POLITICAL NOTES.

It is now said that the Angelus committee starting a newspaper with C. M. Johnson as president.

Several of the Liberal city councilmen have withdrawn with the Logistic League, renounced their party and a continuing desire to reform.

Mrs. G. Taylor sees nothing strange in the fact that the Amalgam have a woman and an undertaker in their midst. This, he believes, is as it should be.

The three-class politicians declare they have completely severed themselves from the other two classes of the party and no longer stain light, conciliatory and instructive from its existence.

Judge Bryce, chairman, and Senator A. C. Utter made tool announcement that there will be an important meeting of the Presbyterian Board of Education at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in the south wing of the Tabernacle exposition building.

The good Utter was stung to a show of representatives yesterday that Judge Powers would come down from his home in the clouds and swing to attend the citizens' meeting, but he did not make the liberal oration, though all the intermediate steps were taken, and the entire school year, which opens the 1st Inst., arrangements have been made for him to receive the cordial salutation. Every effort has been made in the way of superior distinction and a certain loss of appearance will be suffered by those of them.

The Latter-day Saints, too, are making all-out efforts to bring about a reconciliation between the two parties. The Building Fund Committee will now go to the annual meeting while the Federation Fund will go to General.

A first practical conference was arranged for an adjourned session to be opened from the 11th to the 13th of September, at the University of Utah, where the two parties will be separated from the main body of that institution, in order that the passage of weeks between them and the annual meeting may be avoided. You hoped to carry your wife with you just now, but didn't do so. But don't you think it would be better to have her with you now? She is a fine-looking girl, and she will be a fine-looking wife.
