LOCAL BRIEFS.

Captain Uman of the cavalry troop has returned from San Francisco, and is again in active command.

Miss Ella Kelsey of the Utah school is recovering from an operation for appendicitis at St. Mark's hospital.

Cabled electric light wires are being run into the Constitution building through a new and heavy mast now being erected.

Judge Charles Baldwin, referee in bankruptcy, is reported as being ill at his home, 129 Twelfth East street, with typhoid fever.

Annie, the wife of Daniel Wegeland, the artist, died yesterday after a several months' illness. She leaves four children living, six having died in childhood.

Harry Leroy has suddenly sought another crime, forfeiting $75 bail, and a bench warrant is out for his apprehension. He was charged by Miss Esther Larsen with a serious offense.

Judge Stewart will, on Saturday, April 23, make a re-setting of jury cases for trial in his division of the district court during the April term. The trials will begin on May 9 and continue until June 10.

M. M. Murtaugh of the Twin Falls Land & Water company, has been in town for a day or two, returning to Idaho tonight. He reports work on the Snake river dam as progressing night and day.

Rev. W. B. Burton, pastor of the Second Methodist church, leaves with his family this week, for Polson, Cal., where he has accepted a call. Mr. Burton has been in Utah 18 months, his first charge here being Bingham.

Oscar E. Lawrence has filed a foreclosure suit in the district court against Hannah A. Youngberg to recover $431.35 alleged to be the balance due on a promissory note for $500 executed by herself and husband who is now deceased.

A. R. Couzens of the Rock Springs firm of Cosgriff & Couzens, is in the city for a few days. He says the range in his part of the state are in excellent condition, and that the livestock have pulled through the winter in good shape.

Veterinary LeMay of Fort Douglas has returned from Green River, where he went to investigate the mysterious death of numerous horses down there. He found the trouble to be meningitis, though where it originated is at present to be ascertained.

Two new cases of small pox were placed under quarantine yesterday by the city health officials. They are: Edwin Glenn, aged 21 years, residing at 648 South First West; Pearl Cardall, aged 5 years, 7 Simonsi avenue. There are three other cases in the Cardall family.

The Salt Lake Co. Horticultural society will hold a meeting in the city and county building at 1 p. m. next Saturday, April 23. A lecture will then be given by Prof. Ball from the state agricultural college in Logan, his subject being, "The Codling Moth." All fruit growers are invited to attend.

Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Johanna Hansen against Peter Hansen on the grounds of desertion and failure to support. The parties were married in Denmark in 1896, and it is alleged that defendant deserted plaintiff in 1899 and has ever since failed and neglected to support her.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Gustave Teudt will regret to learn of the death of their little daughter, Ruby, which occurred at the Holy Cross hospital Tuesday night, of spinal meningitis, aged five months. The funeral was held at the family residence, 61 Apple street, today, Thursday, at 3 p. m.

Mayor Morris yesterday prepared a communication for the city council notifying that body that he had pardoned six prisoners in the city jail during the past month and asking the council to approve of his action. The prisoners pardoned are Tom King, Allen Miller, Louise Davis, Jennie Steele, Fred Tauscher and Rose Johnson.

The following federal offenders have been ordered to appear before Judge Marshall on Saturday, April 30, for arraignment: Jed Grant and Rue M. Smith, passing counterfeit money; James Peterson and A. J. Thompson, selling liquor to Indians; A. B. Douglas, stealing letters from U. S. mail; Francis Parrott and James Edgar, postoffice burglary.

A copy of the articles of incorporation of the Utah Selling & Storage company of Ogden has been filed in the secretary of state's office. The capital stock of the company is $20,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each. William Craig is president; William Van Allen, vice-president; R. Stringham, secretary; W. J. Parker, treasurer.

Rev. L. D. Lamkin, the evangelist, concluded last night his series of meetings at the First Baptist church, and begins a 10 days' series tonight at the East Side Baptist church. The first church was filled last night, notwithstanding the storm, and eight converts were baptized by the pastor, Rev. D. A. Brown, after which Dr. Lamkin preached on "The Magic Name of Jesus."

Quite a number of Idaho school teachers will attend the normal summer institute in this city, the coming summer, at least 100 being promised in a letter to Prof. William Stewart from the Idaho state superintendent. Moreover, letters from Nevada, Colorado, Wyoming, Arizona and Montana promise an attendance from those states; and the attendance from all over Utah will be very general.

Richard Kletting, the well known architect of this city, has gone to Europe where he will spend the summer. Prior to sailing from New York the gentleman will visit the larger cities of the east and on reaching the old world will spend most of his time in touring France, Germany and Italy, where he will enjoy himself and incidentally get a glimpse of the latest European architecture.

The Mt. Olivet cemetery management has made it a rule that hereafter monuments and head stones must rest on foundations of sufficient depth to ensure stability. This will prevent any more "leaning tower of Pisa" establishments. The foundations of one monument were put in so shallow some time ago, that when a grave was afterwards dug beside it, the monument tumbled over into the grave.

Internal Revenue Collector E. H. Calhoun has returned from Spring Valley in western Wyoming, where he has been looking after his sheep interests. He says that the sheep in that country wintered better last winter than for a number of years; that the losses were lighter and the stock came out in better condition than for some time. The oil industry in that section is also on the boom, he said, and derricks are in evidence everywhere. In several of the wells oil has been struck but the quantity of the flow is not known.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The wedding of Miss Laura Bird and Frederick Sinclair last night was among the prettiest home weddings of the year. The house throughout was beautifully decorated with flowers, lilies, carnations and roses being used with palms and vines in charming effect. The ceremony was performed at 7:30. Father Kelley of the Catholic church, officiating in the service conducted to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Fannie Bird, and the groom by Mr. Lawrence Hammel. The bride's costume was an exquisite creation of white chiffon over tulle with a bertha of real lace, a long veil of tulle and bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was prettily gowned in blue silk with bertha of real lace. Assisting in receiving were the bridesmaids of the bride couple and Mrs. William Gray, Misses Sinclair, Odell and Horlick. Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair will be at home after June 1, at 25 Fourth East street.

A meeting of the board of directors of the State Federation of Women was held yesterday and affairs pertaining to the coming biennial at St. Louis were discussed. It is hoped to form a party of not less than 50 Utah women to attend, as rates will be given in proportion to the number going. Mrs. D. E. Hemphill and Mrs. Sam King of Provo, who were elected delegates to the convention, resigned, and two alternates were elected—Mrs. Beckwith and Miss Alice Reynolds of Provo.

Mrs. Martha Royle King has issued invitations to a studio recital at room 255 Commercial club building on Monday, April 25. Mrs. King and Miss Oliver will render the program, which promises a delightful evening to their friends.

Tonight the College Women's club and the A. F. Fraternity entertain at the University in honor of the Colorado debating team.

Mrs. H. D. Niles entertained at a pretty appointed luncheon at the Alta club today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grant entertained at dinner at the University club last night in honor of Miss Julia Wright of Ogden, who is their guest.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet tomorrow at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson.

EDESON'S ERROR.

According to Robert Edeson, there is such a thing as being too chivalrous, particularly in Colorado Springs. Not many years ago Mr. Edeson was walking along Tejon avenue in that city when as he passed a house set back from the road some distance he caught sight of a woman on a porch—a very attractive woman—who was waving her hands as if in distress.

Mr. Edeson, ever ready to aid the weak and unprotected, vaulted the fence and started toward her. "What's up?" he cried.

"Help," said the woman. "There's a man in the house. He won't leave it. 'Well, we'll see about that,' returned the matinee idol, peeling off his coat and hurrying up the steps and through the door.

"Here, you!" he shouted as he discovered a dusty, bewildered gentleman reclining defiantly on a sofa, "get out of here!" Seizing the man, who showed a mild disposition to resist, he started to pull him toward the door.

The performance did not run as smoothly as it sometimes does behind the footlights, however, and it was only after breaking considerable furniture, losing a good part of his wardrobe and suffering some few inconveniences of vision that Mr. Edeson, pretty well winded, but ready for more, landed the struggling intruder in the center of the front yard flower bed. "Now, get you, tramp," cried the actor, assuming a more threatening attitude, "or you'll get more!"

The man arose to a sitting position and, after arranging his neckband as if to be certain his neck was there and blinking his eyes in a bewildered fashion, exclaimed huskily: "Who you calling a tramp, you single faced kyofo? That woman there is my wife!"

TO SUPPRESS HOODLUMISM.

City School Principals Adopt Pointed Resolutions at a Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

PARENTS LARGELY TO BLAME.

Favor an Amendment to School Law Enforcing Attendance Under Fourteen Years of Age.

The teachers of the city schools are determined that hoodlumism must stop and to this end have adopted the following resolutions, which were read and approved at a meeting of the school principals, held yesterday afternoon: Whereas, A large number of boys have been arrested recently for burglary; therefore, Be it resolved by the principals of the Salt Lake City public schools:

That the parents of these boys have not done their full duty in seeing to it that the boys attend school regularly, and are kept off the streets at night.

That when a trial of the usual measures fails to accomplish the needed reform, such boys, without exception, should be sent to the State Industrial school (where the care and comforts are superior to those of many of their homes) before they are confirmed criminals and a menace to their companions.

A rigidly enforced law will find fewer subjects upon which it may operate. That boys under fourteen years of age should not be employed as messengers, especially in the night service.

That no boy should be allowed to loiter or spend his time needlessly in the slum or in the strictly business part of the city. That news boys should be amenable to this rule.

That the school law should be so amended as to require all children under fourteen years of age to attend school regularly during the full school year, except as excused by proper authority for necessary cause.

That the curfew ordinance, and all laws for the protection of minors, should be enforced rigidly.

That a law should be enacted making it a misdemeanor for a person to employ a child during school time, who has not acquired a certain reasonable educational advancement, as evidenced by a certificate given him by proper authority.

That we ask citizens generally to co-operate with the schools and assist the truant police in enforcing the law for compulsory attendance.
