Order of Publication Granted.

An order of publication has been granted in the suit of Drexel, Morgan & Co. vs. the California Bank, to recover $250,000 in gold coin, the day that the defendant is a foreign corporation, whose president is dead, whose cashier lives in San Francisco, and which has no office in this State on whom service could be made. The suit is on circular notes.

Not Yet Organized.

The committee of engineers, invited by Captain Jas. B. Eads to consider his plans for increasing the depth of the water over the bar, at the mouth of the Mississippi river, and facilitating navigation, have, as yet, formed no permanent organization, because of the absence of Professor Henry Mitchell, of the U. S. coast survey, who is invited to be present at the examination of the plans. President Grant called upon the committee this morning, and held a long conversation with its members.

About Charlie Ross.

A reporter, interviewing the widow of Massey, who abducted Charlie Ross, drew out the following facts, which apparently indicate her knowledge that the boy is alive, and where he can be procured. After trying to evade every question, she declared that she had never seen the boy, she replied to a direct question as to whether he is living, "I am sure that he is living," and that he will live up before long as sure as that he is living as that I breathe, and I would not believe him dead unless I saw his body before me." It is surmised that the boy may be found after the trial of Westervelt for complicity in the abduction is ended.

A Bank Robbed—A Long Trade

Proclamation.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 2.—The Planter's National Bank, in this city, was robbed of a large amount this morning; about day-break, the teller, Louis Rehl, was discovered near the bank, on his way to the police station. He could hardly speak at first, but after a while informed the detectives that three men had taken him from his bed during the night, and proceeded to the bank, and forced him to deliver the keys, by which they opened the safe and abstracted the money. Rehl alleges that he was chloroformed, and that he was taken to a place where there is a slight wound.
The bank officials have closed the doors, and refuse to tell anything concerning the affair, further than that the depositors will not lose the amount stolen, which is believed to be nearly a hundred thousand dollars.

The trade parade, this morning, was the largest ever held in Louisville; it was six miles long, and two hours passing a given point.
The fire department, military and civil, and the numerous mercantile and manufacturing interests of the city were represented. The city is crowded with strangers who came to witness the procession.

A French Trial.

Louis Rehl, teller of the Planter's National Bank, was arrested today, having robbed the safe himself. His first statement was that he had been awakened when asleep by his wife, at night, by some one ticking his feet, and that when he awoke he saw two masked men in the room, one at the foot, the other at the head of the bed, each pointing a pistol at him. He was made to lie on his back, and his pants-loose, and then he saw the other inflicted a slight wound in the abdomen, but they failed to get the keys. They then forced him to the Planter's National Bank, and after obtaining the keys and inflicting two more slight cuts, one on the head and the other on the legs, and after robbing the safe of its contents—one hundred and ten thousand dollars, the two men put him in the safe and locked the doors. He at first faintly, but recovered, and got the doors open and staggered out, going to the police station, believing the safe locked and the bank robbed. He then called up at the hotel. The directors of the bank met, and after consultation, came to the conclusion that Rehl's story was framed, and that he was the robber, and the president so informed him, but Rehl asserted his innocence, but being told that all robbers are liars, he was asked for an hour's sleep and, on awaking, confessed that he had robbed 12 o'clock on the night preceding, carrying its contents home, and burying them under the house. An examination of the detective resulted in finding all the money tied in a small sheet in the rear of Rehl's residence. He was arrested and is now in jail.

Previous to the robbery, Rehl was regarded as honest as any one in the bank, and why he took the money in the manner described is uncertain, as he must have known that he was taking the money from the bank. He says himself that he doesn't know why he took it, and now he realizes the improbability of being taken from bed as related.

Best Time Ever Made.

HARTFORD, 2.—At the Charter Oak Park races, to-day, the running mile heats, was won by Kade in the remarkable time of 1:41 and 11/16. The second prize went to third. The last heat was won in the best time ever made. Kade and Burgo came under, and were not heard of many claimed that Burgo won.

Committed for Trial.

TRENTON, N. J., 2.—Sooey, the defaulting State Treasurer, was examined to-day. The exact amount of the deficiency is ascertained to be $40,000. The judge held him in $75,000, and as no bond was offered he was fully committed.

Dead.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 2.—Edward King, a native of Newport, but many years a prosperous merchant in this city, died at his home in Newport this a.m.
