THE RAPID popularity gained in this Territory by the OLIVER CHILLED PLOW during the short time it has been introduced here is something marvelous. This splendid plow has distanced all competition, and now stands at the head of the list, unequalled by any implement of the kind ever brought to Utah. With the Oliver Plow FALL PLOWING can be done QUICKLY and EASILY, and WITHOUT IRRIGATING, no matter how hard and dry the soil. It is offered on the most favorable terms by Howard Seebie, at the Bain Vagat Depot, one-half block south of Theatre. d258

LYON'S KATHARON is an invigorating tonic vegetable preparation, positively free from any mineral or deleterious substances. It is the most delightful of all hair dressing—cooling the head, allaying irritation, curing headache and throbbing temples, making the hair strong, fragrant, glossy and obedient to control, so clearly to use that it will not soil the finest fabric, causing the hair to grow luxuriantly and beautifully, removing dandruff and pimples. No man or woman can become bald who will use the Lyon's Katharon properly. d504

We are now ready to receive home-made useful and ornamental articles of all kinds, which we will sell on commission.

Many of our citizens have felt the want of a place devoted exclusively to Utah productions, and now that we are, in accordance with the wishes of President Young, uniting our humble efforts in this direction, we confidently trust that we shall not only have the support of all branches of the Relief Society throughout the valleys of the mountains, but also of our brethren and all others who feel an interest in the future welfare and prosperity of Utah.

Local and Other Matters.

THEATRE. METEOR 57 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Partially cloudy.

Changeable. — Stormy-looking morning, but fine, beautiful, and pleasant afternoon to-day.

Removed. — To-day "Col." Johnston, the demented bootblack, was removed from the City Jail to the insane asylum.

Storm Approaching. — There were strong indications to-day of the near approach of a heavy storm. It did rain a little this morning.

Coming Down. — The buildings on the White House corner are being pulled down, by Mr. Romney, with a view to the erection of a substantial three story brick structure.

Ontario. — The Ontario new stamp mill, in the vicinity of Park City, is now under cover, two-thirds of the work on the group of large new buildings being completed.

Theatre. — This evening the Theatre-goers will have the pleasure of listening to the sweet strains of the Berger Family Concert Troupe, and of witnessing the famous character sketches of Mr. Sol Smith Russell. In the troupe are Miss Anna Teresa Berger, cornet soloist; Miss Etta Morgan, saxophonist; and Miss Emeline Anderson, violinist. The performance commences at eight o'clock.

The Northern Temple. — We understand it is expected that the erection of a Temple at Logan, Cache County, will commence next spring. It is to be built by the people of Cache Valley, Box Elder County, Malad Valley, Bear Lake Valley, Soda Springs and Bear River Valley. Logan being centrally located, is well adapted to be the place for the rearing of such a structure, and it is surrounded by most eligible sites for a building of that character.

Unprecedented. — The number of marriages that have taken place in Central and Northern Utah during the present month is unprecedented in the history of the Territory. It is always a healthy sign in any community when matrimony is sought after and esteemed as a natural and noble institution. When that sentiment does not prevail it is a strong evidence of moral and social degeneracy. We are therefore pleased to note the late frequent occurrence of matrimonial unions of the sexes, and hope the good work will continue.

Deseret Museum. — A specimen of lizard, from Pleasant Valley Creek, has been received from Mr. Albert Jones, of Provo city. It is the Siredon lichenoides, of Baird, in an advanced age, the respiratory fringes or breathing apparatus having been absorbed. This animal begins life in the water, is frequently found in brackish water, when favorably situated that it can get to land it gradually uses its internal breathing organs and develops into a land animal. The changes alluded to have been proved by Prof. O. C. Marsh, and described by him.

The Register and Receiver Removed. — O. A. Patton and V. M. C. Silva, the former register and the latter receiver of the U. S. Land Office in the City, have both been, as might have been reasonably expected, removed from their official positions. Yesterday a telegraphic dispatch was received by the register, from Assistant Secretary Gorham, of the Interior Department, instructing him to turn the Land Office over to Secretary Moses M. Bane, and the latter at the same time received a dispatch authorizing and directing him to take possession, which he accordingly did, placing his own clerk in temporary charge of the books, papers, &c. Major Silva, the defunct receiver, is now in the east, but is expected to return.

This action on the part of the Interior Department was taken under instructions from President Grant, and we are greatly pleased to note this prompt and decisive movement on the part of the administration, showing a disposition to purge its machinery of corrupt and tyrannical office-holders, when their misconduct is laid squarely open.

There can be no doubt that the official occupation of the register and receiver has resulted from the discoveries and recommendation of a special commissioner sent here from Washington to investigate the doings of those two officials, and who has been in the city, attending to this business, for some time.

We are not filled with pleasure at the discomfiture of the two parties who have thus been turned officially adrift, but we do feel it to be a matter of congratulation that right has triumphed so far over wrong. We believe, however, that the feeling produced by the removal of the Register especially is one of general and intense satisfaction, a sentiment which has been superinduced by the appointment of him a natural disposition and course to render himself almost universally repulsive. Existing facts and figures are doubtless the cause of the removal.

The path of the wrong-doer has invariably but one ending, although it may appear to take a considerable time to reach it, and "the way of the transgressor is hard."

New Land Officers. — A telegraphic dispatch to a gentleman of this city, from the Secretary of the Interior, announces that a new register and receiver of the U. S. Land Office in this city have already been appointed, Vice Patton and Silva suspended.

Accident. — Yesterday C. Harrington, conductor on the Utah Southern Railroad, was examining a small pistol, when a chamber of the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball entering the thigh of a newsboy, named Harmon, from which it was extracted by Dr. Benedict.

Montana Vigilantes. — Helena, Montana, has been thrice burned. Persons suspected of setting fire to the town were recently hanged. They took legal advice, returned, entered complaint against the parties who warned them to leave, and had them arrested and bound over to answer at next term of court. The suspected incendiaries were armed and entrenched in a cabin, and threatened to stay. So a hundred citizens of Helena marched to the cabin and gave the inmates ten minutes to leave town. In ten minutes a buggy drove up, and the parties were driven out towards Jefferson City.

Prof. Baldwin. — On Monday evening the above named gentleman, assisted by his lady, Clara Baldwin, will give one of their astounding expostulations at the Theatre, reserved seats can now be had without extra charge by applying at the box office. He duplicates with great clearness all the facts, tricks, of lies, cunning, or dexterity of the most renowned mediums; if anybody knows how to tell a particular hard knot, or if any officer, sheriff, clerk of police, or anybody else, has a pair of handcuffs which can't be removed, they are invited to be present and assist in tying or binding the Professor. The Omaha Herald says of one of Baldwin's feats: — "Next a pair of steel handcuffs of most approved design, were furnished by Mr. Mills, placed upon the performer's wrists and securely locked, and the keyhole filled with wax. He then retired to his cabinet—a light wooden structure placed in the centre of the stage, on a stool, so the audience can see all around it and underneath it. In a moment manifestations began, hands were seen three or four feet apart, at the expiration of which Mr. Baldwin walked out with the handcuffs still on, and requested Mr. Mills to unlock and remove them. Mr. Mills, who had evidently come prepared for business, was determined that Baldwin should remove them as he claims he can do. He produced a huge pair of manacles, put them on his feet, and told Baldwin he wanted him to take them off. Baldwin was then aroused, allowed himself to be handcuffed and his feet shackled, and in less than a minute appeared with the cuffs and shackles in his hands."

Young vs. Young, in Divorce. — The counsel on both sides in this case having been notified by the commission that the would commence the taking of depositions this afternoon, the attorneys for the plaintiff appeared in the District Court, this morning, before Judge Schaeffer, and moved that the commission be enjoined from proceeding with the case until the defendant had paid the alimony pendente lite, amounting to between $3,000 and $4,000, according to former order of the Court. The Court overruled the motion.

The presumption of the attorneys did not reach the crowning point, however, until they asked the Court for an order compelling the defendant to pay $500 to defray the expenses of the proceedings before the commissioner. This was carrying the matter to an extreme that it is difficult to conceive how it could be advanced by men claiming to be sane, setting the matter of honesty out of the question. The Court said that money had already been paid by the defendant to meet the expenses of the case, receiving in reply, the answer that that payment occurred a considerable time since and that it was all exhausted, the Court retorting that anyhow that was the purpose for which the money was then paid and that it should not order the payment of any more money to be applied in that direction. The Court further stated that the case should have been tried and disposed of long since, and the commissioner should proceed with the taking of depositions forthwith.

It is a self evident fact that the Court cannot grant the divorce asked for without acknowledging the legality of plural marriage, and if the decision be that the plaintiff is not entitled to divorce, it will all ways be considered, and is now so considered, that the defendant has been, in this suit, subjected to a process of attempted and real blackmailing and plunder that has probably never been surpassed in the annals of American jurisprudence. It is a case that could have been decided in a very brief space of time from its commencement, but this did not suit the monetary interests of parties whose sole desire appears to have been to harass the defendant and obtain unjust possession of his property. But "it is a long road that has no turning."

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Oct. 25.—

We have to record another death from smallpox. Miss Melvina Perry, daughter of Mr. Josiah Perry, of Huntsville, yielded to the destroyer last night, at the residence of Mrs. Donnan on the Bench, in this city. There are two new cases reported this morning; on the whole, very few flags were taken down from Mr. Crawford's house this morning. The new of the past few days are not in new localities, and most of them are in families in which the disease has already appeared. Several families that have been afflicted are now entirely convalescent, and appearances indicate the check rather than the spread of the malady.

This (sequestration order) is a new move in one of the most complicated cases in divorce that ever came up for adjudication. The general sentiment among all classes of society and people of all shades of religious, social and political opinion is, that it is an outrage to require the payment of temporary alimony to a person who certainly cannot obtain a permanent alimony. That a plaintiff who has no legal standing in court as a wife, whose position is publicly known and acknowledged by herself, should be awarded money pending a suit well understood to be nothing less than an impudent attempt at blackmail, and which can only end in a decision in favor of the defendant, seems to the general public a violation of common sense. By what authority the District Judge appoints an officer, without bonds, to act in the place of the marshal or sheriff, and so properly to satisfy an interior order, and how an execution can be issued before a final judgment, are matters which need considerable explanation. Some may consider it cheaper for President Young to comply with the order of the Court, however unjust, than to withstand the power to resist remains? We hope the defendant in this case will take advantage of every legal means to thwart the nefarious purposes of those whose only object is to bleed him financially as long as this case is pending, and who know full well that with its close, even their chances to dip their hands in his pockets.

Ogden Junction, Oct. 25.—

Reports from the Marshal to-day are favorable. The two new cases reported yesterday are not yet detected, but the case now on the flag has been taken down to day. Rumors of other cases are incorrect. We are sorry to say there was another death from smallpox, last night, that of a son of Mr. Simon Wheeler. Several families in which single cases have occurred show no signs of a complaint, and it is evidently on the decrease.

Complaint having been made before Alderman F. A. Brown, charging Albert Kiesel with an assault and battery upon the person of Thomas Norling, the case came up this morning before that officer, at the City Hall, who after hearing all the testimony adduced for the prosecution and defense, adjudged the defendant guilty, and assessed a fine of fifteen dollars, together with the costs.

A clergyman at East Bolton, Quebec, recently seized a bride as she was about to be married, and in a fit of religious fervor, and the husband had to give security for $125 ere he could obtain his bride.
