Chief Clerk Fred Wood of the Wilson considers that the present run of travel is heaviest since the rush to the Christian Endeavor convention at San Francisco in 1897, and says it is due to the Portland fair. He advocates Salt Lake turning in to help Pacific coast cities secure big conventions as in this way thousands of travelers are brought to this city en route going and returning.

Upon the recommendation of the county commissioners, County Clerk Eldredge has postponed the sale of the jail property on the corner of Second South and Second West streets until Sept. 4. It was the intention to sell 8x10 rods of the jail lot at public auction yesterday, but there were only a few bidders present at the appointed time and it was deemd advisabel to postpone the sale for some time.

Rev. Dr. C. T. Brown, formerly pastor of the First Congregationla church of this city, and now pastor of the First church at San Diego, will be in this city tomorrow, as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, 509 east First South street; and the visitor will receive his friends there Thursday evening. O. P. Riordan and wife are in town en route home to Caldwell, Idaho, after an eastern trip. Land values at Caldwell have doubled in the last year or two, and little remains now for homesteaders, though plenty can be had on relinquishment.

FOR PHYSICAL TRAINING.

Members of Ladies' Literary Club Make Appeal to Board of Education.

The home and education section of the Ladies' Literary club which has already done good work in a public educational way has taken up the subject of physical culture in the public schools with the object of having a supervisor appointed for that work, and which will include the matter of recreation, physical exercise, and personal cleanliness and health. To this end they have addressed the following letter to the board of education:

To the Honorable Board of Education, Salt Lake City:

We, your petitioners, the home and education section of the Ladies' Literary club, represent respectfully that there is now before the board a report recommending the appointment of a supervisor of physical culture for the grammar and primary grades.

From our personal observation and the testimony of other parents, we consider that the physical condition of the pupils in these grades is not receiving the attention that its importance demands. For what we understand to be reasons of economy, the board has abolished the offices of supervisor of physical culture and medical inspector and has never established inspection of eyes and ears.

It cannot be denied that when the physical development of the pupils is neglected the money spent on their mental training is largely wasted. The lack of systematic exercise within the school room and the lack of adequate play grounds adjoining many of our school buildings result in complete neglect of bodily development of the less active children who are most vitally in need of it.

We notice that the board favors a supervisor of the high school.

We desire to call your attention to the fact that but a small proportion of the entire school enrollment attends the high school. It hardly seems justifiable to grant the physical training to a small percentage of the older pupils, who need it least, and to refuse it to the great bulk of the pupils of ages and conditions which vitally require it.

Therefore, we respectfully urge that you give this recommendation immediate and favorable consideration in order that there may be ample opportunity to fill this position to the best advantage.

Home and education section of Ladies' Literary club.
ANNE AUSTIN BAILEY, Chairman.

Indigestion.
With its companions, heart burn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c, bottle. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. B

AMUSEMENTS.

"Northern Lights," which was the bill of the Bittner company at the Grand theater last night, proved to be one of the most difficult the company has yet presented. Its plot is rather gruesome and filled with dramatic situations hard to render in a finished manner on a few rehearsals. The story turns about the fortunes of an unscrupulous army surgeon at a frontier post who uses his medical skill to forward his ambitions. The hero is John Swiftwind, an Indian boy graduated from Yale, who knows medicine and thwarts the plans of the surgeon in time to save the heroine's life. Theo Lorch, who has heretofore enjoyed a monopoly on the kisses for the villain, was last night roundly applauded in the role of the hero, while genial Mr. Bittner, the big man, put in his bid to the gallery for the kisses in the role of the army surgeon. A feature of the performance was the lack of heat in the house, the emergency exits having been opened to the night breezes. "Northern Lights" will be the bill until Wednesday night, including the usual midweek matinee. Thursday evening "The Great Diamond Robbery" succeeds it.

The Colonel's Waterloo.
Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and, although I tried my family docter, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure, Dyspepsia, Billousness and Kidney Disease, by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., at 50c a bottle.

A UINTAH COLONY.

Incorporation Formed to Secure Lands For Soldiers and Sailors.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday afternoon for a corporation formed to secure lands in the Uintah reservation. Its object is to take advantage of the rights of soldiers and sailors and their widows to file on public lands, and its line of business will be to file the claims of soldiers and sailors, taking in each case a fee of $25 for doing this. A rigid federal law to shut out grafting upon the privileges extended to soldiers and sailors, prohibits the taking of a larger fee than $25 for this service, and provides large punishments for acceptance of a larger fee on any pretext whatever, either for services rendered, as a gift, or to defray expenses incurred by the attorney in the case.

The name of the new corporation is the Western Home Seekers' association of Salem, S. D. The officers are H. Stockman, president; W. H. Russell, vice president; H. W. Carl, secretary; Judge Fowler, assistant secretary; F. D. Moore, treasurer. Jas. T. Hammond of Salt Lake is process attorney, a position required to be filled by a local lawyer under the statutes. Another Salt Laker in the concern is P. H. Sheppard, a member of the board of directors.

President Stockman is now at Vernal in the interests of the concern, armed with power of attorney from many soldiers and sailors and widows of soldiers and sailors. It is stated that he plans to found a townsite on the reservation under the privileges allowed soldiers and sailors, and that after mature investigation the scheme has been decided to be practicable. He will return to Salt Lake in about 10 days, when his scheme will be further outlined.

The articles of incorporation, which are under the laws of Minnesota, do not state that there is any capitalization of the company, although it intends to collect fees. Who is to be the beneficiary of the company's business is also left unexplained.

Cured of Bright's Disease.
M. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

THE WRONG MITCHELLS.

Also the Wrong Address Given for Yesterday's Murder and Suicide.

Certain police officers and newspaper men are trying to figure out how the wrong address was given yesterday afternoon when the Mitchell murder and suicide alarm came in. No less than three reports had it "270 west Seventh South."

Three reporters rushed to the scene. Arriving at Seventh South and Second West streets they were surprised to see the street almost deserted. Upon inquiry they learned that a Mr. Mitchell lived at 217 and not 270. To the house rushed the reporters. One of them hammered on the door several seconds before there was any response.

Finally a lady answered the summons and also several questions that were somewhat bewildering to her.

"Does Mr. Mitchell live here?" was asked.

"He does," replied Mrs. Mitchell, who came to the door. "I am Mr. Mitchell's wife. Can I do anything for you?"

"There must be some mistake," said the reporter. "We just learned at the police station that Mr. Mitchell at this address, had murdered his wife and then committed suicide, but you don't look as if you had had any trouble here."

"Well," said the lady, "I am Mrs. Mitchell, and if my husband has killed me and committed suicide he neglected to mention it, and if he did say anything about it I have forgotten it. I am sure there must be some mistake. I know it hadn't happened up to a short time ago, for one of the children saw Mr. Mitchell at work."

In a second the reporters realized that the tragedy was on Seventh West between Second and Third South. Then followed a cross country run of about 10 blocks, through blistering heat, until the scene of the murder and suicide was reached.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.
Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
Ruth, the little daughter, of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.
The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by all druggists.

Doctors said He would not Live.
Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well." Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.
