PARNELL INVESTIGATION.

Debate in the Commons Respecting It.

LONDON, July 31.—In the Commons tonight Smith moved the suspension of the standing order under which the discussion on the commission bill had been interrupted at midnight.

After objections by Parnell the motion was adopted.

Parnell resuming on Reid's proposal to restrict the inquiry referred again to Chamberlain's conduct in his office in the cabinet. The chairman interfered to state that this line of observation was not in order. Parnell replied: If this were the case he would reserve further statements on the subject till he came before the commission, when he would be prepared to prove his charges by his own and other evidence. The Nationals were quite ready to meet definite charges before court or commission, but they could not meet innuendoes which would be used to raise a cloud of suspicion for political purposes.

Chamberlain offered a personal explanation at some length. The only direct communications he had had with Parnell during the period named were as follows: The first communication related to Parnell's release from Kilmainham jail, and the information of what occured was duly conveyed to Gladstone and Foster. The second referred to information of the national councils in Ireland. Everything that passed between himself and Parnell was immediately communicated to Mr. Gladstone and other ministers.

Parnell said Chamberlain was

but not enough so to ride off in a transparent fake issue about the Irish local government bill. Whatever the subject of communication mentioned, it did not touch his charges that Chamberlain had violated his oath as a cabinet minister. He could produce a letter in Chamberlain's hand, alluding to the defeat and withdrawal of the police bill for Ireland, in which he glorified in Lord Spencer's discomfiture at the withdrawal of the measure. [Cheers.]

Chamberlain said he did not intend to imply that the subject of national councils was the only matter discussed between himself and Parnell. All he wished to say was he had always taken care to inform his colleagues what passed between himself and Parnell. He appealed to Gladstone to confirm his statement.

Gladstone said he did not question Chamberlain's statement regarding the Kilmainham communication, but in the present state of his recollection he would require to know exactly what the communication was before entering into them.

In a division on Reid's amendment it was rejected.

Sir William Harcourt charged the government with refusing to accept amendments because Webster, the attorney general, had told them the commission must inquire into anything the Times wished to have investigated. They wanted to allow the Times to throw its dirt without restraint. [Cheers.] The ministers were making themselves the conduit of the foul waters to be poured upon the Irish national league. Therefore he would not trust the commission to inquire into what it chose to consider fair for investigation.

Bannerman assured Anderson, the solicitor-general for Scotland,

INDIGNANTLY REPUDIATED

the accusation that the government was in collusion with the Times.

Sir William offered to withdraw the statement if Smith would say that Walters, of the Times, had not been consulted in settling the bill.

Smith replied in an excited manner that the charge was so vindictive and contemptible that he had no thought that it would be worth denial. He did not deny having seen Walters. He simply denied that he consulted him in reference to the bill.

Gladstone—Are we to understand in plain terms that Smith had no communication with Walters on the subject of the bill? [Hear! Hear!]

Smith—I stated distinctly the bill was settled on without communication with Walters.

Sir William Harcourt said he wished Smith had been able to say he had held no communication with Walters on the subject of the bill. If so, he (Harcourt) would have been able to withdraw his statement and apologize for having made it.

Labouchere said the government refused to accept the amendments because it did not dare alter a word in the bill without the permission of Walters.

It was admitted that Walters had visited Smith on the morning of the day on which the latter announced the bill.

Smith—That is not true. [Cries of "Withdraw! Withdraw!" came from the opposition benches.]

The chairman said: "Does the gentleman withdraw the expression?"

Smith—I do.

Labouchere then said he would not dwell on the incident as he concluded Smith had apologized. [Laughter.]

After considerable further debate, during which the government supporters again

EXCITEDLY DENIED

collusion with the Times, Mulloy's amendment was rejected.

Sexton moved that the names of the accused persons be given. He denounced the bill as the production of base political thugs directed against the representatives of Ireland.

Rejected under closure—250 to 244.

Sir John Simon (Liberal) moved to omit the words "other persons" from the bill.

Parnell moved to report progress. Motion defeated—219 to 169.

Sexton moved that the chairman leave the chair. The chairman declined to entertain the motion.

Mr. Parnell complained he was unable to get a single straightforward statement from the Government, and amid Irish cheers remarked that this showed their sense of justice and regard for the rights of members. This was cowardly. (Cheers.) But the Irish members were not afraid. They knew when the end of the story was reached on their side it would be victory and on the side of the government shame and disgrace. (Cheers.)

The amendment was rejected by a vote of 222 to 166.

At 3:45 the House adjourned.

The debate will be resumed at noon today.

THE ARID REGION.

Debate Respecting its Redemption.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—In yesterday's debate on Bowen's proposition to appropriate $250,000 for investigating the extent to which the arid region of the United States can be redeemed by irrigation, Senator Plumb said: There is no doubt about the fruitfulness of that soil. There is no doubt that supplied with water it will yield bountifully. I know the fertile brain of these gentlemen and I suppose the chief of the geological survey wants another job. There will be employment for Congressmen's sons, relatives and friends. The geological department is the living hospital of the government. It has never refused employment to a single relative of Congressmen or anyone supposed to have influence enough to obtain appropriations. The appropriations they ask for are never refused, and with one exception it is the only appropriation made in the precise terms requested and never diminished in either House of Congress. I venture to say for whatever it may be worth, that the money that has been expended by the geological survey has been the worst expenditure since the government was made. We have heard, of course, a good deal about ethnology about the disappeared and disappearing races on the American continent, a large portion of which, in my belief, has been pure invention, just as absolutely the work of the brain of man without a basis of fact, as the tales of Manchausen."

Senator Stewart defended the director of the geological bureau, and said he was competent, energetic and enthusiastic. The scheme did not originate in the brain of Major Powell, it originated with the senator, from Colorado and himself (Stewart).

THE OUTHWAITE BILL.

The report presented in the Senate today by Senator Frye from the select committee on Pacific railroads, recommending the passage of the Outhwaite Union Pacific Railroad funding bill, with amendments, is signed by all the members of the committee. It deals only with the Union Pacific Railway and the central branch of the Union Pacific. After detailing the provisions of the Outhwaite bill and expressing the opinion that it fully protects the interests of the United States, the report continues as follows: "If this settlement is adopted, the following advantages are secured: First, all controversies such as occurred under the existing laws are terminated.

Second, all questions as to the investment of the sinking fund are ended. The United States at once receives this large sum on account of the subsidy debt and is relieved from all trust obligations to the company.

Third, the United States will receive before the debt matures, in addition to the sinking fund, which, at the valuation November 1st, 1887, was $7,734,083, not less than $2,646,500, making a total payment of principal before maturity of $10,381,553, and will also receive interest on the entire debt every six months, the total payment of interest during the same period amounting to $12,255,767.

Fourth, the United States will receive a very large amount of additional security, which insures the ultimate payment of the whole debt."

Frightened Elephants.

MUNICH, July 31.—The celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Ludwig I. is being celebrated with great pomp. During the allegorical parade today three elephants became frightened, and running among the people seriously trampled on twenty or more.

A $50,000 Horse.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 31.—The sale of Bell Boy at the farm of T. Jefferson today drew a large crowd of turfmen from all sections of the country, David Bonner of New York, C. C. Seaman of San Diego, Cal., J. S. Clark of Elmira, N. Y., Simeon Gross and Phil Grist of Boston, and others. The bidding was started by J. S. Clark at $20,000, followed by Seaman at $21,000. These two were the only bidders, and when $41,000 was bid Clark quit. Seaman bid $50,000, which is the highest price ever paid for a horse in the world.

A Prize Fight.

DENVER, July 21.—John C. Sterling of Cheyenne and W. A. Ross of San Francisco, fought to a finish, London prize ring rules, twenty miles from this city today for a purse of $300 and the championship of the Rocky Mountain region. Ross won in 27 rounds. Sterling was severely punished.

Panic in Barnum's Circus.

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 31.—While Barnum's circus was giving an exhibition here to-day a terrific wind and rain storm came up and threatened to carry away the large tent. A panic ensued and many persons were injured in their frantic efforts to escape. Particulars not known.

Local Option Law Affirmed.

TRENTON, N. J., July 31.—The Supreme Court has rendered a decision affirming the constitutionality of the local option license law. The opinion as regards the high license feature was unanimous. On the local option section the Court stood 8 to 7.

Indians Refuse to Sign.

ST. PAUL, July 31.—The Pioneer-Press's special from the Standing Rock Agency says: The Indians are still holding the fort firmly and against signing the papers, and it appears the prospect of their changing their mind is very slight. Sitting Bull has arrived and although he has refused to sit in council it is known he has been circulating among the leaders, urging them to stand firm against the treaty. Governor Church and Judge Wright spoke for an hour today without apparently making any impression.

POLITICAL.

Alger and Harrison.—California Republicans.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—General Alger arrived in Indianapolis today. He was met at the depot by a committee from the Harrison Club and escorted quietly to the residence of General Harrison. Arrangements were made for the Newcastle delegation with three bands and about 300 members of the local republican clubs to call on Alger at the Harrison residence this afternoon.

The republicans of Henry County, Indiana, to the number of about 1100, paid their respects to General Harrison this morning. They were a fine looking body of men. They were headed by General William Grose, of Newcastle, a comrade of General Harrison in the campaign around Atlanta. General Harrison in his speech touched upon our commercial relations with South America and advocated the subsidizing of steamship lines to South America and the Central American states.

The Henry County delegation returned in the afternoon, and Genera Harrison introduced Gen. Alger who responded, thanking them for the cordial reception and touching briefly on the issues of the day. Alger also dwelt on what he termed the great danger of the supreme bench becoming wholly democratic, and said the only safe way out of the difficulty is to select a republican President.

In an interview this evening Gen. Alger said among other things the republicans of Michigan would make an effort to get Blaine to stump that state, and in response to a query he smilingly denied that he had recently left his check, while in New York, with Chairman Quay, for $100,000 or any other sum.

REPUBLICANS OF CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—The republican state convention to nominate Congressmen and candidates for chief justice and associate justice of the supreme court and appoint presidential electors met today. The platform reaffirms the national platform and congratulates the country upon the nominations made by the Chicago convention. The protective system was warmly commended and the declaration made that the free trade policy would destroy the growing industries of California, declares that the financial policy whereby both gold and silver shall form the basis of circulation whether the money in use be coin, or certificates, is imperatively demanded, commends the republican members in Congress from California for their efforts on behalf of restrictive Chinese legislation, renews the determination to make such a restriction effective and in every way prevent the competition of Chinese with American labor, returns thanks to the Republican National Convention for its emphatic declaration on the subject and expresses implicit faith that the republican party of the nation will protect the industries of California from the Chinese.

Several district conventions were held this afternoon and nominations made for representatives in Congress as follows: Third district, Joseph McKenna, renomination; Fourth district, W. W. Morrow, renomination; Fifth district T. G. Phelps.

Guests Alarmed.

CHICAGO, July 31.—The guests at the Palmer House were startled this morning in their sleep at a terrific clap like thunder accompanied by a perceptible shock in all parts of the house. Thoughts of dynamite bombs and earthquakes caused nearly all the guests to hurriedly dress and crowd pell-mell through the corridors. Meantime the few passers on the streets were kept busy dodging flying pieces of splinters of timber. The flagstaff on the northwest corner of the building was found shattered to shivers by lightning. Ropes were quickly stretched across the sidewalk to keep pedestrians out of possible danger of some huge cornices which were falling. Investigation showed however that the damage done by the bolt was very slight, notwithstanding the genuine scare give to the hundreds of people in the hotel.

Obituary.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Christopher Meyer, the millionaire, died at his residence on Fifth Avenue this afternoon. He was born in Hanover, Germany, in 1818, and came to this country when fifteen years old. For many years he has been the foremost man in the rubber fabric business of this country. He was lately brought into additional prominence by his connection with the raid of Ives upon the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad.

LOUISVILLE, July 31.—Dr. Robert Morris died this morning at his home in La Grange, from paralysis, aged 70. Morris was the Poet Laureate of masonry and the most distinguished mason in the world.

A WOMAN'S DISCOVERY.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store. (2)

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind. testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 20 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store. (2)

$1 000 REWARD for any medicine in the world that will cure as bad a case of Itching, Ulcerated and Bleeding Piles as will one fifty-cent box of Dr. Email's Magic Balm of Healing Ointment. It acts as a soothing lubricator, absorbs the tumors and allays the intense itching at once as nothing else will. No pile cure ever acquired so large a sale in so short a time. Sold at every drug store, or sent by mail. Address Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution, Salt Lake City. ☞ Cleveland, Ohio, January 21, 1887—Send me five gross Email's Magic Balm soon as possible. This will make nearly one hundred and fifty dozen I have bought since July 15, 1884. I now sell more of your Balm, or Ointment, at retail over my counter than of all other balms and ointments combined. It sells better than any medicine I have in my store.—S. P. IDEAL BROILING.

Broiling can be done in the oven of the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door; more perfectly than over the live coals.

Lay the steak, chops, ham or fish on a wire broiler or meat rack, placing it in an ordinary bake-pan to catch the drippings.

Allow it to remain in the oven with the door closed 15 or 20 minutes. No turning is required. At the end of this time it will be found nicely cooked ready to serve.

THIS IS THE IDEAL WAY TO BROIL MEATS.

There is no taint of coal-gas or smoke, and the meats are more tender and better in flavor than those broiled over the coals. The convenience of broiling in the oven will be appreciated by every housekeeper, and adds another to the many reasons why the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door should be preferred to all others now in the market.
