

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Perhaps the most notable affair of the week was the celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Midgley on Wednesday evening. There was a large gathering of relatives, including four generations of the immediate family, and a number of near friends, the evening being pleasantly spent with music, recitations and in social reunion. The esteemed pair received many congratulations on the completion of their fiftieth anniversary of wedded life.

On Wednesday Mrs. J. T. Harris entertained at a delightful luncheon in honor of Mrs. Heffron, covers being laid for six. The table was prettily decorated with pink roses, and the same flowers were used for favors. The guests were Mrs. Heffron, Mrs. Lewis Evans, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Graham Putnam and Mrs. Sara Bransford.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sherwood spent a most delightful evening on Monday, April 6th, at their home on 729 east Third South street, the occasion being Mrs. Sherwood's 25th birthday. The evening was spent in music and singing, after which a delicious supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. H. Tuckett, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald, Mr. and Mrs. W. Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. E. Horsley, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. S. Holmes, Mrs. M. E. Brown, Mrs. Maggie Bassett, Mrs. M. Griffin, Mrs. M. Roskelley, Mrs. L. Cushing, Mrs. Tomstrot, Mrs. N. Goodsell, Mrs. J. Sears, Mrs. E. Sears, and Miss E. Roskelley, Miss E. Rogers, Miss E. Bean. Among those present were a number of friends from Smithfield, Ogden, West Weber and Price.

The Country club opened for the season today, and Mrs. Mont. Perry was hostess for the day. She was assisted by Mrs. McClure, Miss Mary Louise Anderson, Miss Burke, Miss Dooly and the Misses Sherman. The rooms were decorated and were lit with white candles, while Easter flowers were used entirely in the decorations. A beautiful spread of Arabian lace covered the table, and all details were in charming taste.

Miss Alida Van Hoorbeke of St.

Paul, Minn., is the guest of Mrs. M. J. Shell, and will remain in the city until January, when she leaves for Manila, where she will become the bride of Mr. Harold Pitt, formerly of this city and now a resident of Manila. The bride-elect sails from San Francisco on next Wednesday.

Mrs. J. C. E. King entertained the Pan Hellenic at her home on Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. White gave a theater party on Wednesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reber.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brattain en-of Colorado Springs, the others present being Capt. and Mrs. Fardee, and Capt. and Mrs. Barth.

Mrs. F. E. Harding entertained the Euchre club this afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. King was assisted at her usual at home on Tuesday by Mrs. Sam King of Provo.

Miss Florence Roundy was on Thursday afternoon the guest of honor at a quilting bee given by Mrs. George T. Odell.

Misses Elsa and Dorothy Bamberger were hostesses at a pretty children's party on Thursday, about 60 of their little friends spending an enjoyable time in games, a hunt for hidden Easter eggs being among the pastimes. Prizes were awarded those finding the most eggs in a given time, and a delightful time was spent by all present.

Mrs. W. W. Rivers entertained delightfully yesterday in honor of Mrs. E. N. Hess of Ogden.

A pretty luncheon was given by Mrs. Tuttle and Mrs. Langley yesterday. The rooms were bright with spring

WILL THEY WED?

Considerable interest is manifested all over the country as to the truth of the report that Senator William P. Frye will marry the widow of the late Garret A. Hobart, who was vice president of the United States. Senator Frye is president of the United States senate.

entertained at dinner on Monday evening in honor of Miss Ethel Ferguson of the "Our New Minister" company. The table was prettily decorated with violets and plumosa, and covers were laid for six. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Brattain entertained at another dinner for Miss Ferguson, the colors being pink and green. Covers were laid for eight. A pretty luncheon was also given for Miss Ferguson by Mrs. Brattain on Tuesday.

Col. Bubb of the fort entertained at dinner informally on Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerman flowers and greens and the table decorations were most artistic.

One of the most enjoyable of recent events was the house-warming of Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Oblad at their new home on Lake street last Saturday evening. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Oblad, assisted by Mrs. John Arnu. The evening was pleasantly spent at cards and various other games. A delightful supper was served at 11 p. m. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hockings, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F.

Langenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carney, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brain, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hessler, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oblad, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Shoner, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Oblad, Misses E. L. Pascoe, Lizzie Oblad, Meara, W. C. Shoun, Arthur Barber, Alex Oblad and Otto Oblad.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyd entertained at dinner this evening, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Bransford and Harold Lamb. The table decorations will be in green and white.

Mrs. Rodney T. Badger and Mrs. Jesse Badger gave a china shower party this afternoon at the home of the former in honor of Miss Lucile Badger, whose marriage takes place next Wednesday. The rooms were decorated in violets and about 20 guests enjoyed the afternoon.

Mr. Roy Daynes gave a dinner at the Commercial club on Tuesday night in honor of Miss Lucile Taylor and Mr. R. B. Romney, whose wedding took place this week.

Miss Margie Ellerbeck entertained at a cup and saucer shower party on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Taylor, a delightful time being spent by those present.

Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle gave an informal luncheon yesterday in her new home.

The sophomore class of the university gave a pleasant dancing party in the museum last night.

Miss Mamie Sharp entertained the members of the Card club at her home on Thursday night.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee will entertain the Card club at its next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Midgley gave a party for the children of the family on Thursday in honor of their golden wedding anniversary which was attained the day previous.

Miss Beatrice Wilkinson was hostess at a delightful Kensington on Monday, a "buttonhole contest" being an enjoyable feature of the afternoon. Each guest had to mark on her work the price she would be willing to pay for it, and was given poker chips to the value marked, which afterward went to pay for the refreshments which were served. The idea was unique and was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Alfred N. Cherry entertained the Third street card club this week.

Miss Goddard was the guest of Mrs. Victor Huntzicker this week.

Mrs. Wilhart pleasantly entertained the members of the McKean Woman's Relief club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Patterson entertained the Maxwell Relief corps at her home this week.

Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson entertained at an informal musicale at her home on Monday night.

W. W. Walton of Kansas City gave an elaborate dinner at the Kenyon on Wednesday evening, the private dining room being used. The table was effectively decorated with carnations and plumosa, and the following guests enjoyed the affair: Messrs. M. W. V. Williams, H. B. McNair, D. B. Mudgett, J. A. Cederland, W. W. Cluff, Jr., Joseph Hyde, L. D. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton entertained Miss Nance O'Neil at dinner at their home last night, previous to the performance of "The Jewess."

A "Hard Times" social will be given next Wednesday night at the hall formerly occupied by Kennedy's Tavern, by the young ladies of the Unitarian church. There will be old fashioned games, and a genuine good time is assured.

Mrs. George Taysum entertained at a delightful luncheon in honor of Miss Ethel Ferguson on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cannon gave a "German evening" at their home in Forest Dale on Tuesday, in honor of returned German missionaries, the time being enjoyably spent with music recitations and games, a number of German songs and recitations being among the entertaining features. Miss Cluff of Provo and Miss Rogers were among those who took part in the musical program and about 50 guests were present to enjoy the pleasant affair.

An interesting event of the week was the marriage of Miss Lucile Taylor and Mr. Richard B. Romney, which took place on Thursday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple, and wedding breakfast being served afterward at the home of the bride. The table was prettily decorated, and a few relatives and intimate friends were present, the bride couple leaving at noon for a trip to Los Angeles. The bride wore a becoming costume of gray broad cloth with hat to match. She is the daughter of Mrs. Julia Clark Taylor and a grand daughter of ex-mayor John Clark. The groom is a son of Bishop Romney and an employee of the Deseret National bank. Both are popular members of the young circle to which they belong and will receive the good wishes of their many friends.

Miss Laura Christensen of Gunnison and Mr. David S. McClure of this city were married on Thursday, the ceremony being performed at the home of Willis N. Boothe, by Bishop O. F. Whitney. The wedding was a quiet one, only the intimate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. McClure will be at home until April 20, at 421 South West Temple street, after which they will go to the coast to make their home.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Shores and Mr. Guy Eldredge took place on Wednesday at the bride's home in Ashland, Wis. Mr. Eldredge has many friends in Salt Lake who will extend congratulations.

Miss Mamie Pyper of Nephi and Mr. Arthur Jenkins of this city were married in the Temple on Wednesday.

A wedding that will be of interest to many Salt Lake residents was that of Miss Victoria Lloyd of Ogden and Mr. Will Harvey of this city, which took place recently in Ogden.

The wedding of Miss Florence Roundy and Mr. Will Clark will take place next Wednesday.

Another interesting nuptial event set for next Wednesday is the marriage of Miss Lucile Badger and Mr. Samuel Taylor, which will be solemnized in the Temple.

The marriage of Miss Mae Barrell and Arthur Price will also take place on Wednesday.

Miss Bertha Carter and Mr. T. G. Griffin will be married on Thursday, April 30.

The engagement of Miss Betta Earl of this city and Mr. Ray W. Soper of Provo is announced, the wedding to take place in the near future.

COMING AND GOING

Dr. and Mrs. Broadbent arrived from New York Saturday where the doctor has taken a post graduate course in dentistry.

Mrs. F. L. Parker leaves on Monday for an extended stay in New York City. Her Wednesdays at home will be discontinued until September.

Mr. C. P. Overfield has returned from a trip of some weeks to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Mont Perry will leave tomorrow for Kansas City, where they go to attend the wedding of Mr. Perry's brother, Mr. Sanford, J. Truman, and Miss Caroline Leidigh, which takes place April 22.

Mrs. George Snow, who has spent the winter in the east, will return as soon as Miss Luvera's school is closed and spend the summer in the city. Miss Snow is in the Misses Ely's school in Washington.

Col. Nicholas Treweek left Wednesday for a visit of some time in California, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Louise Treweek.

Three-quarter coat of lightweight black cloth, lined with white silk, faced with Cluny lace. Large hat of shirred black lace trimmed with black plum and white gardenias.

Gov. and Mrs. Wells will leave the latter part of April to attend the dedication of the St. Louis world's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry left Wednesday for a month's visit on the coast.

On their return they will move into their new home on Fifth East and Brigham streets.

Miss Mildred M. Tibbals is spending her spring vacation as the guest of

SPRING IS HERE AND YOU'RE THINKING

Of Improvements to the Home you've promised yourself. Wondering how much of a money outlay will be required to make the home have that air of newness so refreshing? Yes, we know your thoughts—ought to by this time; has been our life study—that accounts for all this grand display of Spring Elegance now on exhibition at the NEW STORE. More than this, it accounts for the very low prices attached to the NEW FURNITURE, RUGS, LACE CURTAINS, PORTIERES, PICTURES, Etc., because we knew you were considering the cost, and just waiting to see how much more we could save you than any one else. Be prepared for pleasing surprises on your next visit, and come soon, for Spring is here.

DINING ROOM FURNITURE is complete in every detail, chairs, sideboards, buffets, tables and china closets, in Golden and Weathered Oak.	RUGS! RUGS! We are just opening this new line, and are showing them in Axminsters, Wiltons, and Tapestries. We also show a line of Wilton Cut Carpet Samples.	LACE CURTAINS AND PORTIERES. We have just added these to our stock, and consequently we have the newest ideas, and designs. We are always pleased to show them.	IRON BEDS AND BRASS BEDS. Here is where we defy competition. Our Iron Beds are in every color, and our Brass Beds are in the new finish, and the brass is of double thickness.	OFFICE DESKS AND TABLES. We just received a car of this line, getting the lowest freight rate. We have all styles of desks, both roll and flat tops. Look at our prices.	BOOKCASES AND COMBINATION CASES for the Library and Lounging room in all woods, also LADIES DESKS in every wood and design. Look these over to see artistic effects.	PARLOR FURNITURE. This is always the room of the house, you want to look pretty and cosy, and that is why we ask you to look over our line, and we will surprise you with our selection.
COUCHES, DAVENPORTS AND MORRIS CHAIRS is a line we are proud of, and are so comfortable that it is a pleasure to use them.	DRESSING TABLES. We cannot say too much in praise of this line. We show 40 styles in Golden Oak Mahogany and Bird's Eye Maple. See our combination Cheval Glass and Dressing Table.	CENTER TABLES. These are shown on our balcony and it is filled to its utmost capacity with the daintiest, and most artistic line ever shown. We have them in all woods, as well as the Library Tables.	CHAIRS AND ROCKERS. We have just unloaded an entire car of these, comprising the best part of four of the largest eastern factories. We have the pick, and show them in numberless designs and all finishes.	THE ART ROOM. Here is displayed the largest collection of antique and modern reproduction in furniture ever shown here. Can show you styles of every period. Visit this department. It is a pleasure for us to show it.	LEATHER COUCHES AND CHAIRS. Just think how comfortable these make you feel, and you will readily understand why we carry such a large line.	FURNITURE MADE TO ORDER AND REPAIRING. We are making a specialty of this department, if you cannot find what you want call on us, and we will design and make it. Ask to see the Mission Dining Room Set we just made for one of our customers.
DRESSERS! DRESSERS! In Golden Oak, Mahogany, Birch and Bird's Eye Maple. In many styles and at all prices. See our Colonial Set in Waxed Mahogany, with glass knobs.	PICTURES. We have just received a new line of these, and we can astonish you with prices. You will wonder how we sell them so cheap. It is a special with us.	PARLOR CABINETS in Gold Leaf, Vernis Martin and Mahogany, in styles and designs to suit everybody. Our line of Tabourettes is very artistic.

H. A. LEIPSIGER,
President.

C. S. SCHMIDT,
Vice President.

J. A. GREENEWALD,
Secretary.

FRED. STROUSE,
Treasurer.

You can spend an entire day here, pleasantly and profitably, and be entirely welcome.

THE GREENEWALD FURNITURE COMPANY

TEL. 462 P.O. BOX 1201

25-27-29 West Third South Street.

We are now only occupying temporary quarters. Our new building is now being built. Three stories high and basement 65 feet by 140 feet. We will occupy the entire building.