

June 10, 1873.

PRICE OF GOLD. Received Daily by HOOVER, BROS. & Co. Bankers.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

WEATHER ITEM.—The thermometer stood at 53 in the shade, at noon, to-day.

THEATRE.—Another good house greeted the Lingard last night, on the occasion of their first appearance in this city.

THE WATER QUESTION.—The habit some people have of taking water from the ditches to irrigate their lots when it is not their turn to get it, is a great annoyance.

A NIGHT WITH DRAMATIC CELEBRITIES.—We have seen many notices in our exchanges of an entertainment given by the celebrated artist, Mr. and Miss Coultcock.

WE have heard that Mr. and Miss Coultcock contemplate, before their departure East, some time during the coming week, to favor the citizens of Salt Lake by appearing in the Theatre in this new role.

FLOWERS.—We had a magnificent bouquet sent to us this morning by Brother Thomas Fenton, proprietor of the 4th Ward Farmers' Nursery.

CASH FOR WOOL.—Mr. Alfred Randall, of the Excelsior Mills, Ogden, has made an arrangement with Messrs. Riggs & Lechtenberg, East Temple St., to sell the cloth manufactured at his factory; and to buy wool for him.

ROOMS TO RENT.—A large lot of houses on the corner of 1st and 2nd streets, opposite the store of T. S. & Co., suitable for offices or private rooms.

Special Notices.

Address of Church Emigration Agent.—Mr. William C. Holmes, Box 507, New York.

WANTED.—Borrowing in a private family, Best of references given. Address R. L. 11th Office.

LOOKING and clear starching, by Mrs. Harriet Elms, South Temple St., between West Temple and First West Sts., first door west of Hon. W. Woodruff's.

WANTED.—A Situation as Clerk, Book-keeper, or in any capacity to be thoroughly useful.

THE advertisement of Riggs & Lechtenberg indicates a disposition to furnish Flanneau, Cassimere and Jeans, at agents of the Ogden Woolen Mills, at such figures as to insure their success.

RENEWAL.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsaparilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of temperance reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country.

Notice to Consumers.—The increasing popularity of Dooley's Yeast Powder has induced a certain firm who manufacture a Baking Powder to copy verbatim our advertisement, simply substituting their name in place of ours.
