her and their child with the necessities of life for the past six months, although he was making from $80 to $90 a month. She was given a divorce, custody of the child and alimony. Clara E. Walker was granted a divorce from W. F. Walker, to whom she was married in Helena, Mont. March 17, 1904. The grounds upon which the divorce was granted was desertion and non-support. She testified that her husband abandoned her Nov. 1, 1904. Mrs. Bertha Eaton Hough was given a decree from her husband, Henry Clyde Hough, but owing to the fact that she had a 2-year-old child, the court refused to let the mother resume her maiden name. The Houghs were married in Monticello, Mo., May 24, 1904. Mrs. Hough testified that her husband had contributed but little to her support during the past year, although he held a good position. She was given the custody of the child. Della Scott was given a divorce from her husband, Samuel F. Scott, on the ground of non-support. Mrs. Scott testified that her husband, to whom she was married June 2 last, had failed to support her and that she was obliged to secure a livelihood for herself. She was given a decree and $50 attorney's fees.

SCHOOL CLOSING EXERCISES.
The public schools of Ogden closed yesterday afternoon for the Christmas holidays, with interesting exercises in all schools. Well prepared programs were presented in all the departments, including the high school. There was a good attendance of parents and visitors to witness the exercises. The schools of the county also closed yesterday for a two weeks' vacation. Appropriate exercises were held in all the schools of the county.

NEW SCHOOLS DEDICATED.
Dedication services were held in Plain City Thursday afternoon for the new public school building. State Supt. A. C. Nelson, County Supt. Thomas B. McKay, Primary Supervisor Matilda Peterson, Musical Supervisor Albert Powell, President Frank Stratford of the county board and Clerk Lester Frorer were present and took part in the interesting exercises and made addresses. The dedicatory prayer was offered by Patriarch David McKay. Yesterday afternoon similar exercises were held at North Ogden, where President C. F. Middleton offered the dedicatory prayer. These new buildings add greatly to the school facilities of the county.

Ogden, Dec. 19.—Yesterday was divorce day in Judge Howell's court when five unhappy couples were decreed free to begin married life over again. Non-support was the cause of all the divorces granted yesterday.

Sarah M. Derriour was given a divorce from Harry Derriour on the ground that he had not supported his wife for the past five years. They were married in Birmingham, England, Jan. 20, 1901. The plaintiff was given the custody of the minor child.

Nellie M. Cook charged that her husband, J. H. Cook, employed as a passenger brakeman, had failed to furnish

By Our Formula

We produce in Hood's Sarsaparilla a medicine that has an unapproached record of cures of Scrofula, eczema, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism, anemia, nervousness, that tired feeling, loss of appetite, etc.
Hood's Sarsaparilla effects its wonderful cures, not simply because it contains sarsaparilla but because it combines the utmost remedial values of more than 20 different ingredients, each greatly strengthened and enriched by this peculiar combination. There is no real substitute for it. If urged to buy any preparation said to be "just as good" you may be sure it is inferior, costs less to make, and yields the dealer a larger profit. This medicine makes healthy and strong the "Little Soldiers" in your blood, those corpuscles that fight disease germs constantly attacking you. which are up to date and the peer of any in the state.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.
Settling R. R. Troubles.—Master Mechanic Malone said today that "the roadjustment of schedules affecting freight, conductors and brakemen on the Southern Pacific coast lines are now in progress and there is reason to believe that these differences will be settled satisfactorily during the present conference between railroad officials and representatives of the three railroads and labor organizations."

Four Divorces Granted.—In the district court today Judge Howell severed the bonds of matrimony in four cases. Sarah A. Derriour was given a divorce from Harry Derriour with the custody of their only child, Dorothy, five years old. Della Scott was given a divorce from Samuel E. Scott. Nella M. Cook from J. H. Cook. Clara Walker from W. F. Walker. All were on the grounds of non-support.

Robbery Trial.—George Adamson and John J. McCune charged with highway robbery in holding up George Stewart on Oct. 21 last, will be tried for the offense next Wednesday.

SESSION OF INSANITY BOARD.

Contract for Supplies Let.—Provo Horse Association Organized.

Provo, Utah Co., Dec. 19.—At the special meeting of the state board of insanity, attended by all the members and the new members, Governor-elect Spry, Treasurer-elect Mattson and Auditor-elect Jewkes, consideration of the biennial report of Superintendent Calder, was the principal matter under consideration.

For supplies for the ensuing six months, contracts were awarded as follows: Coal, Smoot & Spafford; flour, Springfield Roller mill; straw, James Meldrum. The medical superintendent, Mr. Calder, was instructed to buy other supplies in the open market. Much satisfaction was expressed by the old and new board members respecting the excellent condition of the institution.

PROVO HORSE ASSOCIATION.

The Provo Standard Breed Horse association has been organized with the following officers and directors: C. H. Ward, president; J. William Knight, vice president; W. D. Roberts, Jr., secretary and treasurer; C. P. Westlake, N. C. Spaulding and C. O. Dixon. The association has purchased from J. C. Leggett of Ogden his standard bred horse, Billy Sherbert, for $3,500. The horse was brought from Kentucky last fall and has paced four mile heats in less than 2:20 each.

William W. Stevens of the treasury department, Washington, D. C., was here today to look into the matter of fixtures and furniture for the new federal building. It was decided that quarter-sawn oak should be used.

WEDDING PERMIT.
A marriage license has been issued to Bowdell Pawman of Silver City and Jean Beards of Springfield.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

A judgment has been entered in the Fourth district court against Jesse W. Fox for $264.70 at the suit of Miller-Cahoon Co., vs. Jesse W. Fox. The Bank of Spanish Fork has commenced suit against James A. Martell et al., to collect $1,208.88, with interest over $150, attorney fees on a promissory note. Judgment in favor of the Bank of Spanish Fork has been entered against the following parties for the amounts stated: Thomas Hill et al., $74.95; J. R. Wren et al., $135.25; A. A. Cahoon, $106.20.

LOGAN.
CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

Christmas Weddings.—Answer Filed in Newspaper Suit.—B. Y. C. Course. Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., Dec. 18.—At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the city council the following business was disposed of:

The city treasurer submitted a statement of receipts and disbursements for the various funds for the month ending Nov. 30, 1908. Liquor licenses were granted the nine old dealers, five for retail business and four for a wholesale disposal of liquor.

The matter of securing snowplows for sidewalks was referred to the committee to purchase and distribute. It was ordered that a new early closing ordinance be drafted to take the place of the old one which has been found to be invalid. The matter of removing the rough element which is constantly found loafing in the saloons was discussed. A committee was appointed to bring in recommendations.

ANSWER FILED IN NEWSPAPER SUIT.
Separate answers to the complaint in the suit of Wm. H. Thain vs. the Logan Newspaper Co., et al. have been filed by Fred Turner and Judge W. W. Naughton, defendants, in the suit. In the main a flat denial of the allegations in the original complaint is made. They deny that 333 shares of stock were unlawfully transferred, but that they purchased the same in good faith not knowing the same were stolen. They deny that 333 shares of stock were unlawfully transferred, but that they purchased the same in good faith not knowing the same were stolen. They deny that 333 shares of stock were unlawfully transferred, but that they purchased the same in good faith not knowing the same were stolen.

Defendants pray for a dismissal of the suit; that the restraining order be dissolved and that defendants' title to the stock in question be confirmed.

B. Y. C. WINTER COURSE.

The Brigham Young college has circulated an announcement of winter course from Jan. 4 to April 2. The college library will be closed during holidays. The housekeepers' course, which has been so ably conducted by Miss Cox at the B. Y. C., has completed its series of lessons. Last evening the tabernacle and U. A. C. choirs in their concert in the tabernacle rendered a program which was excellently presented. Much credit is due Prof. G. W. Thatcher, director of both choirs, for the interesting efforts he put forth to make it a success. The New Jersey academy students presented the cantata, "Santa in South Land" last evening in the Presbyterian church. There was a full house and a nice entertainment was given.

BRIGHAM CITY.

SESSION OF DISTRICT COURT.

Toltec Ranch Co. Wins Suit Against F. N. Handy.—Too Many Ducks.

Brigham City, Dec. 19.—Judge W. W. Maughan has been holding court here this week.

Judgment in the case of the Toltec Ranch company against F. N. Handy and others, was rendered in favor of plaintiff as to two sections of land. This land lies east of the reservoir and belongs to Joseph F. Hansen, and the judgment quieted the title of the Toltec Ranch company.

The case of William Jensen against Boxelder Academy of Music company was argued and taken under advisement.

The case of the Three Mile Creek Land and Live Stock company against Thomas C. Young, contesting certain rights to waters in the basin, east of Perry, was taken under advisement after the court had viewed the premises.

EXCEEDED BAG LIMIT.

Report comes from Corinne that V. F. Davis, a prominent Perry man and also connected with the duck clubs at the Bear River bay, was arrested at the club grounds recently for having exceeded the bag limit of ducks killed in one day. He appeared before Justice R. R. Hadley and after pleading guilty was fined $10.
