Two More Delegates-John Q. Critchlow and Theodore Nystrom have been appointed delegates to Sacra-mento by President Hewlett of the M. & M. association. Walker Salisbury made the welcome announcement yesterday that his brother, O. J. ("Jimmy") Salisbury, will be here to defend his title of in Buys Coal in Illinois—The Salt Lake Route is buying coal in Illinois at $7 per ton delivered at Salt Lake, as the Utah Fuel company couldn't guaran-tee the desired supply. termountain tennis champion. This injected new interest into the tourna ment now in progress. "Jimmy" has bee out of the city for some time and Male Chorus Practise-The memit was not thought he would be her bers of Prof. Kent's male chorus are requested to meet for practise at 7:30 o'clock this evening, 536 Constitution building, bringing their books with them to meet the winner of this year's tournament, thereby losing the cham-plonship by default. But he has ar-ranged his affairs so he can come home and as he has been playing as much as possible during the sum-mer, he is in good trim. The two brothers will not be able to play to-gether to hold their title in tha doubles as Walker has played in idoubles already and this eliminates him under the rules. It looks as if Sam Neel and "Jimmy" Salisbury are to dish up the championship con-test and it would be a warm one with this pair serving. YESTERDAY-S GAMES. to meet the winner of this year" New Rails Arriving-The Utah Light and Railway company is daily re-ceiving consignments of new steel rails which are being laid as fast as the workmen are able to prepare the roadbad roadbed. Officials Went Fishing—County Clerk Eldredge and County Treasurer Groesbeck have returned from a 10 days' fishing trip in Star valley, Wyo., and report having had a very pleas-ant and successful outing. YESTERDAY-S GAMES. The rain interfered with yesterday's schedule, the women's doubles being postponed until today on this account. Myers defeated Conrad yesterday: scores, 6-1, 7-5, and McLeod defeated George Taylor, 6-4, 7-5. Hill Appointed Secretary—Perley A. Hill has been appointed secretary of the Democratic city and county committee, by Chairman M. F. Cun-ningham, Hill is already chairman of the Third precinct Democratic com-mittee TODAY'S SCHEDULE. mittee. Wagon Man Here-F. L. Mitchell of Racine, Wis., representing the wag-on firm of the same name, is in the city, and a guest of Col. Colt, manager of the Utah Implement Vehicle com-pany. Mr Mitchell was entertained at the Commercial club yesterday. Woman's doubles-Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Lyons vs. Miss Williams and Miss Thorne for championship of in-termountain states. Myers vs. Garnett, semi-finals, 4 p. m. Myers vs. Garnett, semi-finais, 4 p. m. Neel vs. Brown, semi-finais, 5 p. m.
