

DESERET EVENING NEWS.
Thursday, September 17, 1896.
LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must be given in full, and their communications must be accompanied by their communications, and not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.
THEATRICAL.—"Jeannie Deans" to-night, as different from the play of the same title performed here before that it is almost another piece, with Miss Ince in the title role, Miss Adams as Effie, Mr. Lindsay as Rob. McKenzie as Dumbledikes, Miss Alexander as Madge Wildfire, and a full and complete cast. This is the last night of Miss Ince's engagement, and we hope to see this lady's very high order of talent appreciated by large audiences during the last two nights of her engagement.
GONE EAST.—F. T. Ferris, Esq., firm of Crockett & Ferris, went East this morning on business. "Ferry" is a live, energetic, honorable business man, who gives the most complete satisfaction to all with whom he may have business transactions. We wish him a pleasant and successful trip and safe return.
FLOODING.—An overcast sky intimates that we may have a change of weather soon. This morning was close and sultry. This afternoon a smart shower of rain.
FOR THE ROAD.—We noticed quite a number of teams to-day on the street, with wagons bearing a fair share of living freight, bound for the neighborhood of Springville, Utah Co.
PRESIDENT R. YOUNG and party left American Fork this morning at 9.30 and reached Provo at 1.30. A meeting was held at Pleasant Grove at 10 a.m., and one will be held at Provo this afternoon. The party will stay at Provo all night.
DISTRICT COURT.—The case of Oliver L. Gardner vs. Wells, Fargo & Co., progressed a stage to-day. The witnesses for the defense being called. This case employs half a dozen of the smartest lawyers in the city, three on either side.
MINING.—We clip the following from the Cleveland Herald, a paper that is neither an anarchist, nor does it deal in sensations:—
"It is stated that the State authorities of Missouri have brought into and distributed throughout several counties some eighty thousand stands of arms. On Saturday night fifteen hundred stands were brought into St. Louis, and the river in skiffs, and are now stored somewhere near the arsenal. These movements are quietly made, in anticipation of an outbreak at the coming election. It is reported that the Democrats are making similar preparations."
PROSECUTION.—At Helena, Montana, on Monday last, a German butcher was placed on trial before Justice Edwards, for committing an assault upon a Chinaman. The only evidence in the case was that of the individual assaulted, and that was rejected because he was not a citizen of the United States. The Daily Post thinks this was hardly just, and believes that the first case in any court in that district in which a Chinaman had been adjudged incompetent as a witness.
JEWISH NEW YEAR.—The first day of the month Tishra commences the Jewish New Year, which was inaugurated yesterday evening, the Jewish day commencing at sunset, with the appearance of the first star and continuing to the same time of the next evening. The stores of the Israelites in this city are closed and will remain so until Friday evening at sundown while they are celebrating Rosh Ha Shana, or the New Year.
ANOTHER.—We are nearly overwhelmed with scientific discoveries from a variety of sources. Here is the latest. We will find out after awhile that we are not ourselves, but other people entirely, and all as a result of great scientific discoveries.
"A theory of the Universe has recently been started, according to which, the author attempts to show that the earth has been formed from gaseous matter, which, in the first instance, lessening from the sun, subsequence passed from the gaseous to the liquid state, and is now passing into an entirely solid form; that the earth and all the other planets of the solar system are gradually approaching the sun, into which they will ultimately fall and be absorbed."
"THE WAGES OF SIN."—Cheyenne is not a New York in population, nor is it as old as the first settlements in Virginia, in fact it is a small town, but it has a full share of one of the worst features of civilization, if we are to judge by what the Leader says in the following brief paragraph, under the heading we have quoted:—
"The worldly trials of frailty, whose other half shall not be mentioned, are remarkably numerous in Cheyenne. To-day the police levied an assessment of five dollars and costs on each one of forty women of this town. In this periodical flinging of corporation stones at helpless women be productive of any good to society, surely Cheyenne may take a lesson among the reformers of social evils."
ARRIVED.—Bro. Robert Beauchamp, who will be remembered, while en route from California to Utah, last Spring, had to be left at Austin, Nev., on account of severe sickness, and on whose behalf a call was made upon the Saints here about a month back, arrived in this city by stage last night, with health re-established. He expresses himself deeply grateful for the aid rendered, and is highly gratified at the privilege of at last reaching the "Valleys of the Mountains."
THIS COULDOCK.—On the evening of the 15th inst. Miss Couldock had a farewell benefit at the Academy of Music, Omaha. The play was Louis XI, which was to be followed by the recitation of "The Vagabonds," by Mr. Couldock. The afterpiece was "One Touch of Nature." So says the Omaha Herald.
ANOTHER SOUL SAVED.—"Kit Burns" the proprietor of a rat pit, Water St., New York, has invited the President of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to visit his den, and says that he will arrange for him to witness his exhibitions. "Kit" says he doesn't think it wrong or cruel to kill rats, but if Mr. Berg can show him that it is so, "he'll bust the pit and get rid of his dogs." There's a chance for Water St. yet!
MAN KILLED BY INDIANS.—The Cheyenne Leader of the 12th inst. contains an account of the murder by Indians on the day previous, of one Michael Haskins, near Potomac Station, about 70 miles east of Cheyenne. Mr. Haskins was employed in hauling grain from the bluffs, about a mile to the railroad. He and a companion had just thrown off their load, when the latter returned to prepare dinner, and Mr. Haskins returned to the bluffs, where he was immediately surrounded and killed by Indians, in sight of some of his fellow workmen, they being too far off to render him any assistance. His body was taken to a Laramie, where he had a wife and three children living, and on the 12th inst. Mrs. Haskins, her three children and the body of her murdered husband started for St. Joe, where they formerly resided.
WORTH KNOWING.—Mr. John Thompson, of Spring Gulch, near Big Oak Flat, Tuolumne county, having lost several fine cows by a disease known as "wolf in the tail," succeeded in saving one by the following remedy, and wishing it to be published. The worm or parasite that enters the tail from the rectum, and the cow appeared likely to follow her predecessors to the lazarium. Mr. Thompson said the tail to the bone. He filled it with a remedy and the next morning the cow was well. The remedy is simple and always on hand. Should any of our readers have a cow similarly affected, we recommend them to give it a trial. Union Democrat.
