SPORTING ANNUAL, 1908.

SPORTING ANNUAL, 1903. T. S. Andrews of Milwaukee, Wis., sporting editor of The Evening Wiscon-sin, has published his 1908 Sporting An-nual Record Book, containing records of all the noted fighters, trotting, pacing, running, bowling, athletic, baseball, au-tomobile, etc. The book contains many fine illustration of the world's promi-nent fighters, and all the up-to-date rec-ords. It is now the leading Sporting Au-nual of the country.

"PENNY GOSSIP."

A meeting has been called for Friday evening next to arrange for the second annual bench show.

J. M. Malone, the billard expert, de-feated Stewart last evening by a score of 20 to 71. Malone played 14.2 balk line against straight billiards.

Terms for a return meeting between lugo Kelly of Chicago, and Bill Papke of Spring Valley have been decided upon, and the men will fight over their great battle within sixty days. The weight is to be 138 pounds at the ringside, a figure at which Kelly thinks he will be strong enough to defeat the Spring Valley wonder.

It is probable that the contest will be decided in Milwaukee, although it is Papke's idea to throw the contest open to the highest bidder.

According to a Boston scribe, fights and fighters there are but two out-and-out champions in the ring today. Heavyweight Jeffries retired without any successor. The midleweight and welterweight titles are in doubt, and the same is true of the bantamweight championship. The two un-disputed champions are Joe Gans in the lightweight devision, and Abe Attel in the featherweight class.

Army orderlies used in Berlin as mes-sengers for the German war department, are now equipped with bicycles instead of horses. The wheels are enamaled in the colors of the department, and as they and their riders are easily recognized they have the right of way everywhere. There is something pathetic in the abolition of the gayly caparisoned army horse in favor of the more prosaic bike, but, af-ter all, its a matter of common sense when results are considered.

Dr. T. G. Roddick, of Montreal, expresident of the British Medical asso-clation, has been credited with the statement that within 25 years, provid-ing adequate measures for its elimina-tion are adopted, a case of consumption will be a curiosity. "I say Frank, what kind of a dog is that?" "That's a baseball dog," replied Bower-man, as he prepared to light a cigar. "How come it so, signor?" gayly cried the hefty catcher Robison. "Why, you see," answered Frank, as he took a long pull at his cigar and blew a cloud of smoke up in the air, "he wears a muzzle, snaps at files, chases fowls, and when he sees the dog-catcher," added Frank, "he make a home run."

of engraving and printing with black dry color used in the manufacture of ink resulted today in the indictment by the federal grand jury here of Edwin M. Van Dyck, formerly a chemist and ink maker, employed in the bureau and Victor Bloede, president of the Victor Bloede company of Baltimore, manufac-turers of the black dry color. Van Dyck and Bloede are charged in the in-dictments with conspiracy to defraud the government, the allegation being that they entered into an agreement by which Bloede was to pay Van Dyck a percentage of the money his company received from the government for the black dry color furnished to the bureau of engraving and printing. Van Dyck, it is alleged, in his position as chemist and Ink maker of the bureau, had to pass upon the samples of the color sub-mitted by various manufacturers. It is charged that he fraudulently favored the Baltimore company and that as a result of the conspiracy he was paid by Bloede in the course of several years

Paris, Jan. 6.—The French govern-ment is considerably exercised over the reports cabled to some American newspapers last week in which it is repre-sented as secertly desirous of a war between Japan and the United States and the destruction of the American fleet with the ultimate object of wit-nessing the internatialization of the Panama canal present difficulties settled amicably. It was for this reason that France as long ago as last spring made an unof-ficial tender of her good offices. More-over, the informant of the Associated Press went on, France is entirely op-timistic regarding the outcome. "It seems to us," said he, "that in the settlement of the immigration ques-tion the fact the denset Database tion, the fact that Great Britain, Japan's ally, has the same problem to solve should make it easier for America to effect a satisfactory adjustment, espe-cially if America and Great Britain get in unison along parallel lines. "On the other hand a growing ner-vousness regarding the outcome is to be seen in newspaper circles here. A representative of one of the great pa-pers said in this conection: While I am optimistic regarding the immigration question unless there should be a recurrence of the unfortunate attacks upon Japanese in California, I am dis-

GT. NORTH. RY. CASE.

Washington, Jan. 6 .- On behalf of the Standard Oil company Atty, A. D. Mc-Kenna of this city today filed a petition in the supreme court of the United States for leave to intervene in the case of the Great Northern railway involving the Elkins law imposing fines for argenting or accepting relates which was repealed by the Heyburn railroad rate law of the last Congress. The same question is involved in the case in which Judge Landis imposed a fine of $20,000,000 the the same rate of the sam in which Judge Landis imposed a fine of $20,000,000 on the oll company and consequently the decision in the Great Northern case will have a direct bear-ing on the Standard Oll company's case case. The Great Northern company was in-dicted Nov. 8, 1905, for giving rebates. Besides objecting to the sufficiency of the indictment on a technical ground, the company contends that the original provisions of the Elkins law, under which it was indicted, was repealed by the Hepburn act. The contention of the government is that the original pro-visions of the Elkins law, so far as the government is that the original pro-visions of the Elkins law, so far as necessary for the prosecution of of-fenses committed prior to the passage of the Hepburn act, were saved by sec-tion 13 of the revised statutes and fur-ther that the provision of section 10 of the Hepburn act, that "the amend-ments herein provided for shall not ef-fect causes now pending in courts of the United States, but such causes shall be prosecuted to a conclusion in the manner heretofore provided by law," refers to matetrs of procedure in courts of the United States under the old law and was not intended to operold law and was not intended to oper-ate as an extinguishment of penalties for forfeitures or liabilities incurred under the old law.

under the old law. The petition was granted and a brief will be filed in the case on behalf of the Standard. Atty.-Gen. Bonaparte made no objection, but said the govern-ment did not concede that the two cases are parallel.
