

FRAGMENTS.

The Park City municipal election will take place on Monday next.

T. B. Terry, of the "Standard" Sewing Machine Co., is in the city on a brief visit.

The steel and iron work on the Salt Lake County Jail has been approved and paid for.

GEORGE TATE was fined $8 in the Police Court today for taking his back and soliciting passengers.

J. W. BROWN, Esq., representing the firm of John W. Brown & Co., Chicago, a construction house widely and favorably known in Utah, is in the city.

The Bingham Mining Company, Midland Investment Company and J. Farrell & Co., have filed their articles of incorporation with the proper officials.

The trial of Ah Jung alias Little Charlie, for the murder of China Mary, attracted quite a number of spectators to the Third District Court room today.

The grand larceny charge against Richard and Albert Jefferys was partially investigated before Justice Poyer Saturday afternoon, and an adjournment taken till Tuesday.

In the petit larceny case against Richard Jefferys, the testimony was all taken in the Police Court on Saturday afternoon, and the matter taken under advisement by the court until tomorrow.

LOK HERMAN, Esq., of the Dunham Manufacturing Co., St. Louis, the manufacturer of Dunham's concentrated coconut, an article well and favorably known to the trade of this section, is in the city.

SAMUEL S. NASHLEY, son of R. F. Nashley, Esq., of the Twentieth Ward, is lying seriously ill, but afflicted with a dangerous disease the character of which we are unable to state. The young man has many friends who will regret to learn of his affliction.

An important meeting of the directors of the Salt Lake State Library will be held at its reading room next Thursday evening, May 3rd, at 7:30 p. m. All of the directors, and all others interested, are requested to be present.

SEVEN "drunks" were ushered into the presence of Justice Poyer this morning, and five of them were assessed $5 each and ordered to be imprisoned an additional 30 days for being profane. Joseph Ashton, an old offender, was required to pay $25.

On Saturday afternoon we received a pleasant visit from Mrs. C. C. Cook, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mrs. William L. Lee, of Chicago, and Mrs. Bell and daughter, of Milford. The two first named were on their way home from a visit to California, while Mrs. Bell and her daughter were en route to the coast.

LOUIS A. MORGENTHAU is in the city again, this time with the Gus Williams Comedy Company, which appears at the Theatre on Monday and Tuesday evenings next, May 7th and 8th, in "Kipper's Fortune." An exchange says of the piece: "It is the universal opinion that it is the best production the clever comedian has ever had. As 'Kipper,' the given-hearted butcher, Mr. Williams is given splendid opportunities to display all his natural comedy talent."

Third District Court.

Proceedings before Judge Zane today:

Thos. Boylce and John Peter Nielsen were admitted to citizenship.

The People, et. vs. Ah Jung; murder in the first degree; trial before jury in progress.

United States vs. John R. Barnes; unlawful combination; sentenced to three months imprisonment, and to pay a fine of $300 and costs.

Emigration Intelligence.

By privative from Liverpool we learn that a company of Saints numbering seventy-four sailed from that port on Saturday last, per S.S. Wisconsin. This is the first company of this size's emigration. The next company will probably leave Liverpool on the 15th of May, by the same steamer, arrangements having been made to bring the present season's emigrants by the old reliable Ocean steamer.

Probate Court.

Estate of John P. Schelle, deceased; order made confirming report of commissioners.

Estate of B. F. Howells, deceased; proof of posting notices of time and place of hearing made; order made of sale of personal property.

Estate of B. F. Pendleton, deceased; order made appointing time and place to bear petition of Lavina Pendleton, asking that letters of administration be issued to her.

Estate of A. M. McFarland, deceased; order made fixing day for hearing return of sale of real estate.

Fatal Accident.

As a reporter was meandering along the busch about noon yesterday, he saw an aged gentleman pass him on an empty wagon, having only the remaining gears attached to his team. This gentleman was Pierce Quirk, a resident of Slaterville. He seemed robust and healthy, giving a pleasant nod as he passed. Little did the newspaper man dream of this man being found dead within six hours from that time. Yet such was the case.

At about 3 p. m. Mr. Charles Zeimer, while driving through the lane leading west from the Mount Fort school-house, came upon a wagon load of lumber tipped over, the tongue and front running-gears of the wagon being gone. On closer examination he found Mr. Quirk under the wagon. He immediately notified the lumber team, but upon finding that the unfortunate man was dead, he at once telephoned for the officers at the City Hall to come to the place. Upon the arrival of Marshal Ballantyne at the scene of the accident, the deceased was taken to his home in Slaterville. He had about seven or eight hundred feet of lumber on his wagon, which he had bought in Ogden. When three-quarters of a mile west from the school-house, it appears that the wheels had gone down into a gully some ten feet deep and tipped over. The front part of the wagon had run away with the front part of the team, leaving only the remaining gears, Mr. Quirk being pinned down by it. That his death was not instantaneous appears from the fact that he had pulled a sack under his head, his hand still grasping the sack. A pocket book containing $10 in currency was found in one pocket. The deceased leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. He was about 50 years of age.—Ogden Standard, April 29.

STREET RAILROAD STOCK.

Mayor Armstrong, Enjoyed From Disposing of It.

Saturday afternoon Mayor Armstrong was served with papers which indicate that the Receiver will make an effort to take possession of the Street Railroad stock which Mr. Armstrong purchased from the Church.

The Receiver filed a petition in the Third District Court, asking that the Mayor be enjoined from transferring or in any way disposing of $45,000 worth of stock in the Street Railroad Company, and that he place the certificates of stock in the hands of the clerk of the court for cancellation.

The petition sets forth that on March 2, 1887, the Church owned 2800 shares of the stock referred to, and alleges that on the 10th of March there were transferred to Mayor Armstrong 2800 shares. This transfer, it is stated, was to evade the law of March 3, 1887, and was made with a secret understanding that the stock was to be held in trust for the Church and its successors, and that the Mayor was to be enjoined from transferring or in any way disposing of the stock as bona fide, and asks that the order desired be granted.

Upon this petition Judge Zane issued the following injunction:

Frank H. Dyer, Receiver of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, plaintiff vs. Francis Armstrong and the Salt Lake City Street Railway Company, defendants.

To the said defendants: That the plaintiff having been an action against you in the Third District Court, and praying for an injunction as hereinafter set forth; and it appearing that sufficient grounds exist therefor, and the necessary undertakings having been given, it is hereby ordered by me, the judge of this court, that you do refrain from transferring, conveying, or otherwise disposing of or encumbering the stock or any part thereof now held by you of the said corporation of the Salt Lake City Street Railway Company, and which you have heretofore received from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, or any of its officers, agents, or attorneys, do absolutely desist and refrain from transferring or conveying the same, or any part thereof, to any person or persons whatsoever.

Dated April 27, 1888. (Signed) C. S. ZANE, Judge of Third District Court. Attest: H. G. McMillan, Clerk.

The defendants are allowed ten days to answer.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

There are Two Classes of Democrats in Some Quarters.

Mass meetings were held in various parts of the Territory on Saturday, for the election of delegates to the territorial Democratic Convention, to be held at Ogden May 5th, to send delegates to the National Democratic Convention. At 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, the Federal Court House was well filled, and the meeting opened with the following delegates:

H. T. Duke, J. B. Walden, J. G. Sutherland, J. A. Marshall, Ben Sheeks, H. L. Anderson, W. T. Tanner, Mr. George Marshall, A. G. Norrell, S. H. Lewis, P. H. Dyer, Martin Lannan, J. M. Koenigly, M. M. Brown, Matt Jones, E. H. Bamberg, George Cullen, S. A. Merritt, H. Bamberg, M. B. Bowler, T. F. Mulloy, W. C. Hill, F. J. Williams, Stephen Hayes, Mike Tabbons, Henry Sizer.

The delegates were instructed to vote for resolutions endorsing President Cleveland.

J. A. Marshall was chairman, and H. T. Duke secretary. The speakers were F. L. Williams, Judge J. G. Sutherland, J. C. Doyle and J. L. Howells.

At Ogden there was a "boil" in the convention, owing to the regular convention being controlled by democrats, most of whom had formerly acted with the People's Party. J. W. McNitt, chairman of the county central committee, saw that the faction of democrats which he represented were in the minority, and ordered the convention adjourned till today. The meeting went on and organized, but the members of the convention were ordered out of the hall by the owner. They went, and reassembled at the county court house, where the following delegates were chosen: M. E. Brown, C. Richards, N. Tanner, Mr. George Shorter, E. T. Woolley, B. H. Gardner, Newton Farr, John H. Bluth, Jesse Stratford, R. W. Williams, H. H. Holapp, John Watson, John A. Boyle, J. H. Ballantyne, Thos. D. Dee, Nathan G. Montgomery, Samuel Horrocks, Joseph Clark, George W. Driver and George J. Macan. The following were appointed a county central committee: John A. Boyle, N. Tanner, J. C. Richards, N. C. Montgomery, Thos. D. Dee, John Watson and H. D. Peterson.

At Provo, there was also a split. David Evans was made chairman and H. A. Noon, secretary. A committee on resolutions was appointed and made two reports. After an acrimonious discussion, the majority report was rejected, and the resolutions reported by the minority committee, as follows were adopted:

Resolved: That pending the present issues in Utah such persons as oppose the extension of existing laws, and the extension of other national laws as affirmed by the courts, and being in opposition to the free secular government are not entitled to participate in any of the meetings of the Democratic Party, and that we adhere and subscribe to the issue of the national Democratic platform.

(Signed) W. N. Dusenberry, Chairman.

Upon the adoption of this report the chairman and secretary of the convention resigned, and the radical wing of the party, headed from the hall. The majority boycotted and elected a new chairman and secretary, and the following delegates: James Dunn, S. R. Thurman, and Dr. W. R. Pike. At Provo, R. A. Deal and Ben Boyer, Springfield, A. J. Evans, Lehi; William Creer, Spanish Fork; J. S. Page, Panguitch; J. U. Bullock, Pleasant Grove; George Cunningham, American Fork. A resolution was adopted, recommending Hon. W. N. Dusenberry for appointment to the office of Probate Judge of Utah County.

The convention passed a resolution severely condemning Mr. Noon for talking off with the minutes after he had resigned. A county central committee was appointed, and the meeting adjourned.

The voters reconvened and elected the following delegates to the territorial convention: W. O. Norrell, D. Evans, Thos. Beecher, J. W. West, Julius Iannery, H. A. Noon, B. Bereton, James G. Kenney, R. Bachman, Jr., and J. B. McMillan.

At the Box Elder convention, held at Corinne, there were also two sets of delegates. The majority elected J. D. Peters, E. H. Palmer, A. H. Snow, H. E. Johnson, William Lewis and R. H. Eddy, and the minority, or radicals, elected E. B. Chase, M. B. Buford, Hiram House, J. E. Schenert, Wm. House and H. H. Smith. Both sets of nominations were put simultaneously, and there was considerable confusion.

At Park City the Summit County convention elected delegates as follows: Jos. M. Cohen, Wm. M. Terry, John Shields, Wm. M. Curtis, F. W. Mooby, M. J. Gerraty, Henry Shields, Joseph Runkle, James Ivers, Wm. B. Berry, W. R. Waples, James Kerwin, S. J. Anderson, M. H. Quinn, D. C. Brown, D. H. Bowen, Wm. C. Langhain, Henry Kentfield, John Paradise, D. McDonough, A. C. Briggs, Joseph Runkle, James Ivers, Wm. B. Berry, John McDonald, A. B. Moffatt, Isaac Post, John Farriss.

The Murder Trial.

The case of the People vs. Ah Jung and Ah Gee, for the murder of Sun Yow, a Chinese woman, at Alta, on the 9th of October last, was taken up in the Third District Court today. A G. Sutherland, attorney for the defense, asked for a separate trial. The case against Ah Jung, or Little Charlie, was taken up. The jury panel was exhausted, and an open venire issued for twelve new talenmen before a jury was called. The taking of testimony commenced this afternoon.

AT THE GERMAN MEETING.

Excellent Discourse on Prayer and Union by Dr. Isaacson.

Dr. Isaacson addressed the German Saints at the City Hall yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. He took as the basis of his remarks, the 7th verse of the 7th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew: "Ask and it shall be given unto you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you."

The speaker delivered an excellent discourse upon the subject of prayer, depicting the spirit in which petitions to the Creator should be offered up, by way of illustrating the great truth that we should be willing to submit to the will of our Heavenly Father in the matter of having our prayers answered, he related an anecdote of Lord Shaftsbury, who upon a certain occasion had a great number of guests at his country seat. A large company of guests had been invited, and many of the nobility. Lord Shaftsbury was extremely solicitous regarding the success of the banquet, which he designed should be a notable social event. So wrought his anxiety upon the subject that he prayed earnestly for fine weather for the occasion. But despite his prayers, a severe storm occurred on the day fixed for the banquet, and the project of giving it had to be abandoned.

Lord Shaftsbury was greatly disappointed, and was disposed to murmur against Providence. He had not even his prayer for fine weather. He learned later, however, that the train which the guests were to have had invited would have been compelled to travel on the board of the storm, and that many of those who had designed to attend the banquet must also have been killed. He then thanked God for the storm.

The speaker also dwelt upon the subject of the spirit of unity which characterized all who obeyed the Gospel in sincerity. While he was speaking in allegorical manner of the flesh, he felt a bond of union and fraternity with every Latter-day Saint who met him. He exhorted the Saints to become like the links of a chain, and to be fastened together. His discourse was eloquent and powerful, and many of those who listened to it were affected to tears.

J. R. Barnes Sentenced.

This afternoon John R. Barnes, of Kayville, Davis County, was called in the Third District Court for sentence; Judge Powers stated to the court that Mr. Barnes was in feeble health, and Dr. Hamilton testified to that fact. Judge Powers then went on to say that Mr. Barnes was a citizen of the strictest integrity. He married his last wife over twenty years ago. No one had anything to say against him, and even P. H. Laman had said "without man's fault, Barnes is a good man. He is the only Mormon on whose bond I have offered to go." Mr. Powers further stated that Mr. Barnes' course had been a straight one; he was endeavoring to conform to the laws of his country, but was not in a condition to make the required promise.

Mr. Barnes was committed to the County Jail, to remain until he is able to make the required promise. Judge Powers then adjourned the court until Monday next, when Mr. Barnes is to be brought before the court for sentence.
