It has been definitely arranged that the old folks of Salt Lake county shall go to Provo this year for their annual outing, though the date is not yet known to the committee. It is probable, however, that the excursion will be run in the latter part of June, as the people of the Garden City in extending ple of the Garden City in extending the invitation expressed a preference for the visit to be made in the month of roses, as it would then be strawberry time in Utah county, and that fact, it was thought, would add to the pleas-ure of the day. Members of the old folks' committee, headed by Bishop Charles W. Nibley and C. R. Savage, recently went to Provo to ascertain the feelings of the people there with reference to having
