Decided to Take a Stand Against More Asphalt Pav-

AND PRESENT SEWER SYSTEM

Committee Appointed to Visit Schools And Interest Children in Movement to Beautify the City.

The board of governors of the Civic Improvement league met last night, and decided to take a stand against any more asphalt paving, prefering macadam instead, as it is claimed that the asphalt is less durable and costs more than the macadam. The league will also make a fight against the present city sewer system, and urge the next Legislature to reconstruct the ordinances governing the matter.

A committee will wait upon the mayor to recommend that he issue an Arbor Day proclamation and make of f a civic house cleaning day. A comnunication was read from C. F. Orlob suggesting that Salt Lake could be beautified by abating the nuisance of sewerage, garbage cans, dandellons and dirty streets; and it was resolved to ask the council to have East Temple street swept and washed every night.

weept and washed every night.

Mrs. Riter, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs.

Freund were appointed a committee to visit the schools and interest the children in cleanliness and civic help.

A membership list will be sent to each member of the league, and members will be urged to return these with 12 candidates for membership attached. 12 candidates for membership attached.
Membership boxes have already been installed in Keith-O'Brien, Smith's drug store and the Z. C. M. I. The league will park and improve Sixth East street from South Temple street to Liberty park as an experiment. The city will be asked by the street improvement committee to sprinkle along Sixth East street. School children who are members of the league will be organized later. The next meeting of the board of governors will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night.

THE MISSING HART.

Young Man Anxiously Looked for by R. C. French of Y. M. C. A.

R. C. French, of the Y. M. C. A. has been made the victim of a smooth grafter, in the guise of a Christian young man, in the person of one Edward H. Hart. The latter succeeded in ingratiating himself into the favor of Mr. French, who befriended him to the extent of providing a place of bed and board and also of getting a remunerative position for the ingrate. Hart, on recommendation of Mr. French, secured employment with the Bell Telephone company, in the auditing department. He soon began the telling of a tale of woe to his fellow employes, and as his tongue was smooth and his story plausible, he succeeded in obtaining from his newsucceeded in obtaining from his new-ly found friends various sums of mon-ey as loans, to enable him to visit a dying father, etc. Credit was obtained at various business houses, the use of Mr. French's name enabling him to get what he asked for. Now the heartless Hart is missing, and the eyes heartless Hart is missing, and the eyes of people hereabouts may behold him "no more for ever at all." The board and room bill at the home of Mr. French, where Hart was treated with every kindness, remains unpaid, as does also the rental of the quarters at the Y. M. C. A., occupted by him when he was obliged "to be out late," as frequently hypersed owing to the as frequently happened, owing to the fact, as he stated, that he was court ing a young lady. then, $8,825.

The board awarded the contract for breaking down rock on the Pascoe property near the Warm Springs to the Western Lime & Stone company, at 10 cents per ton, or 15 cents per cubic yard. The rock will be used in macadamizing the streets of the city.

Daniel Dunne, Frank Weyman, Thomas Hardy, Edward Martin, George Nevin, John Ford, John Axton and H. M. Sleater were placed on the list of available men for jobs as inspectors of public works during the coming season.

A new rule was adopted by the board for future use, which requires all plumbers and other contractors, who do any excavating in the streets of the city to secure a permit, and give a bond for the restoration of the street to its usual condition before they will be allowed to commence work.

The new clerk of the board, F. R. Christensen, was in attendance at the meeting, and performed the duties of his office. He took charge of the office vesterday.
