A GAME OF FLOWERS AND TREES

A game full of fun, although it is old, is called "Flowers and Trees." As many as are present can play. The first one says, for instance: "My dirst is a public house, my second is a state to which all must come, my third is a command to de-part; my all is a flower." Answer, "In-di-go." Only a minute is given for guess-ing, and the one who guesses has a turn, A list of flowers and trees can be looked up before plying, unless one is familiar with a good many.
