FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

This is Easter Monday.
 Foggy, at the Theatre next Thursday night.
 Mr. Phil Robinson's lecture tomorrow night at the Theatre.
 Miss Thomas is teaching elocution to a large class of University students.
 The Utah Commission are expected to meet in this city on the 15th of April.
 The Priesthood of the Fifth Ward administered the Sacrament at the Assembly Hall yesterday afternoon.
 Our Sunday night's dispatches convey intelligence of the sudden death of Postmaster General Howe.
 Three hundred good voices wanted for the great Theodore Thomas Jubilee, at the Tabernacle, next June.
 From Mr. Dwyer's bookstore we have the latest Week and the Judge, both humorous and witty as usual. Also Harper's Weekly for March 26th.
 The Union Pacific has commenced the running of through freight trains from the Missouri to the coast, guaranteeing shippers to make the run in eight days.
 In the absence of the Tabernacle Choir yesterday, the singing exercises of the Assembly Hall services were conducted by Brother John Lewis and choir of the Seventeenth Ward. They did well.
 Evan Stephens returned from Ogden on this noon train, having been successful in commanding weekly Saturday afternoon and evening classes of about 350 juveniles with over 100 applications for next week, 450 being all he can accommodate.
 The Southern Times states that an impetuous person entered a saloon at Frisco lately, stated he had no money and asked the bartender if he would take stamps. The answer was in the affirmative and as soon as the fellow swallowed the poison he gave three heavy stamps on the floor with his foot and fled.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

NOTICE.
 The General Conference of the Young People's Mutual Improvement Association will convene in the Assembly Hall, this city, at 10 a. m. on Monday, April 9th, and will continue through the day.
 All the members of the various Associations, and particularly the officers, are invited to attend, and the latter should come prepared to make their reports.
 J. F. SMITH, Superintendent.
 Salt Lake City, March 21, 1883.
University.—This morning the fourth term of the present academic year of the Deseret University opened. Two hundred and ninety students attended the late term, which expired on Friday last. The institution is flourishing, in all except a spiltable building.
Vacancy Filled.—On Saturday afternoon the regular meeting of the Ladies' Association was held at the 14th Ward Assembly Room. Presidents A. M. Cannon, D. O. Calder and Joseph E. Taylor were present. Mrs. Maria Y. Dougal was chosen counselor to sister Mary A. Freese, who presides over the Young Ladies' Association of this State, to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late sister Clara Y. Conrad.
Will be Seen To-Night.—Mr. H. C. Tyson has just completed a splendid scene for the Salt Lake Theatre. It is an interior of a Norman Castle, and is executed with consummate skill and taste. It will be used to-night at the entertainment to be given by Mrs. Vernon Willard. The lady will be assisted by the Sixth Infantry Band, Miss Annie Adams, Mr. J. S. Lindsay, Miss Ada Dwyer, Miss Agnes Olsen, Mr. E. Stenhouse and others.
From Montpelier.—This morning we received a call from Brother Henry Rollop, formerly of this city, but now of Montpelier, Bear Lake County, Idaho. The advent of the Oregon Short Line R. R. at that place has made business boom in the locality. Mr. Rollop is deputy clerk of the District Court and agent for the land office. Since the appearance of the railroad the liquor business has gained a considerable foothold, as half a dozen saloons are already located in that small town.
The Late Accident.—We have seen a letter written by a relative of the late George Hovey, the young man of Millville who was recently accidentally killed by falling off a train and being run over by the cars on the Utah & Northern R. R. while on his way, with a number of others, to the Oregon Short Line R. R. It appears that the young man was not addicted to drinking to any extent, but that, when laboring under any excitement he was a consummate drunkard and it is not improbable that he got up in his sleep and stepped off the flat car on which he was riding. But of course this must be a matter of conjecture.
Fixed Up to Captivate.—A melancholy man giving the name of Charles Achtermann has been a source of great annoyance at St. Mary's School for some time past. He is got up evidently for the purpose of conquering the fair sex, his hair falling in flowing ringlets upon his shoulders, while an artistic mustache adorns his upper lip. He is very sick (love sick), and has been paying regular visits to the educational institution named, to see a young lady pupil with whom the sensitive young man asserts he is over head and ears in love. The sickly swain became such a nuisance to the afore-said young lady and the heads of the school that the police were notified, and these protectors of the public peace quickly marched the man vulgarly called a "masher" to the city jail, where he is doubtless meditating on the adage that "the course of true love never did run smoothly." He is evidently insane.

ACCIDENTALLY POISONED.

A YOUNG BOY MEETS WITH A SINGULAR DEATH.

A most deplorable case of accidental poisoning occurred at Santaquin, Utah County, last Wednesday. Mr. Wm. R. Scott, agent of the U. C. R. R. at Spanish Fork, and his family reside at the place first named. On the day mentioned they were all out attending a family party at the house of a friend. A painter who was left at work at their residence found a quantity of bread upon which some of the poisonous stuff known as "rough on rats" had been placed. To get it out of his way he put it on a table. Before going home Mrs. Scott sent her nine-year-old son ahead to light the fire. Unfortunately the little fellow ate the poisoned bread. Immediately on her arrival Mrs. Scott discovered what had occurred. Remedies were administered to the boy and every conceivable means adopted to destroy the action of the poison, and for a time he appeared to be recovering from its effects, but subsequently he grew worse, and finally expired at thirty minutes past three o'clock yesterday morning.
 This morning the parents brought the body of their son to this city for burial in the Salt Lake cemetery. The family formerly resided at Sandy.

An Interesting Suit.—A damage suit which was planted by James Maldon against the Horn Silver Mining Company, has created a great deal of interest at Beaver. It appears that the plaintiff was terribly injured while at work in the mine, disabling him permanently from physical labor. The company declined to give him what he claimed to be adequate compensation, and he commenced suit a year ago for $10,000, the jury awarding him the full amount. The defense moved, on certain grounds, for a new trial, which was granted by Judge Twiss. The plaintiff amended his complaint and increased the amount of damages to $50,000. Recently the defendants moved for a nonsuit, which was granted by the judge, and the case was thrown out of court. Messrs. Christian, Lochie and Kenner were counsel for the plaintiff, and Messrs. F. L. Williams and Zera Snow for the defendants.

Assembly Hall Services.—Yesterday afternoon the congregation was first addressed by President Wilford Woodruff, who delivered a brief address upon the origin of man, the object of his earthly existence and his final destiny.
 The next speaker was Elder Eli A. Folland, who dwelt upon the comprehensiveness of the Gospel as exhibited in its taking within its broad folds the whole of the human family. He also spoke of the blessings that attended the Elders of the Church in their ministry abroad.
 The congregation was then addressed by President Angus M. Cannon, who dwelt upon the wonderful providences of the Almighty in protecting and blessing the Saints. He also spoke on the power and results of faith and unwavering integrity, citing Abraham as an illustrious example, who obtained from God the great promise of eternal increase. He also showed that the same blessing could be secured by those who did similar works and obeyed similar laws to those conferred to by the "Father of the faithful."

A Dangerous Female.—On Friday last, at Park City, Deputy Sheriff Milton Thomas and Deputy Shields went to the house of a woman known as "Carrie," to seize some goods by virtue of an attachment. The woman met Shields with a cocked revolver, with which she threatened to end his career. He backed into a room where Thomas was packing the goods for removal, when the furious female turned the weapon on him and told him to go and not stand upon the order of his superiors. Shields made a remark which attracted her attention, and again he was covered with the pistol. This was Thomas's opportune moment, as he seized and disarmed her, but not until he received a blow on the side of his head and a cut on his hand. So says the Record. The woman was placed in jail and fined $50.

The March Number.—The March number of the Contributor is out. Here is the table of contents:
 George A. Smith, V. L. Pioneer; Means of Improvement, Charles W. Sawyer; Hildebrand and Henry IV. Et. E. Brain; American President, James H. Hart; Eternal Duration of Matter, Wm. Farley F. Pratt; Sermons and Writings of the Prophet, Joseph of Gathering, Joseph Smith; The Bible in Egypt, Ruby Lamp; The Missing Link, G. F. Williams; The Head of Gold, Hansh P. King; Signs of Christ's Coming, V. The Gathering, Robert S. Spencer; The Echo Canyon War, IV.; L. J. Smith's Narrative, concluded; The Olive Tree, selected; Pride in Work, H. W. Nalabiti; A Soene in Virginia, J. L. Townsend; Editorial: Success of our Delegates; Temperance Lecture, Moses Thatcher; Association Intelligence; Notice, Quarterly Conferences.

Hacked with a Hatchet.—There is a ridiculous story about some fellow cutting his throat with a lump of chalk. Last Friday, at Denver, John Crowley, aged 22 years, selected nearly as improbable an implement with which to slash his earthly run. He seized a hatchet with both hands and sawed away at his windpipe until it was nearly severed. The reason ascribed for the rash act was that his father had got into trouble and brought disgrace upon the family. The probabilities are in favor of his recovery, although he made a horrible gash.

Young Mrs. Winthrop.—As will be seen by an advertisement "Young Mrs. Winthrop" is booked for the Walker Opera House on April 2nd, 3rd and 4th. It is one of the finest plays ever put upon the American stage, and is perfectly performed by Miss Madison Square Company. We understand that no one person will be allowed to buy more than eight seats, and no seats will be reserved before the opening of the box office on Friday morning.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

TIME EXTENDED.

We have concluded to continue our Closing Out Sale until April 20th, 1883. The remainder of our stock will be closed out at greatly reduced prices. We desire to inform the public that this sale is no sham, as the prices will convince you.  WM. JENNINGS & SONS.
 "Charter Oak A B C" is a very handsome book just issued by the manufacturers of the "Charter Oak" stoves, and it is after the style of nursery books, giving a rhyme for each letter of the alphabet, singling the praises of the "Charter Oak" stoves. It also contains some valuable cooking recipes. The cover is a very neatly executed piece of work, and is printed in bright colors. A copy will be mailed to any address on receipt of one three-cent stamp. Address the Executive Manufacturing Company, St. Louis.
