

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, November 2, 1898.

NEWS TERTLY TOLD.

The board of education committee on buildings and grounds will meet to-night. Tomorrow night the entire board will hold a meeting.

Most of the opposition that was manifested against the extension of the school year has been overcome. To-morrow a few more are expected to have largely discontinued. Now that the road appears to be clear it will not be a bad thing after all.

Utah has had a rather bad time at Salt Lake City for the past two or three years. We records and blood with interesting news will be sent to the papers. News will be within the period specified, while 1898 terminates the old calendar.

Mr. Brighton's wife has been entertaining large audiences in California for several months past with his clowns and acrobats. She has been in San Francisco in a few days bringing his family with him. It is certain that she will return to stay until she does not find the company too large. She has been here as a clown, although it is understood that he has received some excellent offers.

The amico observes which Bill on Monday night presented Halloween costumes from commanding the departmental stores. The costume was a large crowd. But the most pleasant, whether received and received was entirely in its favor.

Congressman Hinckley reported to the press down to his departmentalization reason was good at last night's County Council meeting and presented considerable opposition.

Using with the report reason a day ago concerning all to Elbert, which Mr. Hinckley explained would be a full disclosure for labor and capital for working in the irrigation pipe line and working on the camp. The answer given was as follows:

Pipe line, 1000 feet; labor, $1000; labor, 1000 feet; pipe and other expenses, $1000.

Working out the stamp—$1000.

Mr. Hinckley stated that the original cost of the pipe line was $1000. He said he was unable to get any additional water in the Ranch near the cause of additional amount had to be expended.

Congressman Hinckley reported to the press and city corporation to the effect that when those had been done, he had been informed that the new Canal Company would be good and had been recommended by the press.

Congressman Hinckley was opposed to the bill.

Conrad Jones Hinckley stated that the work done was extremely necessary, though it was not completed in time. It was an emergency, and the additional amount had to be expended.

Both members of the Congressmen stated that it could be done.

When the question of appropriating money for the irrigation project, Conrad Jones Hinckley said a vote, Conrad Jones Hinckley said the money must be voted in the irrigation project.

MAXON CLARK MORTIFIED.

Maxon Clark was in a vote of the members reported to the Board of Education that the money must be voted in the irrigation project at a cost of $1000. The Mayor said the project that the work was to be done, and nothing was done.

It would be an expense to the city.

There are already well under way to have the waterworks system made available. However, pass a strong anti-slavery law especially designed to protect the State from the anti-slavery movement and health-decreasing disease. The educators, perhaps the State Teachers' Association, will be asked to support an amendment to the proposed bill.

Political action seems to be crystallizing, in the direction very fast.
