

INSURGENTS ARE HUNGRY.

Those Captured in Samar Give Evidence of Suffering.

COAST CLOSELY PATROLLED

System of Taxation Maintained by Rebels Perfect—Smallpox Hagling in Southern Islands.

Manila, Nov. 22.—News received here from the island of Samar is encouraging, although up to the present time there has been no wholesale capture of natives. The Filipinos captured there by our troops show evidences of suffering and hunger.

The coasts of the island are closely patrolled by gunboats and the use of the searchlight makes it almost impossible for the natives to land supplies on the island for the insurgents. The patrolling gunboats have captured over $20,000 in cash and $100,000 worth of hemp, upon which a tax had been paid to the insurgents, has been confiscated.

The system of taxation and collection of taxes maintained by the insurgent leader Lukban was perfect and exhaustive in every particular and produced revenue from births, marriages, deaths, cockfights and from the fish ponds of Samar. Hemp was the most important feature of commerce. Two per cent of its price was given to the local president, who collected the majority of the island's revenue from those natives who had sworn allegiance to the United States and turned it over to the rebel authorities.

Smallpox is raging in the southern islands of the archipelago. The United States Philippine commission is preparing an act to compel everybody to be vaccinated. It has been officially reported to Gen. Chaffee that the insurgent leader Cabelos has 500 fully armed men, including a number of American negroes, under his command in Laguna province, Luzon. An insurgent officer has just been captured, carrying papers dated Maunabo, Laguna province, November 18, and signed by Cabelos. The prisoner admits that Cabelos has 3,000 men with him and contemplating attacking Maunabo. This probably accounts for the fact that yesterday the telegraph lines were cut near Maunabo and in several places the supporting poles were found to have been removed.

A TUBERCULOSIS IMMIGRANT. Case Will Go to Courts to See if He Can Be Returned.

New York, Nov. 23.—In deciding the case of Thomas Boden, the courts will rule whether or not a man suffering from tuberculosis can be excluded from this country. This is the first case in which the constitutionality of the treasury ruling that consumptives shall be prevented from landing as immigrants will be passed upon by the courts. Thomas P. Boden arrived here from Ireland, Nov. 9, a steamer passenger of the Cunard line steamer Lucania. His wife and child were with him. He has relatives who live in Philadelphia. They were able to guarantee that he would not become a public charge, and he had means of his own.

The authorities at Ellis island were satisfied on that score, but they declined to admit him because examination by physicians of the marine hospital corps showed he had tuberculosis of the lungs. He appealed to the treasury department and a re-examination was ordered. The treasury department ordered that Mr. Boden be sent back on the next Cunard line steamer, the Etruria, which sails today. Francis Tobin, a lawyer from Philadelphia, has obtained a writ of habeas corpus. The act of Congress, under which it is proposed to exclude Mr. Boden, is framed to prevent the admission of persons "suffering from a loathsome or a dangerous disease."

Boers Stir Up Anglophobes.

New York, Nov. 22.—The Vienna correspondent of the London Times and New York Times says a pro-Boer journal publishes a telegram stating that all over Germany anti-Boer committees are secretly working. The correspondent remarks that no anti-Boer outbreak in Austria followed Mr. Chamberlain's reference to Bosnia in his Edinburgh speech. He refers in connection with this that Dr. Leyds has not been in Vienna, and says the Austrian authorities have made it known that Anglophobe demonstrations will be suppressed.

CASE OF COL. LYNCH. Elected to Parliament Merely as a Defiance to England.

New York, Nov. 23.—The nationalists disclaim any intention of exposing Col. Lynch to arrest and trial for treason by insisting upon his attendance at Westminster, says the London correspondent of the Tribune. They have elected the Boer warrior as a defiant method of making themselves as disagreeable as possible and incidentally have elaborated a member of the ministry responsible for the policy of killing off home rule by kindness for Mr. Parnell, who will be forced to resign his office after this second defeat. The Irish party have scored twice from their own point of view, and are satisfied. They will not risk a government counter-attack by the arrest of Lynch, as it is possible to smuggle him into the commons and enable him to take the oath without observation. Lawyers agree that Col. Lynch can be prosecuted as soon as he arrives on British soil, and that the oath must be administered in the presence of the commons.

Ultimatum to Brigands.

Sofia, Nov. 22.—Mr. Dickinson, the diplomatic agent here of the United States, started today for Constantinople, there to confer with Spencer Dilly, secretary of the United States legation, as to the best means of hastening a solution of the deadlock which has arisen in the negotiations for the release of Miss Stone. Mr. Dickinson will probably return here, bringing with him cash with which to pay Miss Stone's ransom, as her kidnappers insist that this payment shall be made in Turkish gold. Mr. Dickinson has considered the advisability of presenting an ultimatum to the brigands in which he will fix ten days as the period within which $10,000 must be accepted by the brigands as Miss Stone's ransom. If this proposal is not accepted by her captors all dealings with the bandits, so far as the United States is concerned, will cease.

If these conditions have not already been dictated by Mr. Dickinson, the usual ultimatum comprising them will almost certainly be delivered as soon as the American diplomatic agent returns from Constantinople. According to information here, both Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka continue in good health.

ANGLO-GERMAN SITUATION.

Relations Between Two Countries Become More and More Unpleasant. New York, Nov. 23.—Referring to a remark of the Cologne Gazette that "the present state of feeling in both England and Germany may assume a form of conflagration which cannot be extinguished," the Berlin correspondent of the London Times and New York Times says: "The house of our German neighbor may be on fire, but our hands are full. Our neighbor has fire engines of his own, and we still have the inviolate sea between us. The present conflagration will die down, the relations of the two countries become normal, and their respective tasks in the world without dangerous friction but also without undue dependence on each other."

Surveillance of Anarchists.

New York, Nov. 23.—Discussing the report of an international conference upon the anarchists the Berlin correspondent of the Herald says: "It is officially confirmed that on the suggestion of Germany and Russia a plan has been adopted for the exchange of views regarding the surveillance of anarchists. The idea was at first, perhaps, mooted at Dantzig. There is reason to believe, however, that it was originally formed by the proposals took diplomatic form. For the present at any rate, it is not intended to call an international conference."

JAPANESE REGENERATION.

Due Credit Given for Part Played by United States. Chicago, Nov. 23.—The United States is given practically all the credit for the greatness of modern Japan, and Commodore Perry will be lauded as the country's liberator in an official history of the empire, about to be written by Dr. G. Mitsukur, an instructor in the University of Japan at Tokio. Dr. Mitsukur, who is in Chicago on his way home from Europe, was delegated by the educational department of his government to study the histories of European nations in order that he might acquire the best methods for the compilation of the annals of his country. He has spent two years on these studies in the universities of Berlin and Paris.

"Writing the history, it will be my purpose to accord to the United States full credit for the regeneration of Japan," said Dr. Mitsukur. "This country was our source of inspiration and our protection in our time of trial and tribulation. Our rescue from the state of semi-civilization, which was succeeded in the latter half of the century just closed by the progressive government we now have. Your great commander, Matthew C. Perry, when he sailed into the bay of Yedo in the month of February, 1854, became our liberator. We have erected a statue to his memory, but his fame is preserved in a manner more enduring than stone or brass. The future students of our history shall know him for what he was. He sought only justice for his country when the greatest opportunity for the working out of whither designs on our nation presented themselves."

To Consider Depopulation of France

New York, Nov. 23.—Though the French senate has agreed to the appointment of a commission to consider the question of the depopulation of France and to suggest means to arrest it, Premier Waldeck-Rousseau, according to the Paris correspondent of the London Times and New York Times, objects to a plan to offer a premium for the discouragement of French malthusianism, in the shape of reduced taxation, military exemption and civil service appointments at the expense of the government.

Anglo-Russian Understanding.

New York, Nov. 23.—Referring to recent articles in the British press favoring an Anglo-Russian understanding, the St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Times and New York Times quotes an article opposing the suggestion in the Novoye Vremya. This paper belittles Great Britain saying she has fallen greatly from her former high estate as is shown by her concessions to the United States and Germany. The correspondent draws the moral that Great Britain ought not to sacrifice her interests in Persia because of indignation against Germany, but merely on herself alone. Then, he says, Russia would be ready to co-operate in finding ways of fulfilling the missions of both countries with the least possible friction.

IN RAGS AND TATTERS.

Moroccan Expedition to Punish Mountain Tribes in Sad Plight. London, Nov. 23.—A dispatch to the London Times and New York Times from the City of Morocco, says the 3,000 troops which form the expedition to punish the mountain tribes for abducting a Spanish boy and girl, left the capital in a state of absolute destitution. Many of them are in rags and no uniforms were provided before their departure. The cold, rainy season is beginning. The condition of the soldiers after the mountain marching and fording in the course of their journey of 400 miles will be pitiful. Food will scarcely be obtainable. The Spanish government, says the correspondent will surely be unsatisfied with the result of the expedition which should have been postponed until the spring.

Alex. K. Bell Missing.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Coroner Leland has been notified by Thomas McCusker, contracting agent for the Southern Pacific company at Portland, Ore., that Alec K. Bell of that city has been missing since Nov. 15. Bell had been complaining of pain in his head for five weeks prior to his disappearance and came to this city sending his mother a letter in which he said that he had seen a physician and that he was undergoing an operation. He also stated in his letter that on his trip to the city the pains were very bad and that he felt blue. A private detective agency has been engaged to locate his whereabouts.

Action Against Eggleston Dismissed

Glenwood Springs, Colo., Nov. 23.—The civil action against Chief Eggleston of the White Rock Ute Indian tribe for the recovery of damages for alleged killing of game out of season has been quashed by Judge Shumate. Attorneys for the Ute chief attacked the legality of the service of summons on the chief which was made while he was in custody on a criminal charge, and were upheld by the court. As Chief Eggleston is now on the Ute reservation in Utah he is out of reach of the Colorado courts.

American Imprisoned by Mexico.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 23.—Capt. A. W. Hall, formerly of the San Francisco Schooner and now in the service of the British ship Pass of Melport, and will hasten to Washington to lay before the state department what he believes to be a good cause for damages against the Mexican government. He claims to have been arrested and imprisoned without cause while on a pearl fishing expedition in the gulf of California. After two months' confinement he succeeded in making his escape.

French Wine Crisis.

New York, Nov. 23.—The deputy minister of agriculture says the Paris correspondent of the London Times and New York Times in discussing the wine crisis in the chamber of deputies attributed it to the distillation of alcohol from beet root and the medical campaign against intoxication. He promised the vine growers further reductions in railway rates and advised them to study quality rather than quantity.

More Boers Captured.

New York, Nov. 23.—The correspondent of the London Times and New York Times at Pretoria reports many more captures in the Transvaal and Orange River colony. In the southeastern district of the Transvaal the British troops are still dealing with isolated parties of Boers. The captures are generally in small batches.

THE LAST BODY IS RECOVERED.

All Victims of the Smuggler-Union Disaster Accounted For.

THEY NUMBER TWENTY-FIVE

Search Abandoned—Responsibility for the Affair Has Not Yet Been Fixed.

Telluride, Colo., Nov. 22.—The work of recovering the bodies of the victims of the disaster in the Smuggler-Union mine has progressed slowly, until at 11 o'clock today, sixty hours after the breaking out of the fire at the mouth of Bullion tunnel, the last body was brought to the surface. It was that of John Novella, and was found in one of the stoves of the seventh level.

The death list now numbers twenty-five, the brave engineer who sacrificed himself in an effort to rescue his comrades having died this afternoon. He never regained consciousness after being taken from the mine, and was only kept alive so long by the most arduous work of the physicians in attendance. The revised list of dead is as follows:

- LIST OF DEAD. August Kaaster, Charles Mock, Thorwald Torkelson, John Merrivether, John Novella, Alk Filman, Ivo Sundstrom, Battisto Obero, Antone Ausel, John Rassori, Elvi Filman, Joseph Berzago, Emil Dahl, James Nelson, John Ahae, Matt Starck, Alexander Barkley, John Peterson, William Jones, William Graham, Frank Zadra, Gus Sundborg, Allen Hendrickson, Sneed, Hugh J. O'Neill.

Except the first seven, all were single men so far as known. All in the mine at the time of the fire are now accounted for, and at noon the search for bodies was practically abandoned. There is yet a possibility that others may be found in stoves not yet reached, but this is not thought probable, for the day shift did not have time to reach any distant stoves before the alarm of fire was given.

The exploration of the mine level was completed today but no bodies were found. The workings are not yet sufficiently free from gas to make it entirely safe to explore all parts of them.

The responsibility for the disaster has not yet been fixed, and no one at Telluride is being blamed. The coroner has held an inquest over the bodies at the morgue, and several of them have been sent to relatives in various parts of the state. The citizens today completed arrangements to bury the others with honors tomorrow afternoon. All places of business will close at the request of the mayor. The services will be held in the theater, and the ministers of the city will take part.

ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

No Movement on Foot to Have Opening Postponed. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 23.—The national commission for the Louisiana purchase exposition has adopted the following: "Numerous inquiries having been directed to members of the commission as to the probability of the postponement of the opening of the exposition from April 30, 1903 to a later date, the secretary of the commission is directed to notify all persons who may inquire, and to give notice to the public at large, through the press, that the law requires that the exposition be formally opened to the public on April 30, 1903, and that no effort has been made, nor is any contemplated, looking to a postponement of the opening of the exposition."

weakens the body and degrades the mind. It saps the nervous strength that is the source of all health, and perverts the functions of every organ. Because of its stubborn nature, it is often called incurable. This is not true. There is one medicine that never fails to check the nervous spasms and give new strength to the entire system.

"Our baby boy had epileptic spasms and the physicians were unable to do anything to help him. We heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and from the time he took the first dose he never had another attack." Mrs. J. FENNER, 459 N. Meridian Ave., Anderson, Ind.

Miss Anna Rossiter, 467 Norwood avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I have found strength and inspiration in Peruna. Four bottles of Peruna restored me to perfect health, and I am thoroughly convinced of the superior merits of this popular remedy."—ANNA ROSSITER. A Slight Cold May Develop Into Systemic Catarrh. better. I am so thankful I heard of Peruna, for it has done me a great deal of good. When I started to take Peruna I weighed about 110 pounds—now I weigh 135 pounds. I cannot praise Peruna highly enough. It has been a great friend to me."—Miss J. Newlove. Many People Pay No Attention to a Cold Until Catarrh Develops.

Miss Myrtle James, Secretary Young People's Christian Temperance Union, writes from 401 River Street, Water Valley, North Dakota:

"I know that Peruna saved my life and I cannot speak too highly in its praise. Three years ago I caught a heavy cold which settled in catarrh of the head and bronchial tubes. I thought it only an ordinary cold at first and paid little attention to it until the catarrh developed. I coughed badly and was unable to secure a good night's rest. Finally my father read of a cure called Peruna and sent for a bottle. I found that it relieved me wonderfully and so kept taking it for nearly three months, when I was well once more. Peruna has a great number of friends in this neighborhood. It has a good reputation as a catarrh remedy which it well deserves."—Myrtle James.

Catarrh of Head and Throat as the Result of a Neglected Cold.

Henriette C. Olberg, one of the Judges in the Flax and Hemp Exhibit at the World's Fair in Chicago; Superintendent of the above exhibit at the International Exhibit at Omaha, June to November, 1898; Secretary National Flax-Hemp and Ramie Association, and editor of this department in The Distaft, Boston, writes from Albert, Lea, Minn.:

"I contracted an aggravating cold, having been exposed to the damp weather, Catarrh of my throat and head followed, which persisted in remaining, notwithstanding I applied the usual remedies. Reading of the merits of Peruna in the papers, I decided to try it, and soon found that all that has been said of your medicine in such cases is true.

"I am very pleased with the satisfactory results obtained from using Peruna, am entirely well and consider it a most valuable family medicine."—Henriette C. Olberg.

Peruna is the woman's friend everywhere. It is safe to say that no woman ever used Peruna for any catarrhal derangement but what it became indispensable in her household.
