STATION O. J. ANTHONY, of the office, will deliver a lecture on the History of America in the Social Hall, on Monday night.

THE NATIONAL MILITARY COMPANY will give a benedictus to the men on duty at 8 p.m., in City Hall on Market street.

W. WILSON, the young man who was arrested yesterday for violating the state Sabbath, had a hearing before Justice of the Peace, and was remanded to his trial.

DEFECTIVE MATERIAL, W.H. GOWARD, returned last evening from Provo, where he had been for nearly a week. He was called as a witness in the prosecution in the H. C. Womack murder trial.

One of the large doors of the Tabernacle was now closed excepting two, one on the north and one on the south side. It is expected that the building will be open and completely heated at the service tomorrow.

CORRECTION: IRISHMAN passed the forty-seventh annual audience on the journey of life yesterday, and last night was entertained by his friends and well-wishers at the hands of his Comell colleagues and friends. Mr. Rosenthal has been a resident of Utah for twenty years, and has been a member of the Tabernacle throughout the Territory during that period.

"DR." FRANK G. MATTHEWS, of spiritualist renown, has been "nailed" at Denver. It will be remembered that he came from Salt Lake about two months ago, leaving many sorrowing friends behind. The press charged him with being a swindler, and he later obtained money from Mrs. Catherine M. Doyle by false pretenses. The lady claims that she had no knowledge of his name or address, but that Mr. Matthews with regard to it. On the 13th he managed to drop her $10. There were other charges against him of a like kind.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

W. L. D. DOLAN SAVED FROM A TERRIBLE DEATH AT THE TEMPLETON, LAST NIGHT.

The prompt action of Charles Dilley the Templeton elevator boy, saved the life of W. L. D. Dolan about 11 o'clock last night. A party of fifteen persons was on the elevator at the time. The capacity of the elevator is overtaxed with more than ten persons. When within a short distance of the second floor, it stopped an amount of the weight of its load. There was considerable difficulty in getting it started again and Mr. Dolan attempted to jump out of the opening between the platform and the floor. He did so, the elevator started and like back the boy who held the rope grasped the situation and reversed the power. The elevator stopped just as Mr. Dolan's hand came in contact with the floor, and he fell upon the floor head. He was immediately released and a physician was summoned who dressed the wound. Mr. Dolan declares that it was the most narrow escape he ever experienced, and that the boy had miraculously saved his life. This morning he rewarded the lad with a $10 gold piece.

THE WESTWATER KILLING.

The Jury Now Have the Case in Their Hands.

A special telegram to the News received from Provo at 3:30 p.m. says:

The jury in the A. E. Davis murder case was charged by Judge Blackton that they had not yet reached a verdict at 2:45 o'clock, when the foreman reported that the results of their deliberations were not favorable. The attorneys are predicting a "hung" jury.

Name Missionaries.

The regular monthly meeting of the home missionaries of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will convene in the Social Hall, Salt Lake City, on Wednesday, December 26th, at 7:30 p.m. A full attendance of the missionaries and their families is requested. If any of the members cannot attend the meeting they will please see that their excuse and report of labor, in writing, is sent to the President of the Stake, in time for said meeting.

JAMES D. STEPHENS,
Clerk of Stake.

UTAH POTATOES.

How the Takers of the Territory Struck the Members of the Fellowship Club at Chicago.

A great deal has been said by the Chicago papers regarding a sample of Utah potatoes sent to the city of the World's Fair recently by Governor Thomas. The following arrived today from the National Hotel Receipts capital itself:

One of the most brilliant and elaborate dinners ever given in Chicago took place at Knobly's on Thursday evening of last week. It was one of the most sumptuous affairs of the Fellowship Club, which is the leading dining club of the city. The menu provided was especially fine, and after the meal was cleared there were speeches, songs and recitations which consumed the
