MANUFACTURING OPPORTUNI-TIES.

The great water power of Brigham City should be made to do more work than it does. The woolen mill, shoe shop, and other fine brick buildings, whiskey. stand empty. This seems not only a pity but a sin, and I am of the opinion that in the near future some far-seeing man or firm will come to the front and let the hum of industry be heard with in their walls.

Our merchants and others are just beginning to see the value of the adver-tising advantages of the Semi-Weekly News. It is found in nearly every home, and the balance borrow it from neighbors. Hundreds of people say to me, "O, yes sir, I read the 'News.' My neighbor takes it over the way." A fel-low often thinks what it would not do to say, but these prople remind me of the good old Methodist who, bearing his testimony after the sermon from the text, "The Gospel is without money and without price, free," said, "I have been a member of the church forty years, and thank God it has never cost me one cent." The minister said solemnly, "May God forgive your stingy soul
