FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 5:—The credentials of Burrow to succeed Hill were presented.

Sanders presented a memorial for the admission of Dakota, and said he would call up the bill for admission on Wednesday. All doubts as to sufficiency of population must have been removed by the number of votes cast at the late election.

Beck offered a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee etc to investigate how much money was collected during the recent election in violation of the law against political assessments; how much was spent, and how many persons were dismissed from the public service; and how many of them failed to contribute. The committee is required to report before February 1st. He will call it up to-morrow after the passage of the bill allowing army officers to hold office in the territories. Adjourned as a mark of respect to Representatives Updegraff and Lowe.

HOUSE.

The Speaker called the committee for reports. Kelly, from the Ways and means, reported a bill abolishing the internal revenue tax on tobacco, snuff, cigars and cigarettes; referred to the Committee of the Whole. The minority will be allowed to file a report.

The House proceeded with the calender. The bill to amend the Revised Statutes so as not to exclude retired army officers from holding civil offices in the territories, caused discussion, but went over.

A bill was passed repealing the law for paying three months' extra pay to sailors, and a measure adopted that when discharged at a foreign port they shall have adequate employment on another ship or means to return home.

The death of Senator Hill was announced, and after remarks by Hammond, adjournment was had.

AMERICAN.

The Republican Rudder.

CHICAGO, 5.—A Washington special to the Inter-Ocean has an interesting story about "The Steering Committee of the House." Robeson became chairman of the caucus, by agreement, and on motion of Hiscock appointed a committee to work out the policy of the republican party for the session. Early in the last session Robeson appointed the following: Robeson, of New Jersey; Butterworth, Ohio; Kasson, Iowa; Hubbell, Michigan; Cannon, Illinois; Anderson, Kansas; Reed, Maine; Shallenberger, Pennsylvania; Page California. Little was heard of this committee and things ran along, [illegible] committees had loaded down the calendars with various bills, quite a number of which had staunch advocates in the House. Various caucusses followed. The little revenue bill was decided upon, and Kelly's opposition was developed in the memorable caucus at which the stormy discussion arose, and a conclusion was reached which the chairman of the ways and means refused to be bound by, either there or on the floor of the House. The revenue policy having been concluded upon, another caucus was called a little later to consider the press of business, which was brought about by strife for precedence among members who had introduced measures they wished to push. Trouble multiplied as interests continued to clash, and the second committee, or steering committee, was announced as follows: Hiscock, Burrows, Robinson, of Massachusetts, McKinley, Bingham, Pound and Robeson. To all intents and purposes that committee was exactly like the other, except that it intensified the objectionable features of the first. It was in no sense a representative committee of the House, but of Mr. Robeson, who by this means was given practical direction of the business. It contained two members of the appropriation committee out of seven, instead of three out of nine, as in the first case. The majority of the committee were formed with a view of affecting the tariff alone. So the House at the last session was so directed that tariff legislation was impossible, and everything must bend to Robeson's will. A caucus will be held soon and the committee recast to more appropriately represent the geographical divisions of the Union.

The Speakership.

WASHINGTON, 5.—When Randall entered he was much pleased with the universal salutation of members of the House "Good morning, Mr. Speaker." He smiled blandly, and bowed profusely. Carlisle and Springer, too, had their following and the canvass for the Speakership may be said to have already begun.

Dead.

The following are among the left handed compliments bestowed upon the newspapers by western members who declared their criticisms that the action of the majority at the last session, and the course of the administration since, has been largely influential in causing the disaster. Page said with gloom, the republican party in California was virtually dead; evidently confounding his own political condition and prospects with those of the party.

Report of the Utah Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, 5.—The Utah Commission, in their report to the Secretary of the Interior, recommended that a marriage law be enacted by Congress which would form an auxiliary in the suppression of polygamy. The Commission says that owing to the peculiar state of affairs in Utah, the territorial law allowing women the right of suffrage is an obstruction to the speedy solution of the question, and should be repealed or annulled by Congress. The Commission says the law so far has been a decided success in excluding polygamists from the exercise of suffrage. The continued enforcement of the law will place polygamy in a condition of gradual extinction. The Commission noticed as an encouraging sign that many of the Liberal meetings have been largely attended by Mormons. In conclusion, the report says, after counseling moderation: "If, however, the next session of the Legislative Assembly elected under the act of Congress, shall fail to respond to the will of the nation, Congress should have no hesitation in using extraordinary measures to compel the people of this Territory to obey the laws of the land.

The Tariff Commission.

The report of the tariff commission says a substantial reduction of the tariff has been aimed at. The average reduction of rates, including that from the enlargement of the free list and the abolition of duties and commission, is 20 to 25 per cent. The reduction in many cases has been 45 to 50 per cent. If the reduction is as large as the commission expect, and if the opponents of the present economical system say truly that duty on manufactures or agricultural products enhances the prices to consumers on what is imported and also on domestic production, then the reductions will benefit consumers to the extent of $100,000,000.

Physical Force.

NEW YORK, 4.—An anonymous proclamation is issued, addressed to various persons, saying the originators of it have determined to abolish by physical force certain alleged wrongs. No good man need, however, be alarmed, as they will use persuasion and reason, and all other methods, first. They will be scientific in methods, whether of destruction or construction. For the space of another year we shall employ our energies upon the hearts and intellects of those misguided people who can see no criminality in making gambling debts of our markets of exchange and who can see no injustice in the exploitation of labor. If at the end of that time our demands have not been complied with, we shall without further ado proceed to active operation.
(Signed) EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Prince Nomuja.

NEW YORK, 5.—The Herald's Washington special says: Prince Arisugua, Nomuja, the uncle of the Emperor of Japan, and suite, are expected to arrive in New York from Liverpool on the 12th. The Prince left Japan last summer. He has the highest rank of any Japanese that ever arrived here.

700,000,000 Sold.

MILWAUKEE, 5.—Sherburn Bryant of Milwaukee, and Louis Sands of Manistee, bought 6,000 acres of land in Langlade county, Wisconsin, for $210,000. It contains about 700,000,000 feet of the best pine timber in the State. One thousand lumbermen are at work there now, and double that number will be employed shortly.

Importing Subjects for the King.

BOSTON, 5.—H. A. P. Carter, representative of the Hawaiian government, on his way home from Portugal and France, states that the relations between the United States and the Sandwich Islands are on a most admirable basis, the result of the treaty made by Mr. Allen and himself. The outcome is that the annual interchange of products between the countries amounts to about $7,000,000 each way, while the capital invested in the Islands has increased from $8,000,000 before the treaty to $30,000,000 at present, although but $2,000,000 is American capital. Carter, in referring to newspaper talk of favors shown by the United States to the Pacific refiners in that matter, and from the argument made from this that the treaty should be abrogated, said he had no doubt that the attempt would be made, but he did not fear it would succeed. The provisions of the treaty, favorable as they are to the United States, naturally are more or less distasteful to other powers. Great Britain regards it as giving the United States political preference, while France insists that certain clauses, in our treaty should be stricken out, and part of Carter's mission has been to patch that matter up.

Carter spoke of the alarming decrease in the population of the Islands and of the coming of a few cargoes of Chinese, and their beneficient effect in substantially increasing the population. Now they are having a large measure of success with Portuguese immigrants, who bring their families with them. 3,000 more families have just been ordered. At first there was a slight opposition arising from a misunderstanding by the Portuguese Government, but the opposition was easily overcome, so that the Government interposes no obstacles.

Carter tried to organize a scheme recently for the colonization of Southern negroes, but the plan was strongly opposed by the producers of the South, who say that with the fresh impetus recently given to their industries of that section, it will be but a short time before they will need all the negro labor that can be obtained, and the scheme was abandoned. He thinks, however, that with the advantages of commercial relations they now have and the success of the Portuguese immigration, they have no fear of their future prosperity.

Failures, Strikes and Reductions.

PATERSON, N. J., 5.—Seventy weavers in the Clifton Silk mills struck because the proprietors posted notices requiring pay for all spoiled work.

Troy, N. Y., 5.—The Albany Iron works, employing several thousand men, reduced wages 10 to 25 per cent.

Philadelphia, 5.—The sugar refinery of Charles Helbert, who absconded after forging commercial paper to the amount of $700,000, was sold to-day by the sheriff for $5,000; mortgages and other claims upon the property aggregate $10,000.

Portland, 4.—A meeting of the creditors of David W. Coolidge, commission dealer in grain, was held. His affairs show liabilities, $107,000; assets $108,000.

Chicago, 4.—Another board of trade firm caught in the corn deal, went to the wall to-day; that of E. S. and C. W. Richards. It is understood the amount is not large, and the firm state they expect to resume in a few days, but decline to make a statement of their affairs.

The creditors of Kreigh & Davis, who failed a few days ago, met to-day and appointed a committee to look into the condition of the firm.

St. Johns, N. F., 5.—The steamer "Liddlesdale," loaded with cotton, from New Orleans for Revel Mills, Frankford, is levied upon for judgments amounting to $28,400: other debts, $70,000. Value of mill and machinery, $200,000; stock about as much more. The cause of the trouble is said to be over production and dullness.

New York, 5.—Schedules filed in the assignment of Jacob Van Wagener to H. K. Thurber state his liabilities at $558,875; nominal assets $435,010; actual assets $158,715. The preferred creditors are banks and individuals in the East.

A Singular Will.

NEW YORK, 5.—Peter Johnson, one of the Jeannette crew who left the vessel in the boat commanded by Lieut. Chipp is supposed to have lived in Brooklyn. To-day Mr. L. Gilbert, counsel for Mrs. Kleins Johnson's aunt, offered for protate in the King's county Surrogate', office the following letter:

Onolaska, Aug. 8, 1879.

Dear Mrs. Klein:

I send you these few lines to let you know that we had to moike another will; of corse I send meine to you, for if I could I would come back again. You will woth is left after me, but I hope to live to return home once more. Tel them that you were may ante, so if Mr. Bennett could write to you, so tell him I who I ame. This is only in case if any of us should not leve to come back again, but I hope wee will. We so looke at it. It looeks kinder darke. Well, as I have no more to tell you this time for I told it all to Mary Ellen, only I wishes you and all your family more happy returns and I remain truly yours Peter Johnson.

Crimes and Criminals.

PHILADELPHIA, 5.—Frank McNammee, the "Dutch Pilot," and Levi Chew, the latter colored, were arrested last night while driving a wagon containing six dead bodies to the Medical College. The bodies had been stolen from Lebanon Cemetery, in the lower part of the city. Two morre arrests were made this morning, when a detective visited the cemetery and arrested Robert Chew superintendent, and Addrew Mallen, All the prisoners have a hearing this afternoon. Four of the six dead bodies have been indentified.

Lebanon cemetery, from which the bodies were stolen, is a favorite burying ground of the colored people. Long before the hour set for the hearing, crowds of colored people blockaded the streets. Plots to lynch the prisoners were discussed, but they were rushed through the hallway to the back room before the people realized what was going on. Two keys were found on McNamee that fitted doors in the room where bodies are prepared for dissection at Jefferson College. McNamee denied any knowledge of who gave them to him, but finally said he waited outside the cemetary while others brought the bodies out, and he knew where they came from.

Robert Chew, when arrested at the cemetery, said he was paid $3 for every body taken from the cemetery. The money was handed him by his brother. He did not know how many graves had been robbed. Sometimes Pillet did the digging and sometimes Levy. He had been in the cemetery eleven years. Body-snatching had been going on nine years. His brother-in-law, Solomon Butcher, now in Maryland, did it first, then a man named Myers, then McNamee. Sometimes wagons came and the drivers said they were short. Coffins were opened in the vault, the corpse "snatched," and the farce of burying an empty coffin gone through with. [illegible] of burial at the cemetery showed in two months 55 bodies in one gone. This statement created a sensation. The defendants were committed in default of $5,000 bail for further hearing Friday. As soon as the crowd outside the magistrate's office learned that the examination was over, a rush was made for the entry and gateway, with threats to lynch the prisoners. A sergeant and ten men were sent for. The "snatchers" were then brought out. The crowd made another rush and women and men struck at the prisoners, who cowered before them. The policemen drew their clubs and on a trot went to the Central Station, where the prisoners were locked up for the night.

Boston, 5.—C. P. Poucher, alias H. M. Whitney, a young New York lawyer, has managed to swindle Boston merchants out of $5,000 by an ingenious device, giving them bogus drafts drawn in the name of Poucher and accepted across the face in red ink by Whitney. He had a law office on which both names appeared.

Rochester, 5.—Some scoundrels raised six paddles of the second lock, letting the water out, causing a disastrous overflow. The New York Central culvert and track were washed away, freight cars ditched and trains delayed.

St. Louis, 5.—The grand jury to-day ignored the bill against Cockrell for killing Slayback. This fully exonerates him.

Little Rock, 5.—Governor Churchill has been issuing wholesale pardons to criminals of almost every order. One hundred and fifty have been granted to date. He has been sharply criticized for it.

Moberly, Mo., 5.—Nicholas, John and Richard Cooke, notorious desperadoes, of Mt. Sterling, are wanted for murder, burglary and other crimes in Illinois. They were recognized here to-day, and when the city marshal and posse endeavored to arrest them they opened fire. A large crowd of citizens gathered and pursued them, firing as they ran. They were finally overtaken. Richard was killed, Nicholas probably mortally wounded, and John badly hurt.

Indianapolis, 5.—The jury found C. M. Terrill, clerk in the pension office, guilty on two counts on his trial for forgery and conspiracy to defraud the government.

Memphis, 5.—Robert Wilson, colored, is found guilty of murder for killing Frank Brussells.

New Orleans, 5.—At Shreveport, La., Saturday evening, near Maplewood, J. Morgan killed two colored men in a quarrel. Morgan fled. A posse is in pursuit.

The first case under the new penal code whereby a would-be suicide, guilty of felony and punishable by imprisonment not to exceed two years, or a fine of not more than $2,000, was up in the Essex Market Police Court to-day. Charles Fick, a German tin-smith, was the accused. Fick denied the attempt at suicide.

Richmond, Va., 5—William H. Talman is indicted on a charge of forgery in connection with supplement lists. Several other employes in the Commissioner of Revenues' office are under arrest.

Buffalo, 5.—Peter L. Lieble, bookkeeper, is arrested on a charge of embezzlement by raising bank checks.

Philadelphia, 5.—John O'Grady, lawyer; Robert Williams and Margaret Cunninham, were held in $5,000 bail each, for defrauding the Legion of Honor out of $5,000.

Pittsburg, 5.—Annie Lyndey, peculating domestic, jumped from a fourth story window to-night to avoid arrest. She will die.

Personal.

NEW YORK, 5.—Dr. Frank Hamilton, one of Garfield's physicians in his last illness, has been seized with hemorrhage of the lungs, and prostrated. He is confident, however, he will recover.

Chicago, 5.—Samuel K. Packer, King Kalakaua's prime minister, was here yesterday.

Athens, O., 4.—Nelson P. Van Voorhees, ex-member of Congress, died to-night.

Washington, 5.—Col. T. L. Laidley, of the United States Army, was placed upon the retired list to-day.

Gen. G. C. Thomas died in Georgetown on Sunday night. In 1861 he was appointed Major General of the militia of the District of Columbia by Prest. Lincoln.

Lafayette, Ind., 5.—There is no truth in the report that Orth is dying. He is better than for weeks past, though still weak.

Lawrence, Mass., 5.—Charles S. Lilley proposes to contest the seat of Wm. R. Russell in the next Congress.

Columbia, S. C., 5.—Governor Thompson was inaugurated to-day. United States Senator Butler was re-elected.

Fast Steamers.

The American Quick Time Transit Steamship Company of Boston, designs to build steamers and run across the Atlantic in five days at less expense than the present slow boats require. Mr. A. Perry Bilwin is building them here. They are long, narrow, buoyant in the water, masstless and shapely, screw 10 feet in diameter, entirely under water. One vessel, the Meteor, is nearly done, and will, it is expected, plow the crests of the waves. The ventilating shafts prepared will be very effective in the worst weather. The Meteor will have engines of 2,500 horse power, and they will be placed inside of ten days. It is believed 25 miles will be obtained.
