 250 persons injured.
Elder Ephraim Jensen, a "Mormon" missionary, addressed a meeting on the Common, Boston, Mass.
21-Firemen killed and fireman hurt in a collision on the Rio Grande Western railway, at Nolan, Price Canyon, Utah.
22-Veterans of the Blackhawk Indian war held a reunion at Provo Lake resort, Utah.

2-Dee Hive house, Salt Lake City, selected for offices for the Church.
3-Policeman Wm. Strong murdered at Provo by a "tramp."
International council of women met in London.
4-Delegates of French and Belgian parliaments suspended to preserve order.
5-Fire fight in the Belgian chamber of deputies and riots in the streets of Brussels.
6-Harvard university crew won over Yale, in the intercollegiate boat race at New London, Conn.
Major James Babin, of Muskogee, Mich., assassinated by a new trial.
Recruits of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth U. S. infantry, colored, held a session at Winnemucca, Nev., and shot the bar tender.
More than 20 legislators injured in a fight in the Italian chamber of deputies at Rome.
1-Ninety-ninth anniversary of the birth of President Brigham Young celebrated at Salt Lake City.
2-Utah Pacific passenger train derailed and robbed near Wilcox, Arizona.
Major F. W. Esterhazy confesses, at London, England, that he wrote the dossier on which Capt. Dreyfus had been convicted of treason in France.
3-Negotiations at Bloemfontein, between President Kruger, of the South African Republic, and Sir Alfred Milner, British high commissioner to South Africa, prove unsatisfactory.
4-Exposure by the Desert News of the Salt Lake Tribune's false story about polygamy at Spanish Fork, Utah.
Forty-eight persons injured in a railway wreck 20 miles south of Kansas City, Mo.
Fitzsimmons and Jeffries fight for the heavyweight championship of the world. Jeffries wins.
Coal train runs away at the Grass Creek mine, Coalville, Utah.
Rio Grande Western moves for a union railway depot in Salt Lake City.
10-Heavy defeat of Filipino insurgents at San Pedro Macati, near Manila, Luzon.
12-Dupuy cabinet in France resigns, owing to the Dreyfus agitation.
One hundred and seventy-five people killed and 400 injured by a terrific storm in the north Mississippi valley, chiefly centering at New Richmond, Wis.
Bishop Frederick Kessler dies at Salt Lake City, Utah.
13-General Lawton cuts his way out of a force of Filipino insurgents, which had almost surrounded his command at Las Pinas, Philippine islands.
Town of Hermann, Neb., destroyed by a tornado; 9 persons killed and 20 injured.
14-Strike in the smelters at Denver, over violations of the eight-hour law by employers. The law was afterwards declared unconstitutional.
Malleeta Tann declared king of Samoa. He abdicated the same day, under an agreement with the tripartite commission.
15-Xanadu Armstrong died in Salt Lake City.
Death of ex-Congressman Richard P. Bland.
16-Lieut. Dan Godfrey's British guide band railway at Exeter, Pa., killed 18 and injured 40 people.
Orson Smith, of Logan, Utah, falls in a large wheat speculation, his losses being about $50,000.
17-Summit State tabernacle at Coalville, Utah, dedicated by President Lorenzo Snow.
18-President Lorenzo Snow attends special conference at St. George, Utah, and brings the subject of titling prominently before Church members.
19-Peace conference at the Hague opened.
President Kruger, of the South African Republic, and Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner in South Africa, agree to meet at Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, in an endeavor to reconcile differences between the governments they represented.

25-Universal peace convention at Mytic, Conn.
New soda water spring discovered at Soda Springs, Idaho, christened Wool-ruff spring, by President Lorenzo Snow.
Mrs. Joseph Lippman, of Salt Lake City, killed by the overturning of a stage near Divaliers, Montana, while en route to Yellowstone National Park.
26-Gala day at Paris, Idaho, on the occasion of the visit of President Lorenzo Snow.
Discovery of a plot to dynamite Judge O. W. Powers and Prison Warden G. N. Dow, in Salt Lake City.
27-Laying of cornerstone of St. Ann's orphanage (Catholic) near Salt Lake City.
"Mormon" Elders mobbed near Dover, Tenn.
28-In a speech at Pittsburg, Pa., to the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers, returned from the Philippines, President McKinley reviewed the history of the Eighth army corps in the Philippines war and named the roll of honor, which included the Utah light artillery.
Six children perished in an orphan asylum fire at Orangeville, N. J.
31-President Figueroa, of San Domingo, resigned; was later succeeded by Juan Isidro Jimenez.

SEPTEMBER.

1-Five persons killed, seven injured, by a boiler explosion at Pittsburg, Pa.
2-Austin Van Guilder murdered his two children then killed himself, at Salt Lake City.
3-Thirtieth annual G. A. R. encampment met in Philadelphia.
Arthur Starnes, a prominent promoter of the sugar industry in Utah, died at Salt Lake City.
5-D. J. Williams, of Salt Lake City, fell twenty-five feet at Murray, Utah, and was killed.
British troops leave London for South Africa.
7-Utah sugar factory at Lehi, Utah, started its run for 1899.
8-Britain's final response to the Boers agreed on by the British cabinet.
9-Captain Dreyfus convicted a second time of treason, at Rennes, France. The verdict included mention of extenuating circumstances.
Hon. Wm. J. Bryan addressed an assemblage at the Salt Palace, Salt Lake City.
11-Southern Pacific train held up at Cochise, Arizona, and robbed.
Colorado volunteers passed through Salt Lake City on their return home from the Philippines.
12-Sudden death of Cornelius Vanderbilt.
13-Steamsip Oceanic, largest vessel afloat, arrived at New York, on her first voyage across the ocean.
Conference on trusts held in Chicago.
14-Joseph E. Taylor of Salt Lake City, surrenders on a charge of unlawful contribution made against him.
15-President Kruger of the South African Republic and Joseph Chamberlain, British secretary of state for the colonies, disagree as to the agreement entered upon by the two governments.
British troops leaving London draw special notice by shouts of "All aboard for Pretoria!"
17-Seven negroes shot and killed by striking white miners at Cartersville, Ill. Troops called out to preserve order.
18-Captain Dreyfus pardoned by the French government.
Washington county fair opened at St. George, Utah.
Several hundred people (estimated at 500 to 1,000) killed by earthquake in Asia Minor.
20-M. Guerin, anti-Semite leader in Paris, who had been barricaded in his residence for six weeks and had defied the police, surrendered.
Capt. Dreyfus set at liberty.
"Mormon" Elder mobbed at Bessmer, Ala.
President Kruger appealed to Queen Victoria to prevent the impending war.
22-Ahmer McKinley, brother of President McKinley, in Salt Lake City.
23-British government gives the Transvaal government till October 5th to yield to the British demands.
President Snow occupies the Bee Hive house, Salt Lake City.
Six people killed and five injured on a collision on the D. & R. G. railway at Florence, Colo.
24-United States gunboat Urdaneta (40 tons) captured by Filipino rebels.
Battle of Subig bay; defeat of Filipinos.
Gustave Meyer, connected with F. Auerbach & Bro.'s mercantile business, found dead in Salt Lake City.
Several hundred persons killed by landslides in the Lower Himalayas, British India.
27-British declare all negotiations off, and announce that they will dictate terms to the South African Republic.
28-Admiral Dewey arrived at New York.
Five persons killed and five injured in a railway collision at Auburn, N. Y.
Clarence Abbott killed at Farmington, Utah, by a horse falling on him.
29-World's pacifist meeting to 2,034, by Bumps, at Louisville, Ky.
30-Orange Free State decides to join with the South African Republic in case of war with Great Britain.
Four persons killed and three injured in a wreck on the Great Northern railway at Paisie, Montana.
29-First Dewey parade in New York.
President Andrade of Venezuela leaves the country, being forced to do so by revolutionists.
30-Telephonic communication established between Salt Lake City and Butte, Helena and Anaconda, Mont.
Dewey celebration in New York.
George Swan, auditor of Salt Lake City, died suddenly.

OCTOBER.

2-Admiral Dewey arrived in Washington and received public welcome.
President McKinley complimented Maj. R. W. Young, of Utah, on the excellent record of the Utah light artillery in the war in the Philippines.
Gov. Wells and other Utah people in attendance at the Dewey celebration, dine at the Millionaire's club, New York.
3-Utah State Fair opened in Salt Lake City.
Yacht race for America's cup, at New York, called off, owing to wind being too light.
Tow presented to Admiral Dewey, at Washington, D. C.
Fifth annual convention of the State Medical society held at Salt Lake City, Utah.
J. O. Malveny, chief engineer of the Oregon Short Line railway, shot and killed in his office in Salt Lake City, by F. J. Mills.
Award in the British-Venezuela boundary dispute.
5-Africaners in Cape Colony appeal to Queen Victoria to interpose and prevent threatened war.
International yacht race; a drifting match this day. Owing to light wind, the race failed several succeeding days.
6-Seventieth semi-annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints met in Salt Lake City.
7-President McKinley and Hon. W. J. Bryan met at Canton, O.
Great Britain called for 25,000 troops. Heavy increase of tithe-paying in the Church reported by President Lorenzo Snow at the conference in Salt Lake City.
8-Sunday school jubilee celebration, in honor of the fiftieth year of the (Continued on page twenty.)

Dr. Harry Young.

Among the deaths of notable Utah people during the year, the one that stands out most conspicuously, perhaps, is that of brave and chivalrous Harry Young, who met his tragic fate at the hands of Filipino assassins in a manner that shocked to the utmost the feelings of his comrades of the Utah batteries, a goodly number of whom fell fighting for the same glorious principles for which he enlisted.

an anti-lynching movement and sentiment throughout the country.
25-Arthur Gen. W. R. Shafter, who commanded the American army at the battle of Santiago, visited Salt Lake City.
26-Outrages by striking miners in the Cour d'Alejo mining district of Idaho, in which life was lost and much property destroyed.

MAY.

1-Capt. Wm. A. Brown, of the Ogden police, killed in fight with two highwaymen, in the foothills near Ogden, Utah. A posse of officers was endeavoring to make an arrest when the robbers resisted and the conflict occurred. One of the robbers was killed and the other captured and afterwards sentenced to death.
2-$20,000,000 paid to Spain by the United States, in conformity with the peace treaty.
3-The United States postmaster-general issues an order barring from the mail for the Philippines the pamphlets of the Anti-Imperialist league, of which Edward Atkinson was secretary.
4-Exposure by the Desert News of the Salt Lake Tribune's false story about polygamy at Spanish Fork, Utah.
Forty-eight persons injured in a railway wreck 20 miles south of Kansas City, Mo.
Fitzsimmons and Jeffries fight for the heavyweight championship of the world. Jeffries wins.
Coal train runs away at the Grass Creek mine, Coalville, Utah.
Rio Grande Western moves for a union railway depot in Salt Lake City.
10-Heavy defeat of Filipino insurgents at San Pedro Macati, near Manila, Luzon.
12-Dupuy cabinet in France resigns, owing to the Dreyfus agitation.
One hundred and seventy-five people killed and 400 injured by a terrific storm in the north Mississippi valley, chiefly centering at New Richmond, Wis.
Bishop Frederick Kessler dies at Salt Lake City, Utah.
13-General Lawton cuts his way out of a force of Filipino insurgents, which had almost surrounded his command at Las Pinas, Philippine islands.
Town of Hermann, Neb., destroyed by a tornado; 9 persons killed and 20 injured.
14-Strike in the smelters at Denver, over violations of the eight-hour law by employers. The law was afterwards declared unconstitutional.
Malleeta Tann declared king of Samoa. He abdicated the same day, under an agreement with the tripartite commission.
15-Xanadu Armstrong died in Salt Lake City.
Death of ex-Congressman Richard P. Bland.
16-Lieut. Dan Godfrey's British guide band railway at Exeter, Pa., killed 18 and injured 40 people.
Orson Smith, of Logan, Utah, falls in a large wheat speculation, his losses being about $50,000.
17-Summit State tabernacle at Coalville, Utah, dedicated by President Lorenzo Snow.
18-President Lorenzo Snow attends special conference at St. George, Utah, and brings the subject of titling prominently before Church members.
19-Peace conference at the Hague opened.
President Kruger, of the South African Republic, and Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner in South Africa, agree to meet at Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, in an endeavor to reconcile differences between the governments they represented.