FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

City Council meets to-night.

General Thomas L. Kane, of Philadelphia, one of Utah's best and most successful men, is dead.

The second of the social series of the W. A. C. C. parties takes place Friday night.

James J. A. Margelley, on last night's programme of the "Lancashire Lass," should have been "J. A. Margelley."

Everybody's stockings were filled, and nearly everybody's shoes, yesterday. Nothing like mud for Christmas.

The announcement of M. Goldstein in our advertising columns, keeps a well selected stock of meat and everything in his line.

The New Orleans Platz says that the man who invented the hot air balloon, and crying steam whistle should hereafter be tied to the tail of the eternally turned windmill.

The price of admission to the Social Ward entertainment this evening and Friday night are 25c, and the proceeds are for the benefit of the new meeting house.

On the morning of Dec. 24th, the son of Mr. John Chug, a conductor on the U. C. R. R., presented his wife with a bouncing boy. The fine little fellow came pretty near being a Christmas gift.

The bicycle riders who are now exhibiting at the new skating rink every afternoon and evening are the "Lancashire Lass" and are drawing big houses. For particulars of programme see ad.

Twenty-six cases were disposed of in the Police Court this morning. Only all were for drunkenness, fighting or fighting. Fines ranged from $5 to $25. One man for stealing an overcoat got 60 days.

Some headlines on Sunday last gave into the basement of the new University building and committed suicide. They also broke the top of the hydrant outside, and did other mischief on the premises.

Lord Beaconsfield likened the British capital to Venice and named the London canal "the gondola of the London streets." The trees of Salt Lake at present, would afford a more apt illustration, minus the much needed gondola.

Headlines about the age of 15 years described citizens in a portion of the 17th Ward yesterday morning, and wound up by removing gates and carrying them off to a distance. Repetition of such conduct may not have a pleasant effect upon the perpetrators.

At the Sabbath School children's party in the 21st Ward, yesterday morning, a prize of $10 was presented, with commendation of respect, to Sister Elizabeth Gentry, whose husband was a former teacher in the school and died a short time ago. The children enjoyed themselves in the dance and had presents and refreshments distributed among them.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Missionaries.—The Home missionaries of this State will meet in the Social Hall at 7 o'clock to-night.

Back Again.—Apostle F. M. Lytle returned this morning from his trip through the southern states. He attended five State Conferences, held sixty meetings and traveled about 1,000 miles. He crossed the boundary into Arizona, but did not proceed far into that Territory. He is in his usual excellent health and spirits.

A Drunken Indian.—On Monday night, about half past 7 o'clock, an Indian man was found lying on a sidewalk near this office, and being disturbed from his rest, he got up and started to walk. He was nearly blind and prevented this doing any harm. It is said some boys were the red man the "drunkard," if their names could be ascertained they should be dealt with according to law.

A Mongolian Meloe.—At a Chinese meeting on Monday night a new broke out among the assembly, in which Jack Fong, a representative Mongolian, got an ugly blow in the mouth, which enlarged his eyes up to an alarming size and caused some of his teeth. He had the excellent arrested and in order to expedite what he regarded as the course of justice, offered the magistrate three large ounces with the remark: "Give to him all six months."

Set Down Upon.—The floor of the Police Court was most emphatically "set down upon" the other day by a well known attorney of this city. He had just closed a vigorous address to the Court, which had occupied some little time in delivering, and down he plumped upon what he supposed was his chair, which some one had innocently removed meanwhile, with the result above stated. His embarrassment, intensified by the fact that he had been the subject of a number of the bystanders, may have been entirely deplored than otherwise.

Death of "Pinker Joe."—A Norwegian, English, paper contains the following, which may be of interest to some of our readers formerly of Hockham and vicinity:

"Joseph Ashton, a tinker, and an inhabitant of Hockham Parish, died recently at the reputed age of 113 years, and was buried in the churchyard. The deceased traveled the Eastern Counties as a tinker for a great number of years, and up to a few days of his death he was never known to have had a day's illness in his life, and to the end he was in full use of all his mental powers. The poor old man was generally respected."

That $10,000 Suit.—The defendants in the suit for $10,000 damages, planted in the Third District Court at the instance of George C. Staley, for alleged false imprisonment, were given ten days in which to answer the complaint. This was last Friday, so that five days more are allowed them in which to take action.

The defendant, as heretofore stated, is M. R. Murray, George D. Pyper and Charles H. Crow. At the time the Langrishe troupe, of which Staley was a member, were playing here last September, he was arrested at the instance of M. R. Murray, G. D. Pyper and others, for debt, said to have been contracted here on a former occasion, and which, although he had money (the proceeds of a benefit tendered him by sympathizing members of the dramatic profession) he said to have gone off without paying. The debt to Murray was in the form of personal loan.

On the Saturday night of the Langrishe engagement, just as the curtain was about to rise, Staley was arrested by Officer Crow, Mr. Murray being the complainant and Justice Pyper the magistrate who issued the papers. The actor was taken before the Court and the play, in consequence, "did not proceed" until some time later.

Staley, refusing for some reason to take advantage of the fact that he had been afforded the effect that he was without means to discharge the debt he would have been set at liberty, although repeatedly informed of this chance in his favor, preferred to maintain a stout silence, and the Justice, as a matter of course, following the strict wording of the statute, had no alternative but to commit him until the amount sued for was paid.

Officer Crow accompanied him back to the Theatre and took up a position at the wings, while his prisoner went on and "said his lines," and after that held him in charge until two or three days afterward, when a writ of habeas corpus was obtained from the District Court, and Staley was released. Having rejoined his troupe in Montana, his next move, when sufficiently recuperated in a financial way, was to telegraph to Mr. Arthur Brown, attorney of this city, to begin the suit for damages, Staley claiming that he was falsely imprisoned, and that besides entailing financial loss upon him, his arrest and detention were detrimental to his health.

Mr. Pyper regards the whole thing in the light of a vexatious suit, which will eventually in nothing to the defendants but the trouble of replying to and facing it down. Mr. Theodore Burmaster has voluntarily undertaken the case for the defense.

Railway Time Table.—Time Table No. 4, Idaho Division, Union Pacific Railway, will take effect at 12:05 a. m. on Saturday Dec. 28th. Third District Court.—Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter on Wednesday, December 26, 1893. The C. Griffith vs. A. E. Ireland; defendant allowed till Jan. 15th, 1894, to answer.

London Bank of Utah (L) vs. Plaintiff Dist. B. M. Co. (C); same. James Hunter vs. W. C. Gregg et al; default and judgment as to defendant Gregg, set aside and vacated.

Geo. F. Culmer et al vs. L. F. Fritchley; plaintiff submits a deponent without argument, no one appearing for defendant. E. S. Reddall vs. Geo. M. Pierce; motion of plaintiff to strike out findings on ruling on motion to dissolve attachment. Argued.

Geo. W. Beld vs. B. Y. Hampton; on motion of defendant case stricken from docket, with leave to restate at February term, upon a proper showing made and upon notice.

Mrs. J. Winters vs. Nellie Le Clair; heard on motion of defendant to quash service of summons and dismiss action. Plaintiff objects to hearing of said motion, and moves for an order removing case from docket. Argued. Court adjourns till Thursday at 10 a. m.

Engagement Closed.—The Chicago Church Choir Company closed their brilliant and successful engagement at the Opera House last evening, presenting for the second time that charming opera, the "Chimes of Normandy," to an audience of good dimensions and unbounded appreciation. It is seldom in this city that a troupe maintains its attractiveness throughout an engagement so protracted as this has been, and this is an emphatic and undeniable evidence of how much their efforts have pleased the public eye and ear. They are first-class singers, and with a few exceptions good actors. Their entertainments are chaste and artistic, and they give an audience their money's worth every time.

PERSONAL.

Judge W. N. Dusenberry was up from Provo this morning. Bishop John Bart, of Brigham City, has been in the city several days.

H. H. Chitt, Esq., of Provo, was on the streets to-day.

In the Medical Profession.—Bro. W. B. Parkinson, formerly of Morgan City, Morgan County, has adopted the medical profession, and is now located and practicing with good success at Coalville. He recently returned from the Rush Medical College, Chicago, where he has undergone a course of instruction.

Broken Arm.—Alfred Brown, of the 19th Ward, son of Margaret Brown, widow, late of Leeds, England, while taking a neighbor's horse to water yesterday afternoon, was thrown to the ground, completely breaking the elbow of his left arm. Fears are entertained that he will lose the limb. Dr. H. J. Richards is attending him.

Anti-Rock Railroad.—The following has been handed in for publication:

The residents of the 16th and 17th Wards opposed to the Rock Railroad will hold a mass meeting in the 17th Ward School House, at 7:30 o'clock, on Friday evening next, to give expression to their views, and to adopt such measures as they may deem proper for the protection of their rights in the premises.

Concert at Coalville.—Mr. John Meakin, the well known book canvasser and variety vocalist, while at Coalville on business recently, was solicited by numbers of the residents of that place to give one of his variety concerts there. Since returning he has concluded to do so, and has set the date of December 31st, (New Year's eve) as the proper time to regale our Coalville friends with his literary and musical entertainment.

Married.—Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, the ceremony was performed by President Joseph F. Smith which united in holy wedlock Brother August Wilkison and Miss Mary Ann Sansom. The bride is the daughter of Charles Sansom, Esq. In the evening a family reception took place at his residence, when the bride and bridegroom were made the recipients of any amount of good wishes and earnest congratulations. We heartily join.

A Little Unpleasantness.—There has been some talk about an unpleasantness said to have occurred on Saturday night in connection with the Catholic Fair. The statement that reaches us is to the effect that in the voting for the most popular patron of the fair, it was whispered about that the canvassing committee had scratched the name of Mr. Gould, who was leading, in order to put the names of other gentlemen ahead. Mr. Gould protested to the chairman of the committee, Mr. P. H. Lunsan, in rather vigorous language.

Assaulted and Beaten.—On Saturday night, about 8 o'clock, as Mr. E. C. Foster, of the 7th Ward, was on his way up town, he was set upon by two men near Independence Hall. Just before it occurred one of the men said to the other, pointing to Foster, "This is the man that insulted your wife on Commercial Street this afternoon." Whereupon the other started in to pummeling Mr. Foster. After he had beaten him, it was discovered that he was the wrong man, and the assaulting party, whose name is said to be Fred Smith, tendered an apology, which Mr. Foster naturally considered rather inadequate.

"Lancashire Lass"—A splendid audience, the largest seen anywhere last evening, attended the fine performance of the "Lancashire Lass," at the Theatre, and were well repaid for so doing. We have seldom seen our local favorites to better advantage than on this occasion. Mr. McKenna's shown in the character of the falsely accused and noble-minded "Ned Clayton," and Miss Adams, as the faithful wife, played with her usual care and excellence. Mr. Margelley made a capital "Party by the name of Johnson," and Mr. Lindsay also appeared to equally good advantage in the character as signed him. Misses Cogswell and Platt were welcomed back with warm applause. The minor parts were all in good hands, and the play went off with much vim and spirit. It was truly an enjoyable performance.

Sad Loss.—The many friends of our esteemed fellow-townman, Col. John R. Winder, will deeply condole with him in the sad bereavement he has suffered by the loss of his wife, Sister Elizabeth Parker Winder, who died at Poplar Farm, Mill Creek Ward, yesterday morning at five minutes past 8 o'clock, in the 47th year of her age.

The cause of her death was paralysis, with which she has been a sufferer for a long time. It was at most a year since she stood upon her feet or turned herself in bed. She was the daughter of Bishop John and Alice Parker, of Virgin City, Kane County, and was born at Chatsworth, Lancashire, England. She leaves a family of eleven children, from three to twenty-four years of age, all of whom were in the room at the time of her death. She had the reputation of being a good wife, mother and Latter-day Saint as could be found, and her loss will be severely felt. The funeral services will be held at her late residence, Poplar Farm, Mill Creek Ward, to-morrow (Thursday) morning, at 10 o'clock.
