

KEMP V. BIGELOW DENVER DYNAMITER

Sent Infernal Machines to Gov.
Butcher, D. H. Moffatt and C. B. Kounze.

MAKES A FULL CONFESSION.

Notified Police of Overhearing a Plot —Intended to Make Hero of Himself and Get a Reward.

Denver, Oct. 8.—Gov. Henry A. Buch-ter, David H. Moffatt, president of the first National bank of Denver, and Charles B. Kounze, president of the Colorado National bank, received through the mails today, infernal machines containing sufficient dynamite to have caused great destruction of lives and property had they been exploded.
Fortunately warning had been given to the recipients of the machines by the chief of police, Michael Delaney, who had obtained a confession from Kemp V. Bigelow, by whom they were mailed.

INFERNAL MACHINES.

Bigelow confessed, also, that he had sent infernal machines to Lawrence C.
Phillips and Edward Chase, but these were not delivered today. The machines sent by Messrs. Moffatt and Kounze were turned over to the police department. The one sent to Gov.
Buchter was received by the governor's private secretary, Alfred C.
McGregory, who removed the wrapping, disclosing a box with a sliding cover. His suspicions were aroused, and he reported the matter to Gov. Buchter, who thereupon issued a warrant for Bigelow, charged by the chief of police to be on the lookout for an infernal machine.

BOX OPENED.

Adj. Gen. Kelly and officers of the police department were called in and the box was carefully opened by them in such a manner as to avoid explosion of its contents. It was found to contain two sticks of dynamite, to which were attached fuses and caps, and which were packed in black powder.
The sliding top was lined with sand paper, and the matches had been placed with their heads in contact with the sandpaper, so that they would have been lighted if the box was opened in the manner intended, thus undoubtedly causing an explosion of the dynamite.
The other infernal machines were containers of this one.

Bigelow, who is 31 years of age, arrived in Denver several weeks ago, and secured a position as clerk in the Kendick Book & Stationery store. He said that he was the son of C. L. Bigelow, superintendent of schools in Bryan, O.

BIGELOW NOTIFIED POLICE.

On Sunday night Bigelow notified the police department that he had overheard two men talking about a plot to kill Governor Buchter, Gov.
Buchter and other prominent citizens, and that Mr. Chase's residence was to be blown up that night. A search in the morning in the Chase residence resulted in the discovery of a package containing sticks of dynamite. Bigelow's story was regarded with suspicion, and he was placed under arrest last night. Today he confessed that he himself placed the dynamite in Mr. Chase's house where it was found, and that he had sent several infernal machines by mail. Had this confession not been obtained in time to give warning to the men to whom the machines had been sent, they who opened the boxes containing the dynamite would undoubtedly have been killed.

BIGELOW CONFESES.

Tonight in the presence of Chief of Police Delaney, Police Commissioner Berit, representatives of newspapers and Fred Moffatt, a nephew of David H.
Moffatt, Bigelow made a confession in which he admitted sending the infernal machines and explained his motive. He said that he was unable to earn enough at his regular employment to keep him properly and conceived the idea of making a hero of himself, with probable financial reward as a result. Accordingly he made a special trip to Colorado, where he secured the dynamite, and returned to the city Sunday morning prepared the infernal machines and mailed them in a street-corner mail box. He then planted the exploding device in a lot at the rear of Edward Chase's residence and followed this up immediately by notifying the police that he had overheard two men discussing a plot to kill the above named man. Chief Delaney promptly placed Bigelow under arrest and the later having the useful results of his action in sending the infernal machines confessed fortunately in time

BIGELOW'S FAMILY.

Bryan, O., Oct. 8.—Kemp Bigelow is the son of A. Bigelow, teacher of the school at Farmers Center, seven miles from here. The young man's mother and several brothers and sisters reside in Bryan. The family bears a name of some prominence in the state, and at a loss to account for his actions in Denver, and are inclined to believe there is a mistake. The young man always appeared level-headed, and according to his father is temperate in his habits.

MURDERER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 8.—Larry Cavanaugh, the murderer of James Cahill, committed suicide in the county jail this morning. It was "slaying day" for the prisoners, and Cavanaugh, obtaining a razor, cut his throat, dying almost instantly. Cavanaugh and Cahill quarrelled on the night of Sept. 26, while drinking, and Cahill slapped Cavanaugh. Next day Cavanaugh found Cahill in a saloon on Riverside avenue and deliberately shot him down in spite of his pleas for mercy. Cavanaugh explained that his motive was a simple one, and he killed Cahill for slapping him.

PRESIDENT GETS PLENTY OF RAIN BUT NO BEAR.

Stamoul, La., Oct. 8.—Secy. Latta returned today from the president's camp. He says that yesterday's rain was even more than bargained for, and while the first effects were to put the woods in good condition, they became so wet the party was compelled to return to camp. The rain continued throughout the night, and it was decided not to venture out at all today.
No one has yet sighted a bear.

Croup.

In a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the windpipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes, and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 2c. 50c and

INJUNCTION TO PREVENT DEMAND FOR EIGHT HOURS

Cincinnati, Oct. 8.—Several printing and publishing firms in Chicago, St.
Louis, New York and Massachusetts, with national officers of the United Typothetae, brought action in the United States court today asking that the International Printing Pressmen's and Assistants' Union of America be enjoined from violating an agreement of Jan. 4, 1907, by demanding an eight-hour day.

The headquarters of the union are in Cincinnati. The petition asks that the union be restrained from calling or insulting strikes or siding or assisting in calling any strike against the Typothetae or its members for the refusal to institute the eight-hour day before Jan. 1, 1908, or the closest shop at any time; that it be restrained from inciting local unions to institute strikes;

THE CALL OF THE BLOOD IN DEBILITY

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Will Prevent Most Cases and Have Cured Even Those That Stubbornly Resisted
Treatment.

There are few cases of general debility that could not have been prevented.
There is no hidden cause for its presence nor is it sudden in its attack. Any person who is over-worked, or subject to any great worry or excitement, or undergoes some long-continued strain on the body, is liable to become debilitated unless the blood is kept pure and rich. Such unusual conditions call for more nourishment than the blood can supply and patience, headaches, poor appetite, unrefreshing sleep, backaches, loss of spirits and a general wear-out feeling, which follow are simply a call for a blood tonic and builder.

Mrs. Lena May Brookline of Prairie Hill Mass. county, Ill., after several months of suffering, finally found the right tonic in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says:
"For several months after the birth of my baby, I suffered terribly from a general breakdown in health. I was in bed for three months after that, was able to be up part of the time. I was sick all over, being pale, weak and thin. My appetite was gone and my head ached most of the time. Oftentimes there seemed to be a rush of blood to my head and I would faint away. I was very nervous and was not strong enough to do any work."
"As the treatment I received did not help me, I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which a friend said had helped her. After taking a few boxes, I began to get well rapidly, and continued until the full time, and am now as well and strong as ever."

ANTI BOSS PLATFORM.

Cincinnati, Oct. 8.—On an anti-boss platform the newly organized city party nearly completed the ticket this afternoon, only a few minor places remaining to be filled. Frank L. Pfaff, present vice mayor, who refused a Democratic renomination for that place, leads the ticket for mayor.

CRUISERS READY FOR VOYAGE.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—The cruisers Colorado and Maryland today went to the Mare Island navy yard to coal, preparatory to sailing for Santa Barbara.
In a few days they will be joined at that port by Rear Admiral Dayton's flagship, the West Virginia, and the cruiser Pennsylvania. All then will proceed to Magdalena Bay, where Rear Admiral Schuchman's squadron is now engaged in target practice.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. R. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Tex., writes, July 1902, "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound Syrup and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for croup, colds, etc. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street.

COL. J. G. BOYLE DEAD.

North Yakima, Wash., Oct. 8.—Col.
John G. Boyle, soldier, lawyer and journalist, died here today, aged 82 years. Col. Boyle was born in Ohio and served through the civil war. After the close of the war he studied law.
After being admitted to the bar he became assistant attorney-general of Texas. He went to Seattle from Texas, becoming one of the editors of the Post.
He was afterwards editor of the Lead-death he was manager of the Daily Republic of this city.

a prominent member of the Tacoma bar, was stricken with paralysis in his office yesterday afternoon, and is

MRS. NEWHOUSE AT KING'S BREAKFAST

Salt Lake Woman Sits at Left of Edward at Carlsbad.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT.

Woman So Interested in Gazing at the King That She Walks
Into a Tree.

At Carlsbad, in September, Mrs.
Samuel Newhouse of Salt Lake sat at the left of King Edward at a breakfast given in the open air at the Savoy hotel. Mrs. Townsend, mother of Mrs. Newhouse, sat opposite the king, and on his right sat Miss Mathilde Newhouse. The dinner was given by Admiral Sir John Fisher.

The Paris edition of the New York Herald described the dinner at length in special correspondence from Carlsbad, as follows:

Carlsbad, Saturday.—The most glorious weather still prevails, and today the heat has been quite tropical.
As a result all the dresses of the lightest and daintiest descriptions, concealed so long during the cold summer in trunk and chest, have suddenly sprung into daylight.

On account of the exceptional heat prevailing today, Admiral Sir John Fisher decided at the last moment to give his breakfast party in honor of King Edward, instead of in the big dining hall, and his decision proved to be very wise, for it was deligh-tfully cool in the shade of the trees.

EDWARD'S ARRIVAL.

King Edward, who arrived at about 1 o'clock, was awaited and escorted into the garden by his host. The Savoy land played better than ever and King Edward seemed well pleased with the choice of strains from "The Merry Widow" and the "Waltztraum."
The other guests were Lord Chief Justice O'Brien, Mrs. Samuel Newhouse, who sat on the left side of the king and were a charming table of white embroidered chiffon and hat adorned with scarlet roses. Miss Mathilde Newhouse, seated on the right side in a white dress of embroidered muslin and hat with pink roses; Mrs.
Townsend, exactly opposite the king, wearing a handsome dress of white cloth, hand-painted, with violet flowers, and a large violet hat, and on her left Admiral Sir John Fisher. The other guests were the Duke de Alba, Marques de Villveria, Sir Stanley Clarke and Major Ponsonby. King Edward wore a light gray suit and soft felt hat, and a white flower in his buttonhole, and seemed to be in the best of spirits.

An amusing incident occurred during breakfast. A lady ostensibly waited past the table with her husband, and was so busy gazing at the king that she marched straight into a tree and embraced it, much to her own discomfort and the amusement of all who witnessed it.
The man, printed on picturesque cards, was as follows:

Truites de rivière a la Savoy.
Fogosh de Plattenaise a la Beryx.
Pommes de terre nature, Selle de veau Harovienne, Aubergines Parisienne, Courgettes Yma Bayakht, Mousse de petits pois.
Creme Favorite,
Perdreux de Boheme sur canapes.
Volailles de Styrie a broche, Salade Chabadales,
Souffles Princesses Kna, Compote variee,
Gateau Opera,
Cafe ture.

GOES SHOPPING.

After the breakfast was over King Edward drove into town with Mrs.
Newhouse and did some shopping on Abercrombie Street. He inspected the famous collection of furs at Grunbaum's and made several purchases.
In the meantime the rest of the breakfast party drove in carriages to the Abercrombie Street. King Edward also arrived, and the Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich and his sister, the Grand Duchess Olga Alexandrovna, with her husband, the Duke Pierre of Oldenburg, were also present to take tea with the king. The Savoy band provided entertainment and after sitting there over an hour King Edward drove down again to the Savoy Hotel with Admiral Sir John Fisher, passing along the beautiful Elizabeth and Esterhazy roads.

PASTOR RESIGNS.

Church Trustees Decline to Divide Collections Whereupon the Action.

The trustees of the African Methodist church in this city have issued the following notice:
"The trustee board of the A. M. E. church of this city have received and accepted the resignation of their minister Rev. J. C. Bell, and wish it made known to the general public that he is no longer authorized by them to solicit funds for the indebtedness of this new church, recently erected on Sixth South street."
And thereby hangs a tale. The African Methodist church is in debt $3,000 on the $7,000 edifice recently erected, and it is found pretty hard work raising the needed cash. At a meeting the pastor, Rev. Bell, proposed to go on the solicitation was paid himself, provided that he be given 25 to 30 per cent of all that he could collect. Bell's compensation for ministerial services is $100 per year and household expenses
