away their buy lives in medita-lion. But when a dark brown infant, with curiting loss, sile on a bank and blinks at them, they throw off their clock of laniness and make their pre-parations for a delicate morse! of Ceybonese humanty. When the erocolile gets about half way up the hank, the humber, concealed belond some reeds, speas fire, and the hungry crocolile has his appetite and life taken away at the same time, the body being brought home safely to its lowing mamma. The sportanan secures the skin and bead of the crossolile, and the rest of the carcase the natives make use of. Ceptus Catitadie Messenger.

Has Not Slept for Four Years.

Has Not Slept for Your Years.

Four years without sleeping a wink! That sounds prepairone, but is exactly the case of an old negro new living in Athens, III. Charles Hardon is his name and the snews of age have settled down upon blins. In savery times he bedongcotte John White. Charley was seen on the atreets the other day infiling to several of his friends, and telling them of his corious condition. "For four years," said be, "I have not slept a wink. I hear estilimally a boxaing sound, and it seems as if several persons were talking to me all the time. At right I he in my bed with my eyes wide open, and if I do alsep never close them, and always hear the talking. It is an a scall thing to be talked to for four years, and through the long nights to have to listen to this nonsense."—New York Cosumercial Advertiser.

Of a Superior Character.

New is the time to subscribe, that you may have the volume complete, not alone for your own reading but that of your children and future generations.

The Descret Weekly will be the best current record of Church History in existence, and in that respect will be a valuable acquisition to any home or public library.

The Descret Weekly is also the best publication to send abread to Missionaries, Saints or strangers who are investigating the Gospel, because of the discourses and other doctrinal articles contained in it.

A volume might be filled with the voluntary commendation of the Descrot Weekly already received, but we prefer to let it speak for itself. Send for a sample copy and judge of its merits.
