OGDEN, UTAH, NOV. 23, 1933.

SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Meeting of Board of County Commissioners—Sheepmen Assessed For Injury to Road.

PETIT JURY LIST FOR DECEMBER

Happy Wedding Bells—Central Construction Company Sued on Notes And Mortgages for $7,750.

The city council held its regular meeting last evening and transacted the usual routine business.

Several appropriations made at the last meeting were vetoed by the mayor, some of which were sustained, and action on the others deferred for one week.

The widow of J. D. Snider, who was recently killed while engaged as a police officer of the city, was allowed to draw a five months' salary, on account of her husband's services for the month of November.

The report of the health officer was submitted, showing cases of scarlet fever, diphtheria, 2; smallpox, 1.

WEBER COUNTY BUSINESS.

The regular meeting of the board of county commissioners was held with all members present.

There were present at the meeting a number of the large sheep owners of the county, against whom claims have been made for damage to Ogden Canyon road during the summer and fall months by their driving their flocks of sheep through the canyon. The county has claims against 29 sheep owners for $319.50, due for damages to the road, which amount the men claim to be excessive, and should be greatly reduced. The matter was thoroughly discussed by the sheepmen and the commissioners, after which it was taken under advisement.

The matter of letting the contract for the publishing of the delinquent tax list for 1933 was considered, and the bids of the Ogden Standard and the Daily Utah State Journal opened. The decision was left to Commissioner Powers.

Upon recommendation of Commissioner Powers the unexpended amount of $120 set aside for Plain City was ordered used in the repairing of the roads.

The resignation of Harold Stoker, as constable at Wilson, was accepted, to take effect at once.

Chairman Stanford submitted a report on poor showing that a large amount is being expended for their maintenance.

WEDDING BELLS.

Marriage licenses were granted to the following couples:

John W. Hunter, 23, and Miss Ethel A. Stimpson, 18, both of Riverside, Weber county.

Flavius E. Bonham, 24, and Miss Mary Patterson, 18, both of Roy, Weber county.

George E. Robertson, 22, of Ogden City, and Miss Lillian M. Guthrie, 22, of Harrisville, Weber county.

TO FORECLOSE MORTGAGES.

An action has been brought in the Second district court by W. H. Ellison against the Central Construction company to recover on promissory notes aggregating $7,750, and foreclosure of mortgages given to secure same.

DECEMBER JURY LIST.

The following venire of jurors to serve during the December term of the district court has been drawn:
