

First street today, in front of the home of Governor Wells, and nearly killed a horse belonging to John Timms, carpenter, employed on the "New building, Mr. Timms had been driven News his work by his son Bert and the boy was returning with the horse and buggy. On turning up First street he did not see the wire lying on the ground until the horse stepped on it. The ani-mal was thrown on to his side across the wire. After the first shock or two the unfortunate brute was unable to move, and when a sufficient number of men gathered to the spot, and rolle the animal over, it was seen that great gashes had been burned into the horse's side that a man could hide his hand in. The horse recovered sufficiently to be d home, but is in a pitiable con There is no telling how long the wir had been lying there, and it is re-markable that some of the children wh are always playing about there, neith-r attempted to play with it nor stepped Mathias Meakin was arrested yester-day for selling liquor to some Indians near the Oregon Short Line depot. The funeral of little Laura Katherine Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Day, was held this afterneon.

The officers and teachers of the Soventeenth ward Sunday school will spend "Pioneer Day" up Parley's canyon Dean Eddle delivered an interesting sermon on "China, the Shadow on the World," at St. Mark's cathedral last evening.

A marriage license was granted last week, says the News-Register, of Evanston, Wyoming, to Andrew Brown and Helen Pratt, both of Salt Lake, Rev. Dr. Edward P. Ingersoll of the Emmanuel Congregational church of Brooklyn, N. Y., preached at the First Congregational church yesterday morn-ing from Isaiah 55, 12, "And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands

Dr. Albert Loughridge, president of Bishop College, Marshall, Texas, occu-pled the pulpit at the East Side Baptist church last evening, Dr. Loughridge, in company with his wife, is on his to Montana. He will pass through Salt Lake on his return. John L. Davis, who was injured some time ago in the gravel beds, was re-moved to his home yesterday from St. Mark's hospital, He is still paralyzed from his waist down. Dr. Benedict thinks that he will never recover the use of hig limbs.

Denver Stockman: J. O. Duke had in four carloads of heavy shorn wethers from Colton, Utah, which are expected to sell here. Four carloads of sheep for the Mallory Commission company at Kansas City from the same point were rested and fed.

Coalville Times: Stephen Rudd, a sheep herder in the employ of Ira Bennion died very suddenly at Rockport Wednesday morning about 5 o'clock. The cause of his death was appendici-tis. The remains were taken to Park City where they were prepared for burbal, and then shipped to Marysvale. Utah, where they were laid beside his mother.

WIRING PARK CITY.

The Ontario company has started wiring Main screet for its electric dight system, and in a short time this plant will be supplying the light for the city and citizens. Those who read the re-port of the Ontaris company, published in the Record some time ago, will re-member that among its assets were 4,000 shares of stock in the Back City Light shares of stock in the Park City Light, Heat & Power company, and as these are all the shares there are in the com-pany, it is but reasonable to suppose that this change means the absorbing of that corporation by the Ontario, and that as soon as the necessary changes and wire stretching are made by the Ontario the Park City company will go out of business. Whether or not the meters are to be

world. In the various sects there are men who teach their honest convictions nd there are others who preach for tire and divine for money. Even amon the heathens there are noble men wh tre as sincere as any Christians, but none of them even lay claim to receiv evelation from God. It was for an-nouncing that God had revealed Fils will in the latter days that Joseph Smith and, his brother Hyrum were It is for this that many of the ers are subjected to mob violence. What is there in that principal that causes such violent opposition? What is there unreasonable in the idea that in this age of the world, God has communicated His will to men? Readers of the Bible understand that its books declare the word of the Lord and that It came through men to whom He communicated His will. Why should the world reject the idea that He reveals His will in these times? Why should men who believe in the commission that Christ gave His Aposties, in which He said that cartain sizes should follow said that certain signs should follow them that believe, oppose the idea that the signs do follow them that believe? This afternoon will be laid the corner stone of a cathedral that is being erect d by a church that lays claim to authority handed down from the days of the Apostles. That claim is denied by the hundreds of differing sects and all oppose the doctrine of present revela-tion. The speaker cited the or-dinance of baptism to show how onflicting the religions of the world re on that point, which was a sample their controversy on other points, the sects however, perform that e in the name of the Father, and of e Son and of the Holy Ghost. But how can they consistently administer in the name of Deity, when they claim that Deity has had no communication with men for hundreds of years. The Church established by Christ was one Church no matter how many branches it had. It was the claim of its Apostles that its members formed one Church; that they had been all one Church, that they had been all baptized into one body, and had drank of the one spirit. And in that body God had placed Prophets and Apostes evangelists, pastors and teachers "far the work of the ministry, the perfecting of the Saints, and the edifying of the body of Christ until they all came to the knowledge of the Son of God." It was declared by the Aposte Duot the was declared by the Apostle Paul that. In the last days God would gather to-gether all things in Christ both in the heavens and the earth, and make them one. The Elders go out into the world and bear testimony that that dispensation has been opened; that God an tion has been opened, that God and His son have personally appeared; that Peter, James and John have come and restored the Holy Priesthood. The Latter-day Saints do not draw their doctrines from the Bible or any other book. It is true that books have been book. It is true that books have been written, by inspiration, but they are the offspring of divine doctrine, the doctrine itself came from God. It is the same now and what was written aforetime is cited in proof that the doctrines now revealed are the same a those given in former times. The peo ple who have gathered to this country from all parts of the world have not come to find out the truth of "Mor-monism." They learned that before they came and could bear testimony that God does manifest Himself in this age as He did anciently. One evidence of the divinity of this work is that when people truly repent of their sins and are baptized by one having authority they receive the witness of the Holy Ghost that this work is of Gad. If they fall into sin and do not repent, the light of the Holy Ghost departs and they turn their backs upon that which they turn their backs upon that which they furn their backs upon that which they once knew to be true. There is but one way to salvation and the churches of the world even though they were started by honest men are man-made, and will therefore fall. The plan of salvation is one and is always the same, said the speaker, and God has revealed it again in the latter days. To these facts and many others the speaker bore a strong testimony, and called upon all to repent and obey the Gospel before the judgments of God | nightly performances.

on it accidentally A PEBBLE STORM. A Shower of Little Stones Thought to # Have Come from Lake Shore.

A peculiar occurrence of yesterday's storm was reported today from the home of M. D. Cook, about five miles southwest of this city. While the rain fell he was attracted by such a loud pattering on the roof of his house, that he went out to see, if it were possible that rain drops could be making so much noise. On going out he was amazed to see small pebbles pouring off the roof. As soon as the rain subsided he gathered up several handsfull of the ebbles, and examined them. They ap peared to have come from the lake shore, having been washed clean and smooth. The lake is twelve miles from the home of Mr. Cook but that is not the most phenomenal feature of the matter. It seems that a lot of the pebbles must have been scooped up by the wind from one place, and let down in the same way, as there were no signs of falling publies, a few rods from the touse. Mr. Cook has several neighbors who live near by, but no pebbles fell on their premises, and all that could be found were within a radius of a few yards.

Miss Belle Richards, daughter of State Auditor Margan Richards, delivered an address in the Tweifth ward chapel last night, having for her subject "Love the Lord thy God." Miss Richards occu-pled forty minutes in the delivery of her discourse and she was listened to with rapt attention. Much surprise at the roung lady's ability was expressed by many veteran public speakers, because of the lucid manner in which her posttion was defined and the way in which she held the interest of her listeners.

NEW FEATURES.

An original and highly entertaining feature of the "new-faces" bill which opens for the week at the Salt Palace theater tonight, is the first appearance here of McDonald Bros., famous Irish and German comedians. As original as their act is their trade mark., The Only Laugh-Smiths.". Jokes, rich and just off the wire are what they make a specialty of and the cool evenings are right for this form of amusement.

Another new face on the bill is Ver aliu,a great ventriloquist from Elitch's Denver Gardens. He does many strange and laughable things, but his walking and talking automatons are the feature of his act. The bleycle king, Ed. Baisden, will appear in new blke tricks. Halacratus will do some new juggling features, and Miss Ola Hayten, the great female baritone, will sing a new repertoire of songs. In this own theater the Cherry Sisters will give
