

WOMEN, SYMPATHY IS HER.

The finest American journalist who has ever lived, the late "Gentleheart" F. H. Brown, writes of women on pages of the Illustrated that have baffled and moved readers, even to today, as when the words glided across their eyes. "The strength of woman's love is almost infinite," he writes. "It is the only force that can hold, and she holds on, till the moment of the achievement of her purpose." Yet there are thousands of Glens who, knowing their loved ones well, in addition, suffering the power of human
