TALK OF THE TOWN.

The sky is overcast.
Rather breezy to-day.
Go to meeting to-morrow.
Ogden has tramps and has them bad.
The Melville tickets are going off rapidly.
The children's fair, next week, will be a big affair.
The Insane Asylum Commissioners meet at Provo to-night.
Go and see "Queen's Evidence," at the Theatre this evening.
The Directors of the D. A. & M. Society meet again this evening to talk about the Fair.
Don't forget the bicycle race at Calder's next Wednesday. See advertisement in another column.
Joseph Harris, Esq., of Ogden City, was in town to-day. He expects soon to take a trip to the east.
The examination of John Oaks, for the murder of David Richards, was expected to take place to-day in Provo.

Major Berry and party, of the Indian Agency, now in our city, will occupy a stall at the Theatre to-night.
Mr. Robert Pixon offers a special premium of $10 for the best and largest display of home-made brushes.

The Firemen's Excursion to Nephi, on Tuesday next, will leave the depot at 8 a.m. Tickets may be had at the Firemen's Hall, up to 10 p.m. Monday.

The sale of single reserved seats for every night of the Emmeline Melville Opera Company, will commence at the Theatre box office on Monday at 10 a.m. Season tickets will also be sold on Monday until 4 p.m.

Mr. Charles Denney, of the 11th Ward has raised some of the finest peaches we have seen this season. They are of the orange cling-stone variety, one of which measured 10 1/2 inches in circumference and weighed 9 1/2 oz.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Emigrants.—By telegram from Elder James Finlayson to President Taylor, we learn that the company of immigrants arrived to-day, at 2 p.m., at Norway, Iowa, all well.

Sunday Services.—The Sabbath services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will consist of the following: Sabbath Schools at 10 a.m.; general meeting in the Tabernacle at 2 p.m., and Ward meetings in the evening as usual.

Visiting the Museum.—The 6th District School, in charge of the teacher, Mr. Ward, visited the Museum yesterday. The children were much delighted. The school master privately procured some fine water melons for the children, who did ample justice to them, in the Museum grounds, which are being cleared for the use of the Territorial Fair, on the 3d prox. Brother Ward has entire control of the children entrusted to his watch-care, as a teacher.

Jacob Hamlin.—A narrative of the personal experience of Elder Jacob Hamlin, while engaged as a frontiersman, missionary to the Indians, and as an explorer, has been compiled by Elder James A. Little, and issued in book form by the Juvenile Instructor office. It is the fifth volume of the popular Faith-promoting Series. It consists of 114 pages of reading matter, nicely printed and well bound, and should be read by everybody. It costs 35 cents.

Cowardly Assault.—An anonymous writer at Neels Station, section 35, U. C. R. R., under date of the 11th inst., relates a cowardly assault upon the person of a married woman, the wife of the fireman of the section, by a fellow who had been discharged by the foreman, the previous day for unbecoming conduct. We cannot give names or further particulars, on account of the writer neglecting to send us his name. How often must newspapers repeat that anonymous communications cannot be published!

Welcome Home.—Brothers J. H. Dean and W. D. Alexander, with their wives and children, returned from missions to the Sandwich Islands yesterday. The former was absent in October, 1877, and left for his field of labor December 12, arriving there on the 23rd of the same month. Brother and Sister Dean have spent nearly four years away and have filled faithful missions and return home rejoicing in the gospel. Bro. Alexander was called at the October conference, 1873, has spent nearly three years in active service in the missionary field and returns home satisfied with his labors. They report the prospects of the mission good. The financial outlook was never better. Cane crops are average and the new steam sugar mill is in active and successful operation.

Criminal Calendar.—The calendar of criminal cases in the Third District Court, for the September term, so far as determined, is as follows:

Monday, Oct. 10, 1881.—United States vs. David G. Fraser, bigamy; the People, etc.; vs. Andrew Pettit, two cases, grand larceny; the People, etc.; vs. Alex. C. Mallock, grand larceny; the People, etc.; vs. Arthur Boyce, assault, etc.; the People, etc.; vs. Arthur Boyce and Shelby Huff, disturbing the peace.

Tuesday, Oct. 11.—The People, etc.; vs. Harry Shields, two cases, assault, etc.; the People, etc.; vs. Geo. McKinney, assault, etc.

Oct. 12.—The People, etc.; vs. David Jenkins, murder.

Oct. 13.—The People, etc.; vs. James Moray, murder.

Oct. 14.—The People, etc.; vs. Edward Bird, embezzlement; the People, etc.; vs. Joseph Biddlecom, grand larceny.

Oct. 15.—The People, etc.; vs. Emerson, alias McConnell, murder.

Other cases will be set by the court at its convenience.

The Habeas Corpus.—The hearing in the case of Habeas Corpus, which commenced at 2 p.m. yesterday before Judge Hunter, continued until after 5 o'clock last evening. Judge Sutherland, in behalf of the applicants, it will be remembered, argued the invalidity of the ordinance under which they had been arrested for selling liquor without license, on the grounds that it assumed a power inconsistent with the rights of the City Council, where it originated. This body, by the City Charter, had authority to license the liquor traffic, but not to prohibit it, as attempted by the ordinance in question. The several powers granted the city in relation to liquor, were separate and distinct. They were alternative and could only be used separately. Again, the license fee was exorbitant, far above the amount necessary to the proper regulation of the liquor traffic, as the Court had held in a similar case not long ago.

J. R. Rawlins, Esq., replied to the foregoing. A territorial legislature had the same powers in the restriction of the liquor traffic as the legislature of a State, and it was generally held that the latter could prohibit it entirely. The powers granted to the City Council by its charter were in general terms, and were to be generally applicable. The Council not only had the powers granted by the express terms of the charter, but powers implied also. It was left to their discretion to adopt means having a reasonable tendency to the accomplishment of a legitimate object. The powers granted them were not alternative and separate, in the sense that but one could be used at a time. As to the exorbitance of the license fee, the Court could not know, in the absence of contrary evidence, that it was above the amount necessary for the proper regulation of the traffic, or even that a higher rate was not necessary, as compensation for incidental evils, pauperism, crime and general results springing from the vicious vocation of liquor selling. It could not be viewed in the light of a legitimate occupation, and in licensing it a difference must be made. Again, Habeas Corpus was not the appropriate remedy to apply in testing the validity of a city ordinance. The Court before whom the party was being prosecuted had jurisdiction, and was competent to pass upon that question. No other court ought to interfere except in the matter of a regular appeal.

Further hearing of the case was deferred until this morning.

Proceedings were resumed this morning at 10 o'clock, when J. S. Rawlins, Esq., on behalf of the respondents, made a few additional citations to support his argument of yesterday. A. Miner, Esq., City attorney, followed and occupied the next hour. His arguments were principally upon the points set forth in the brief of his associate. Judge Sutherland replied and filled up the time till about 1 p.m., when the case was submitted and taken under advisement by the Court, with the understanding that a decision would be made to-day.

It had not been rendered, up to the hour of our going to press.

Theatre To-night.—The great English sensational drama, "Queen's Evidence," will be put upon our boards for the first time to-night, when the Home Dramatic Club, assisted by talented support, will inaugurate the fall season of home theatricals. The piece will be presented in fine style, with new scenery and mechanical effects, including the thrilling River Lock scene, especially prepared for this occasion by the carpenters and scenic artist of the Salt Lake stage. Added to the play's great attraction, the justly celebrated Carolee Orchestra will appear and render new and magnificent selections. Mr. Mark Croxall's brilliant cornet solo, "Le Piston Electrique," is alone worth the price of admission. Tickets went off rapidly yesterday and to-day. Go early or you will miss a good seat.

Landed at Liverpool.—A private letter from Elder John Q. Cannon, written from Liverpool, states that he with his fellow-missionaries reached that port on the 27th ult. Elder Cannon was feeling pretty well, but had a rather unpleasant experience on the ocean, having been indisposed from "sea-sickness" all the way across. He had not, at the time of writing, been assigned to any particular field of labor, as President Carrington was absent attending the Wales Conference, but he expected to visit family relatives and acquaintances before settling down to a regular routine of duty. Elder Abram Cannon, his brother, from the Swiss mission, was soon expected at Liverpool with a company of Swiss Saints, and the two brothers expected to go in company to the Isle of Man on a visit to the birthplace of their father, President George Q. Cannon.

Primary Matters.—The secretaries of the various Primary Associations throughout the State are requested to send in their semi-annual reports immediately to Mrs. Vilate Young, 15th Ward, Secretary of the Primary State Organization.

The Primary Conference takes place on Saturday, the 24th inst., at 10 a.m., in the Assembly Hall.

The Primary Fair opens on the 25th inst., in the Social Hall. Exhibits should be all in by the 21st at the latest. Each Ward should also furnish a banner or something of that character, to designate each subdivision of the Fair.

The clergy and the press have complimented it in the most glowing terms. Go to your druggist and get a trial bottle free of cost, or a regular size for $1. For Sale by Moore, Allen & Co., Salt Lake City, Agents.

They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint, as recommended. I had a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls, whom the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I am confident I should have lost both of them one night if I had not had the Hop Bitters in my house to use. I found they did them so much good, I continued with them, and they are now well. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them highly enough."—B. Roelcke, New York.

Should be in every house during the heated season. It never fails to cure Diarrhoea, Dysentery and Cholera Morbus. For sale by all Druggists in Salt Lake and Utah.

It is said that one out of every four real invalids who go to Denver, Col., to recover health never return to the East or South except as a corpse. The undertakers, next to the hotel keepers, have the most profitable business. This excessive mortality may be prevented and patients served and cured under the care of friends and loved ones at home if they will but use Hop Bitters in time.
