FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Lucern is selling at eight dollars a ton.

Last night was one of the most stifingly warm of the season.

The Firemen's excursion to Cache comes off on the 22nd. Don't you forget it.

There will be a meeting of the Firemen's Mutual Aid Association to-morrow evening at half-past 7.
J. H. KELSON, Secretary.

Mrs. Sarah M. Kimball is now at Newark, Wayne County, New York. Any of her friends desiring to communicate with her can direct to that place.

Arrangements have been completed for Rev. Henry Ward Beecher to deliver a lecture at the the Salt Lake Theatre. September 11th is the date decided upon.

The services over the remains of the little twin girl of Brother Mark and Sister Caroline Y. Croxall took place yesterday afternoon, conducted by Bishop O. F. Whitney.

The Tenth Ward Brass Band are making arrangements for a three days' excursion to Nephi, to take place on Wednesday, Sept. 5th. The fare will be $3 for the round trip.

There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph Office for C. E. Perry, W. H. Tatene, Pratt and Perry, F. W. Lincoln, L. D. Kirsteed and Thomas Shoemaker.

Brother Scott Anderson, the expert sign, show-card and ticket writer, has removed from his old stand on Commercial street to a more eligible location in the basement of the Deseret National Bank building. Specimens of his artistic handiwork can now be seen in various leading establishments of the city.

This morning C. B. Donkin slipped this note into our hand:

"We were born between sunrise and sunset on the 9th and 10th of August, 18[illegible].
C. B. and E. R. DONKIN."

This means that the veteran couple are seventy years old on those respective dates.

On Sunday last Dr. Ormsby had a case of surgery in his own family to attend to. His little son Oliver, aged about 10 years, while playing around the sheds in the rear of the U. O. store on Main street, fell to the ground from a height of 8 or 10 feet, breaking both bones of his left forearm just above the wrist. The fracture was a bad one, but under the skilful treatment of his father the boy is doing well.—Utah (Logan) Journal.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Mission.—Home Missionaries will visit the Wards of this city next Sunday evening, August 12th, and the country Wards of the Stake on the Sunday following, and will in future visit the several Wards once in two weeks, until further notice.

By instructions of the Presidency of the Stake.
WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Visit to Kirtland.—Private letters from Mrs. Belle Sears and Miss Louie Wells state that they were lately at Kirtland, Ohio. The first named lady visited her father's brother and his wife, and the old homestead of her father, and both took much interest in viewing many points of interest. They passed through the Kirtland Temple.

Effective.—Bowel complaints are quite prevalent. What is known as the "Sun Cholera Mixture" is a most effective remedy in such cases. This fact has been demonstrated in numerous instances. The receipt was published in the NEWS a short time since. It is a handy article to have in the house in the heated term.

Case of Sunstroke.—A week ago yesterday Brother Jabez Taylor, of the 11th Ward, while at work at his trade as carpenter, on the roof of a house, was suddenly prostrated with sunstroke. He was quite ill for several days, and is only now beginning to slowly get around, looking the shadow of his former self.

Notwithstanding the oppressive heat of the season, cases of this kind have been very few.

Street Fracas.—This morning a fracas occurred between W. B. Sullivan and a man who runs an express wagonette, named Sprague. High words passed between the parties, Sullivan responding to a vile epithet applied to him by a shoulder stroke on Sprague's corpus. To this assault the latter retorted by biting nearly through one of Sullivan's fingers and an unsuccessful attempt to gouge his eyes out. Both landed in limbo.

Releases and Appointment.—Elder J. A. Sutton, of the Nottingham Conference, is released from his missionary labors in this land, to return to Utah in charge of the small company of Saints from Iceland, which sailed July 14th, 1883.

Prest. Hyrum H. Evans, of the Sheffield Conference, is released to return home with the August 29th company.

Elder Wm. H. Wright is released from his labors in the London Conference, and appointed to succeed Elder Evans in the Presidency of the Sheffield Conference.—Mill. Star.

Gratuitous Concerts.—People in various parts of this city are regaled nightly with gratuitous concerts. This has special reference to localities densely populated with canines. In the silent hours perhaps some vigilant animal hears the foot-fall of a solitary pedestrian, and sets up a hideous howl. Instantly from four to fifteen others take up the refrain, which is kept up with varying vigor for an hour at a stretch. The delight of the light sleepers of the neighborhood may be imagined when they are suddenly awakened to be left to ineffectually court sweet slumber long after the last sounds of the concert have died away on the wings of the midnight breeze, and when Morpheus does come to his rescue he is probably haunted with visions of hordes of dogs hunted by merciless and enterprising sausage makers.

THE CHURCH IN NEW ZEALAND.

SOME INTERESTING DETAILS OF MISSIONARY WORK.

This morning we were pleased to meet Elder Wm. M. Bromley, of Springville, just arrived from New Zealand, where he has been on a mission. He left here on the 12th of December, 1830, and labored entirely on the New Zealand Islands, being President of that mission.

When he arrived in his appointed field there were but three branches of the Church in all, and now there are ten composed of white people and one of natives, or Maories. During the time of his stay on the Islands the work opened among the native population last winter, eighty of them being baptized. Besides these 180 white people were added to the Church.

As a rule the white population are bitterly opposed to the Gospel, and the genius of the colonial government is against it. The principal reason for this is that the authorities of the Islands encourage immigration, while the spread of the Gospel, as taught by the Elders, among the people has an opposite tendency. With about two exceptions the newspapers have denounced the Elders and been very virulent in their attacks upon them. The most notable departure from this rule is the Auckland Herald, which, in alluding at any time to the "Mormons" has invariably exhibited a spirit of fairness.

Perhaps the character of the powers that be on the Islands may be partially judged by the fact that although the population is only 500,000, in all, including 45,000 natives, the colonial debt, exclusive of several millions owed by the several internal incorporations, reaches the enormous sum of £31,000,000 or $155,000,000.

During Elder Bromley's ministry he had two tracts explanatory of the doctrines of the Gospel translated into the Maor language, and 2,000 of each printed for distribution among the natives, the Saints furnishing the necessary funds for the purpose.

The opening of the door of the Gospel to the Maories is very interesting. It was effected a day or two before last Christmas, and has been partially related in a communication to the NEWS. Brother Bromley, with two other brethren, were with a number of natives, explaining the Gospel to them by means of two Bibles, one in the Maori and the other in the English language. Passages were selected by Brother Bromley in the English edition and the natives found the same in theirs and read them, and a very favorable impression was made. His feeling was deepened by the fact that a daughter of the chief was sick, and through the prayer of faith offered by the brethren, recovered. When the Elders called the following day the chief related a dream he had some time previous, when he beheld certain personages, one of whom was dressed in a white robe and appeared to have no colored clothing on his person. He also described the appearance of his countenance. One of the other personages and an influence that rested upon him signified that the visitant was the Apostle Peter, who was exercising an influence among men for their salvation. He said he was impelled to recognize the visit of the three Elders as having a connection with this manifestation. He declared that he believed their message and was ready to be baptized. Accordingly the chief, his wife and her brother were baptized the same evening in the Waikato River. From this nucleus the work spread until the number already named were added, with a fine prospect of many more coming in at the Gospel door. The King has publicly expressed his belief in the Gospel, and many are inquiring.

Elder W. T. Stewart, of Kanab, who succeeds Elder Bromley in the presidency, and Elders J. C. Steward Charles Heyborn, are at present located among the Maories, learning their language and laboring with commendable energy to bring them to a knowledge of the truth.

Brother Bromley speaks in terms of commendation of the diligence and faithfulness of his co-laborers in the ministry, and of the kindness and hospitality of the New Zealand Saints towards himself and the brethren.

The Canyon Cure.—The saying, "a prophet hath honor save in his own country," appears to apply, in principle, to places as well as individuals. During the heated term people to whom vacation privileges are accorded, keep casting about for localities in which to spend the relaxation days or weeks, and generally select some spot a considerable distance away, while comparative paradises at their doors are unobserved and unused. There, for instance, is our City Creek, which thousands probably of our citizens have never explored. True the fishing and hunting facilities are not over inviting, but it has the general advantages of trees, shrubbery, umbrageous and cool mountain recesses, a clear murmuring brook, cool and limpid springs of living water, while bracing breezes float through the fastness in the hottest weather.

The other week a friend of ours, finding that his family were getting languid and lifeless, with appetites that could not be coaxed into animation, got a tent and moved them a few miles up City Creek. Camp life in that inviting retreat did more good in a few hours than a thousand doctors' prescriptions would in a year. The demand for food soon caused the question of supply to be an interesting one, and the campers were infused with fresh life and vigor. Those who can as well as not should try a dose or two of canyon medicine.

This afternoon we received a fraternal call from Matt. Parrott, Esq., of the Iowa State Reporter, published at Waterloo, Iowa. The gentleman is on his way to San Francisco, and will call at Salt Lake on his return trip, when he anticipates having more time to devote to taking notes.

A Window Smasher.—Last night a man named Crist was arrested for breaking a couple of windows of an observation car of the Utah & Nevada railroad and deporting himself in a semi-barbarous and boisterous manner. On his agreeing to pay costs the complaining parties withdrew the charge.

Zion's Benefit Building Society.—The regular monthly meeting of Zion's Benefit Building Society was held last evening. Eight applications for loans were passed upon by the Board of Directors, and the money will be placed in the hands of the applicants as soon as the examination of titles is completed—providing it results satisfactorily—and the necessary papers are perfected.

Stockholders should keep the fact in mind that unless their monthly dues are paid on the second Wednesday of each month, they will be subject to the fines specified and provided in the bye-laws. Those prevented from attending the meetings can settle their dues with the Secretary, A. Parsons, at Z. C. M. I. or the assistant-secretary, W. J. Bateman, at the U. C. R. R. office, Deseret National Bank Block.

Needs Attention.—A large number of people do not seem to know it, but it is a fact that the following is a section of an ordinance in relation to the control and distribution of water flowing into this city:

"No person shall convey water from a public ditch to his lot or premises by an irrigation ditch, without first having constructed, under the direction of the city watermaster, a substantial gate, both in the public ditch, and at the head of his branch ditch; the latter he shall keep closed and water-tight, except during the period allotted to him for the use of such water. And where such branch ditch crosses any portion of a sidewalk, the same shall be made of lumber or other substantial material, the covering of which shall be on a level with such sidewalk."

The way in which this very necessary provision is ignored is a great annoyance to pedestrians in various parts of the town for whom the sidewalks are in places made nearly impassible by open ditches running across them. Last night, in the lower part of the city a gentleman caught his foot against one of the projecting flumes and he took an involuntary dive groundward, injuring his knee by the fall. Some of the assistant watermasters appear to be lax in their duties in this respect.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

"NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS."

The success of the John W. Lowell Wagon Co. in making sales of the J. I. Case Agitator Thresher has been most remarkable. Their traveling agent, Mr. E. A. Kesler leaves for Nephi to day, for the purpose of making a delivery of Eleven of these famous Machines, destined for Sanpete and Sevier Counties.

From all parts of Utah, Nevada, Idaho and Montana, orders are being daily received for the Agitator. Although the sales for 1883 were unprecedentedly large, the sales for 1884 thus far show an increase of over thirty per cent, and from present indications an increased sale of fifty per cent. can be looked for ere the season closes. No other thresher ever introduced in the Territories has attained such a wonderful popularity as the J. I. Case Agitator.

DIRECT FROM THE HARVEST FIELD!

Read What the Farmers of Utah Say of the

Osborne No. 11 Twine Binder

SANDY, Utah, July 31st, 1883.

Messrs. D. M. Osborne & Co.,

Gentlemen:—Last year I bought a Marsh-Whitney Low Down Binder and fooled away the entire season trying to harvest my crop. This year the agent gave me their improved Binder, but like the first, it was a failure and I, together with all my neighboring farmers have become disgusted with the kind of work it does.

Knowing that the Osborne No. 11 Twine Binder was running all around me and doing good work, I went to town yesterday and purchased one. To-day it was set in motion and after thoroughly testing it in short and tall grain alike, I feel like recommending the Osborne to the farmers of Utah, as a machine that will give entire satisfaction.
J. HARDCASTLE.

Mr. Hardcastle is my neighbor, and after witnessing the working of both Binders above referred to, I heartily endorse all he has said.
JAMES C. BROWN.

WALES, Utah, August 1st, 1883.

We, the undersigned, farmers of Sanpete County, this day witnessed the cutting and binding of an Osborne No. 11 Twine Binder, and hereby certify that it did excellent work—the best we ever saw.

We would confidently recommend it to any farmer wishing a Binder and say, buy no other.

D. M. Osborne & Co., Salt Lake City,

Gentlemen:—My No. 11 Osborne Twine Binder was started to-day, and it gives me pleasure to state that it works to my entire satisfaction. Consider it the best Binder in market. Yours truly
WM. C. CLARK.

KAY'S CREEK, Utah, July 7th, 1883.

We, the undersigned, farmers of Kaysville, Davis County, Utah, present at an exhibition of the Osborne No. 11 Twine Binder, on the farm of Thomas Sandall, jr., Esq., of this place, do hereby certify that the machine exceeded our expectations in every respect, binding a good sized bundle, trim and tight; we consider it a grain and labor-saving machine, in short it works to perfection and we recommend it to our farmer friends. Gentlemen:—My Osborne No. 11 was started to-day, and I wish to say that I can heartily recommend it to my farmer friends. It is light draft, easily managed, and its binding is perfectly tight and uniform.
Yours truly, O. H. WARNER.

NEPHI, Utah, July 18th, 1883.

D. M. Osborne & Co., Salt Lake City,

Gents:—To-day my Binder was started, and its perfect work pleases us very much. We consider the Osborne the only machine that is a perfect success in all conditions of grain. We can recommend it as the "Boss" Binder. Yours truly,
