

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, OCTOBER 17.

Y. M. M. I. A. Conference.

The Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will hold a conference in the Tabernacle in this city, on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 29 and 30. A full attendance from all parts of the Stake is desirable.

"From Sire to Son."

This new production from the pen of the actor himself, will be produced by Milton and Dollie Nobles and their company at the Theatre this evening. As a writer of plays of sterling merit, Mr. Nobles has acquired an enviable reputation, and it is not predicting too strongly to say that this piece will be a treat. We look for a large attendance this evening.

Coming Back.

Ab'Gung, the murderer of the Chinawoman, San Yow, will start west from Chicago to-morrow, in the custody of an officer, to answer for his crime. The officer has with him documents containing the confession of Ab'Gung, and the witnesses by whom his admissions can be proved in the trial of the case. They will arrive in this city about Friday evening.

A Trio of Misfortunes.

On Saturday evening Mr. Thomas Highbam, of the Twenty-first Ward, was kicked by a horse, and knocked against a tree, receiving severe injuries. His son Archie ran out to learn what had happened to his father, and accidentally struck his head against the limb of a tree, cracking his skull. Another son hitched up his light wagon to bring a doctor and in coming down the street ran into Mr. R. James' buggy, smashing a wheel of the latter vehicle.

Poked His Eye Out.

A few days ago a four-year old son of Mrs. Chlarson, of the Sixth Ward, was standing inside the fence with his sister, whose arm was broken a short time since, when a mischievous boy named Johnson came along and poked a stick through the fence. The sharp end of the stick struck the little fellow in the eye, piercing the pupil. Efforts were made to save the boy's sight, but on Saturday the eyeball came out and now there is imminent danger that the unfortunate child will be totally blind, as the other eye is seriously affected.

Sudden Death.

About 5 o'clock last evening, Brother Benjamin Salisbury, a well-known resident of the Fourteenth Ward, left his home to carry some parcels to East Temple Street, saying to his wife that he would return in a few minutes. In front of Market Row, First South Street, he fainted and fell. His wife was sent for, and he was lifted into a wagon, but before reaching his residence he expired. The cause of death was congestion of the lungs. Deceased was an old citizen of Salt Lake and had many friends and acquaintances.

Death of T. O. Angell, Sr.

Yesterday, shortly before noon, Elder Truman Osborn Angell, Sr., Church architect, died at his residence in the Third Ward, this city, at the advanced age of 77 years, 4 months and 11 days. Deceased was an old veteran in the Church, and the Temple now in process of completion in this city will serve to perpetuate his memory, he having been the architect of it. He was a modest, unassuming man, of genial disposition, and was a staunch and true Latter-day Saint. For some years he was afflicted with dropsy, which disease, aggravated by a severe cold he recently contracted, is the supposed cause of death. It is the purpose of the family to have prepared for publication, a sketch of his life, which will be read with interest among the host of friends and acquaintances who respected him for his sterling worth.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Attorneys Taking the "Political Authorities" Oath.

The Territorial Supreme Court convened at 10 o'clock this morning, all of the Justices being present.

After the reading of the last day's proceedings, Ben Sheeks, Esq., moved the admission to the bar of Col. James O. Broadhead, of Missouri, and ex-Senator J. E. McDonald, of Indiana.

District Attorney Peters also moved the admission of United States District Attorney Henry W. Hobson, of Colorado.

The three gentlemen were admitted, and subscribed to the oath provided in the Edmunds-Tucker law, as doctored by the self-styled "political authorities" and used in the Third District Court. Col. Broadhead was the first called to take the oath, and the smile that crept over the faces of those in attendance burst into a hearty laugh when the following provision was read:

That I will obey the acts of Congress prohibiting polygamy, bigamy, unlawful cohabitation, incest, adultery and fornication, that I will not hereafter, in any Territory of the United States, at any time, in obedience to any alleged revelation, or to any counsel, advice or command, from any source whatever, or under any circumstance, enter into plural or polygamous marriage, or have or

than one, or cohabit with more than one woman contrary to said laws; that I will not at any time hereafter, directly or indirectly, aid or abet, counsel or advise, any person to have or take more wives than one, or to cohabit with more than one woman, or to commit incest, adultery or fornication contrary to said laws; that I am not a bigamist or polygamist; that I do not cohabit polygamously with persons of the other sex, and that I have not been convicted of any of the offenses above mentioned.

On the application of P. L. Williams, attorney for the railway company, the supersedeas bond in the suit of William C. Reddon vs. the Union Pacific Railway Company was fixed at $30,000. This is double the amount of damages awarded the plaintiff for the injuries he received. The case now goes to the Supreme Court of the United States.

C. W. Bennett presented a petition for the appointment of John W. Morehouse, of Nephi, Juab County, as United States Commissioner. Mr. Bennett stated that Mr. Morehouse was "a lawyer, but a man of sound judgment." The matter was taken under advisement.

In the suits of the United States vs. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and The Perpetual Emigrating Fund Company, the defendants were allowed to withdraw former answer and demurrer, and file a new demurrer. The arguments will be heard to-morrow. The Court then took recess till 3 p.m. to-day.

THE CHURCH SUITS.

The Legal Battle Over Church Property Commenced.

To-day, October 17, was the date set for the hearing of the arguments in the suits of the United States vs. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Perpetual Emigrating Fund Company, in the Supreme Court of the Territory of Utah.

The plaintiff is represented by District Attorney Geo. S. Peters and his assistant, Wm. J. Clarke, of Utah, and Henry W. Hobson, United States Attorney for Colorado. The attorneys for the defense are Col. James O. Broadhead, of Missouri, Senator Joseph E. McDonald, of Indiana, and Hons. F. S. Richards and Le Grand Young, of this city.

The only one of the gentlemen named as the defendants, in connection with the organizations against whom suit is brought, who was present in court, was Col. John R. Winder. Among those present as witnesses were James Jack, Esq., and Recorder Geo. M. Cannon, of Salt Lake County, who had brought along with him several volumes of the county records.

When the subject was brought up before the court, Mr. McDonald, for the defense asked leave to withdraw the answer already filed in the cases, and the demurrer formerly submitted, and to file a new demurrer. In connection with this he desired a postponement of the case for one day.

Mr. Peters made no opposition to the request, which were granted.

The new demurrer filed is as follows:

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE TERRITORY OF UTAH.

No. of Term.

In Equity.

The United States of America, plain-tiff, vs.

The Perpetual Emigrating Fund Company, Albert Carrington, F. D. Richards, F. M. Lyman, H. S. El-dredge, Jos. F. Smith, Angus M. Cannon, Moses Thatcher, John R. Winder, Henry Diawood, Robt. T. Burton, A. O. Smoot and H. B. Clawson, defendants.

DEMURRER.

The above named defendants, by protestation, not confessing all or any of the matters and things in the plaintiff's bill of complaint contained to be true in such manner and form as the same is therein set forth and alleged, do demur to the said bill of complaint and for cause of demurrer show and allege:

First—That said Supreme Court of the Territory of Utah has no jurisdiction of, or over said defendants, or either of them, or of the subject matter of said action.

Second—That the acts of Congress of July 1st, 1862, and of March 3rd, 1867, referred to in plaintiff's bill of complaint, or so much of said act as attempt or pretend to dissolve the said defendant corporation, or to interfere with or limit its right to hold property, or which attempt to escheat the same, or to wind up its affairs, are

UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND VOID.

Third—That said complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Fourth—That the plaintiff has not, in and by its said bill of complaint, made or stated such a case as entitles it, in a court of equity, to any discovery from these defendants, or either of them, or to any relief against them, or either of them, as to the matters contained in the said bill of complaint, or any of such matters. And that said bill of complaint does not contain whereon this court can ground any decree, or give to the plaintiff any relief against these defendants, or either of them.

Wherefore, and for divers other good causes of demurrer appearing in said bill of complaint, the defendants do demur thereto, and humbly demand the judgment of this court whether they shall be compelled to make any further or other answer to the said bill of complaint; and pray to be hence dismissed with their costs and charges in this behalf most wrongfully sustained.

JAMES O. BROADHEAD,
J. E. McDONALD,
FRANKLIN S. RICHARDS,
LEGRAND YOUNG,

Attorneys and counsel for defendants.

The demurrer in the suit against the Church is in the same language as the foregoing, with the exception of the change in the title of the cause.

PURPOSES OF THE AN-ARCHISTS.

A DISPATCH to the Boston Herald from Washington, dated the 10th, states that the Secretary of one of the South American legations at the capital, claims to possess special knowledge of the purposes of the anarchists in this country. The same person is being talked of as the author of a remarkable and startling letter from Washington on this subject. It recently appeared, over a nom de plume, in La Tribune Nacional, of Buenos Ayres. The introduction of the letter embodies its substance, and is as follows:

"Secret preparations are being made by the International Fraternity of Socialists and Anarchists, who are making ready for a revolution in the United States in 1889, the centennial anniversary of the French revolution. The Red International League is a soulless association of Anarchists, who are now in force in Chicago biding their time, having selected the date of the anniversary of the French revolution for their uprising, supposing that on that day many manufacturers will close their shops, and a general panic will reign. The Reds are estimated at about 100,000 strong, and they expect that by 1889 they will have increased to 400,000. The chief of these plotters, in drawing up the plan for the movement, says the panic will surely come. On that fatal day explosions will occur, great centres will rise, and places where there now only exist a few socialists will be converted into points from whence the socialists will draw immense numbers of recruits. In these places it is necessary for the socialists on the disastrous day to see that the conservative element remain in their houses for their protection. In the large centres more extreme measures will be taken. The Anarchists will take possession of public points, and hold in their hands the machine of government. The decrees to guide the socialists are now promulgated, and will be executed at once when the time comes."

PACIFIC COAST NOTES.

DULLED FROM LATEST WESTERN EXCHANGES.

A dispatch dated San Juan South, October 7, says: Workmen repairing a street this evening unearthed several hundred skeletons. The street being in constant use for the past century, the skeletons must be those of Indian tribes that once inhabited the San Juan valley.

A dispatch dated Portland, October 6th, says: Information reached here to-day that the Vale and Burns stage was held up at a point thirty-three miles east of Burns, and robbed by a masked road agent. One letter pouch was carried off. A posse are in pursuit. Particulars are meager.

At Phoenix, A. T., October 5, a serious cave was reported in the Vulture mine which occurred on Monday afternoon, burying a Mexican named Alejandro Vansuela. D. M. McAllister and A. Kirkpatrick, two miners who were with him at the moment, escaped death by running. The body of the dead man has not been recovered.

A dispatch dated Portland, October 4, says: Particulars of a serious shooting affair are received from Lostine, Or., between J. M. Keeler and Ghard Cochran. The difficulty occurred at a social dance. Keeler and Cochran indulged in angry words, when the former drew a pistol and shot the latter in the side of the neck, inflicting a very dangerous wound. Cochran was unharmed at the time of the shooting. Keeler is under arrest. An old feud existed between the parties growing out of domestic difficulties.

The Laramie (Wyo.) Boomerang of the 10th says: Wallace Link was in from the hills Saturday and reported that a boy named John Carter was shot twice or three times on Friday, at one of the ranches just across the county line. He did not learn very full particulars and perhaps had only obtained his information by hearsay. The officers here had heard something of the same kind, however, and Mr. Richardson, a well known ranchman, who was in to-day, furnishes the boy's name and says he was shot twice, once through the abdomen. It was reported that a physician was called from Cheyenne, but no news could be obtained by telephone from that direction.

OBITUARY.

DYE.—Robert Dye, son of Phillip and Fannie Dye, was born April 28th, 1822, in the town of Wymondham, Norfolk, England; he was the first one to embrace the Gospel in his native town, being baptized and becoming a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the winter of 1847. He was president of the Wymondham Branch of the Church, and the first one appointed to that position, and as such labored earnestly and faithfully in preaching the Gospel in that part of the country. He emigrated to Utah in 1855; was called and went on a mission to England and Wales in the year 1858, and labored in the Norwich and Welch Conferences, being absent about two years. Deceased was taken suddenly ill on Friday morning, October 7, 1887, at about 10 o'clock, and died at his residence in the Twentieth Ward, Salt Lake City, U. T., at fifteen minutes past 6 o'clock, on Sunday morning, October 9, 1887, being aged 65 years and 6 months, apoplexy being the cause of his death.

He leaves a wife, one daughter and one son, and four daughters by a former wife (long since deceased), twenty six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral services, under the direction of Elder George Romney, were held at 2 p.m. on the 13th, and were conducted on the lawn, amid the shade and shubbery surrounding the family residence, known as Rosebank Cottage, situated in the Twentieth Ward, Salt Lake City, U. T., the beautiful home of the deceased, a place upon which much time and means must have been spent in order to bring it to that paradisaical perfection the place now presents. The plain, substantial, yet elegant casket, made of English oak, containing the remains, was surrounded by the wife, children, grandchildren and other relatives, and a large number of old friends and acquaintances who had assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the departed one. Prominent among those present were Elders George Romney, John Sharp, W. C. Dunbar, C. V. Spencer, George B. Wallace, Arthur Stayner, John T. Culne and others. Consolatory remarks were made by Elders George B. Wallace, John Sharp, Arthur Stayner and C. V. Spencer. The pall bearers were Robert Gushing, Robert F. Neale, Wm. H. Foster, John Daynes, William Poll, and George Arnold, most of them old acquaintances of the deceased. Sweet and appropriate music was furnished by Elder Joseph J. Daynes and members of the Twentieth Ward choir.—[COM.]
