

DELEGATE ELECTION.

HEADQUARTERS People's Territorial Central Committee.
Salt Lake City, Oct. 29, 1886.
To the County and Precinct Committees and Voters of the People's Party:
As the biennial election for Delegate to Congress will occur on Tuesday, November 24, next, your attention is respectfully directed to the following suggestions:
County Committees should proceed at once to fill all vacancies in the Precinct Committees, and give them necessary instructions, pertaining to their duties at the approaching election.
Precinct Committees should arrange for the conveyance of ladies and infirm persons and use their influence to have all voters who are registered go to the polls on election day.
The Precinct Committees should be present at the opening of the election, and two of their number continue at the polls until the election is closed. Remain and witness the count, as representatives of the Candidates of the People's Party. Make a correct result and report the same to the County Committee. Observe and report anything having the appearance of intimidation. Report immediately any irregularity or proceedings detrimental to the rights of voters, to the County Committee.
Voters should be promptly at the polls on the day of election. Rights so sacred as the franchise should not be ignored. Exercise your privilege of citizenship and rally on November 24 to record a resounding vote for the People's Candidate.
The Territorial Central Committee,
JOHN SHARP,
Chairman.

FRAGMENTS.

HOME missionaries will visit the city wards to-morrow.
JOHN H. ADLIT was admitted to citizenship in the Third District Court to-day.
SERVICES in the Hawaiian language will be held at 8 a. m. to-morrow, at the house of Kamehameha, 19th Ward.
THE Fourth Quorum of Seventies will meet at the Twenty-first Ward meeting house, on Monday evening, at 7:30.
W. BRIGGS imbibed too freely of intoxicants last evening, and became so profane that he was taken to the City Hall to be subjected to a cool process in the shape of an interview with Justice Poyer. The effect of this was that the accused was required to pay $10 for his "modern indiscretions."

LOCAL NEWS.

Against the City.—The jury impaneled to try the damage suit of Samuel Levy vs. Salt Lake City, for $10,000, the loss alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff through a stock of tobacco being injured by water, rendered a verdict this afternoon in favor of Mr. Levy, for $4,800.

Sunday School Union.—The monthly meeting of the Sunday School Union of this State will be held in the Social Hall on Monday evening, November 1st, at 7 o'clock. All Sunday School officers and teachers are invited to attend.

JOS. H. PARRY, Sec'y.

Attractive Display.—At the retail dry goods house of Cohn Bros. is a splendid display of seasonable goods, and purchasers have the opportunity to select from an immense stock embracing everything usually found in a dry goods emporium. In their display advertisement in another column the firm offer certain lines of goods at very low prices. Read what they say.

Oriental Entertainment.—Ward El Ward is announced to give an entertainment in the Theatre on Monday evening next, assisted by his wife and a little Nazarene boy. The manners and customs of Palestine will be delineated, and the costumes of the country will be shown. There will be singing in several languages spoken in that country. This entertainment is said to be both humorous and instructive.

Phoenix Music House.—We are pleased to notice that Coaster & Snelgrove, the Phoenix music dealers, are again to the front with a new and more complete line of goods than ever, and those desiring a piano or organ may depend on a handsome reduction for cash from now on to January 1st, 1887, as the firm are determined to make rapid sales for quick returns during the holidays. (See their new display advertisement in this issue.)

Railroad Accident.—A private letter written by a person from a private route for the east, states that the Union Pacific passenger train which left Ogden last Wednesday morning met with quite a serious accident at Rock Creek, about 450 miles east of Ogden. It ran into a water car that by some means had been allowed to obstruct the main track, and the collision resulted in wrecking two engines and three cars. The passengers and the train were badly shaken up but no one was seriously hurt.

Smyrna Rug.—Mrs. I. McEwan, at 40 W. First South Street, is agent for the Paul Schulte method of making Oriental rugs. By this system mats, rugs, carpets, etc., can be made at home, at much less expense than they can be purchased. A box, containing specimens of the work and the materials, including pieces of Smyrna wool, cut to even lengths, a ball of Smyrna cotton, knitting needles, pattern to work from, and full instructions, can be obtained, and as the work is easy of execution, and can be done by anyone who can accomplish plain knitting, there is no difficulty connected with it. Smyrna wool, cotton, etc., can be obtained in any desired quantities from Mrs. McEwan. The rugs made by this method, and by this method, are thick, soft, durable and attractive. Read the lady's advertisement and call and see the goods.

Vile Business.—Mr. Daly, in the performance of "Vacation" last evening, induced a species of rebellion against a reporter for the unfavorable mention of his performance, which to put it mildly was vile. The gentleman to whom he referred, and whose name he pronounced in fact, was Mr. G. W. Whitney, of the Herald. Those who have known the latter from infancy hardly need to be informed that the direct statements and the insinuations of Daly were without foundation; not that, in mentioning performances, Mr. Whitney has been impartial and judicious, his errors, if any there be, being those of judgment, not of intent, concerning which qualities the public will hereafter as heretofore form their own conclusions. But the action of Daly cannot be excused upon any hypothesis; he assailed his critic in a place where no reply could be made, having previously threatened him on the street, and no apology or explanation can make good the wrong he has done.

A person who wilfully resorts to so cowardly a method of settling even the slightest wrong, would not hesitate to perpetrate a falsehood to accomplish his purpose.

UNDER THE EDMUNDS LAW.

JOHN C. GRAY EVADES THE QUESTION, BUT OWES THE FULL IMPRISONMENT—MORE SEVERE-GATED INDICTMENTS.

This morning was the time fixed for Bishop H. Mousley, Herman Grether, John P. Sorensen, George B. Wallace and John C. Gray to appear in the Third District Court, to plead to indictments found against them by the grand jury. Bishop Mousley was not present, as he only received notice late last night, and as he had twenty-two miles to travel, did not reach the city in time for court this morning, so his case was deferred until this afternoon, as was also that of Brother Wallace, who was detained from the same reason. When

JOHN C. GRAY was called, a gentleman apparently seventy years of age, whose feeble step and pale face indicated that he was in poor health, came forward. In fact, when Mr. Gray was arrested, a couple of weeks ago, he was too sick to be present at a preliminary examination. He was arraigned on an indictment alleging that, from November 1, 1885, to October 16, 1886, he had lived with Elizabeth H. Gray and Mary Newland Gray as his wife and cohabitant, in violation of the laws of this Territory. In response to the clerk's question, "What is your plea to this indictment?" he said "Guilty, I presume."

The Court then asked—Do you wish some time, or do you wish to receive sentence now? Mr. Gray—it may be as well now as any time. The Court—You have been indicted for the crime of unlawful cohabitation, and have pleaded guilty. It is now the duty of the court to pass judgment on you. Have you anything to say by way of excuse, or to be pronounced?

Mr. Gray—I don't know that I have. Court—Will you in the future obey the law against polygamy and unlawful cohabitation? Mr. Gray—I consider it the duty of every good citizen to honor at obey the laws of his country.

Court—You have pleaded guilty to this offense. Will you change your conduct and obey the law in future? Will you live with only one wife? Mr. Gray—That is what I have done. Court—Why did you plead guilty to the offense? Mr. Gray—I have not lived with my first wife.

Court—She is your lawful wife? Mr. Gray—Yes, sir. Court—The question is, will you in the future live with your lawful wife in the future? Mr. Gray—I might until there is a more liberal law in Utah.

Court—You might; but what is your intention? Mr. Gray—That is my intention until there is a more liberal law. Court—But suppose there never is a more liberal law? Mr. Gray—I do not intend to break any statutory law.

Court—Do you intend to obey the law? Mr. Gray—I do not intend to violate it. Court—Will you obey it? Mr. Gray—I have only lived with one wife. What is the law? Court—It is to live with your lawful wife and no other woman, and not to associate with any other woman as your wife. Mr. Gray—I could not live with her. Would have to build a shanty and live alone. She is a delicate woman and is—

Court—You do not appear to be a robust man, and it would seem a delicate man and a delicate woman could live in the same house. You do not seem willing to obey the law. What is your means to pay a fine? Mr. Gray—I am a carpenter; I have $25 a month rent coming in.

The Court thereupon sentenced the defendant to imprisonment in the penitentiary for six months, and to pay a fine of $50. He was taken in custody by the Marshal.

HERMAN GRETHER, of the Tenth Ward, was then called. The indictment against him charges that he has lived with Eliza Grether and Anna Schultze Grether as his wives, and is divided into five counts by the segregating method of the crusade. The first count charges unlawful cohabitation, five counts; plea of not guilty.

United States vs. John P. Mortensen, unlawful cohabitation, three counts; plea of not guilty.

Office of Territorial Superintendent was in dispute, and the plaintiff was not entitled to that office, as he had no other specific remedy, and the case was not in dispute. The present proceedings might be proper, but as neither of the conditions named existed, they were not. Mr. Young, cited authorities in support of his position, and contended that the plaintiff should not be allowed to legislate himself into the office of Territorial Superintendent by a collateral proceeding. He had allowed several months to pass without action, and was relatively to the duties of the office, not even having conformed to the provision requiring him to furnish a report. The plaintiff had not complied to the law, and should be required to do so before he applied to the court for an order of mandate to compel others to accede to his demand. No specific demand, in the legal way, had been made on Mr. Stewart for the report wanted. The plaintiff, further, had no right to install himself in office, as against L. John Nuttall, by a proceeding in law, and was not entitled to do so. There was no other object sought in this action. When the office was filled by an officer who was qualified and sworn, a writ of mandate could not be taken advantage of to settle the dispute. L. Williams replied to Mr. Young, whose argument he characterized as "rant" and "baldheadedness." He was not speaking when we went to press. A decision will probably not be given until Monday.

Prize Fighter Arraigned.—In the Third District Court, this afternoon, the Maori, Herbert A. Slade, was arraigned on an indictment charging him with having engaged in a prize fight, on Sept. 15, 1886, and pleaded not guilty. Duane McDougal, who is jointly indicted with Slade, did not appear.

Election Disputes.—The Western Union Telegraph Company will be prepared to furnish to private subscribers and clubs, at reasonable rates, bulletins of the election, which will be taken place on Tuesday next. Intending subscribers will please call at the Telegraph office and make arrangements as early as possible.

G. A. R. Entertainment.—On Friday evening next, at the Salt Lake Theatre, an entertainment will be given, the proceeds of which will go to the local G. A. R. organization—James B. McKean post. Olsen's brass band, Miss Sells, Miss Louie Pratt and J. P. Meakin will take part, and "Nevada," the Lost Mine, will be played by the Salt Lake Dramatic Club.

Will Speak.—In the Tabernacle to-morrow afternoon, Wad-el-Ward, or Prof. James Rosedale, which is his English name, will address the congregation. During a call at this office to-day he stated that he would speak temporarily and had not fixed upon a subject, but that his discourse would probably be descriptive of the manners and customs of the present Jews of Palestine.

Going Home.—Brother M. L. Shepherd, recently released from the penitentiary, where he served a five months' term on a conviction for unlawful cohabitation, started for his home in Beaver this morning. He took with him a carload of blooded sheep, and proposes branching out in the direction of agriculture, as well as enlarging his already immense possessions in that respect. His son-in-law, Wm. Ashworth, left for the same point this afternoon with a wagon and team.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day: United States vs. John C. Gray; unlawful cohabitation; plea of guilty; sentenced to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $50 and costs.

United States vs. John P. Mortensen, unlawful cohabitation, three counts; plea of not guilty.

John H. Ault was admitted to citizenship. Samuel Levy vs. Salt Lake City; jury render a verdict for plaintiff for $4,800 damages.

United States vs. Henry H. Hawthorne; polygamy; defendant allowed two days to plead.

United States vs. L. H. Mousley; unlawful cohabitation, three counts; plea of not guilty.

United States vs. Geo. B. Wallace; unlawful cohabitation, two counts; plea of not guilty.

The People, etc., vs. Herbert A. Slade; prize fighting; plea of not guilty.

P. L. Williams vs. Wm. M. Stewart; argued upon demurrer.

An interesting number of the issue for November 1st of the ever welcome Juvenile Instructor is at hand; its contents are as follows:

WHENEVER and WHEREVER an honest article of high merit has been produced in Utah, this establishment has invariably given it that preference, encouragement and opportunity, without which, no home product, however meritorious, can achieve success. We have followed this principle for seventeen years, and have not yet seen the slightest cause to abandon or modify it, and it is our earnest belief that every Merchant of high principle, who values the true interest of the people whose patronage he seeks, will accept this view.

We endorse, believe in and recommend the SOAPS made in Utah, as the best articles in that line that we carry, and will pay freight both ways and all other damages when dissatisfaction occurs.

H. S. ELDRIDGE, GEN'L. SUPT., Z. C. M. I.

Angostura Bitters do not only distinguish themselves by their flavor and aromatic odor above all others generally used, but they are also a sure preventive for all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

Painful After Eating. This result of indigestion will no longer be experienced if Simmons' Liver Regulator is taken after each meal. It is such a good digestive, and so mild and pleasant in its effect that it is used by many after a hearty meal. It is a sure cure for indigestion, does not nauseate or irritate the stomach, but corrects acidity, dispels flatulence, allays irritation, and assists the stomach in its digestion.

The Breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked, and frequently, entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat sometimes producing invasive bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best, if not the only real cure for hay fever, cold and catarrh.
