Joe García, the porch climber, thug, hold-up and murderer will not have to face a jury on a charge of committing the worst crime known to the law. His death at Seattle this morning removes from this sphere one of the most des-perate and cunning crooks that ever inested this community.

According to an eye witness of the shooting of the desperado, it was a mere accident that Sheriff Emery was not killed by the noted criminal. The eye witness says that Garcia did not take his eyes from Emery and there eve withess says that Garcia did not take his eyes from Emery and there was a look of hatred in them as the fellow tried to draw his revolvers and shoot the Salt Lake officer. One of the guns caught in the pocket of Garcia's coat and before he could get the gun into action the Seattle officers began pumping lead at him. Sheriff Emery is now on his way to Salt Lake. While he did not bring back here to face trial for murder, he was the means of removing a cruel, desper-ate crook. Garcia will, in all prob-ability, be burled at Seattle. The name of the man who betrayed Garcia is still kept secret by the offi-cials, but the belief grows stronger each day that the betrayer was "Tip" Belcher.
