D. B. FRANCIS of Missouri appointed Secretary of the Interior.

WASHINGTON RATHER SURPRISED.

He now claims he is a Centralist Democrat and a friend of the Administration.

EDWARD JAY, Mo., Aug. 24.—An announcement was made yesterday by President Cleveland that D. B. Francis of Missouri had been appointed Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. Francis will probably assume office on September 1st, as that is the date named in Secretary Hovey's resignation.

THE CHURCHMAN.

Mr. Lewis, Aug. 24.—Ex-Governor Joseph Cleveland Francis is nearly as good as new, having been born at Washington University, ten years ago, having moved to the City in 1870, he graduated, receiving the degree of A. B. His first employment was with a grain commission house, continuing until 1875, when he began to study law. In 1875, he became a member of the firm of Francis & Hovey. This partnership was dissolved, and as a result of the growth of his firm that same year he became president of the Indianapolis Bar Association. That same year was sent as delegate to the National Democratic convention of 1884. In April, 1885, he was elected Mayor of St. Louis, having been nominated as an independent by the People's party. He was re-elected in 1886 as governor of Missouri. At the expiration of his term in 1888 he resumed the active management of his firm, which had been suspended by the other members of the firm. When he left, he was the governor himself. His connection with politics since 1882 has been that of a statistician who was active in the welfare of his party and country. He is now engaged in the practice of law.

Mr. Francis is a leader in St. Louis society.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The announcement that the President has named Mr. Hovey as secretary of the interior rather surprised Washington, most of the members of the administration, however, being in agreement with the choice. The reasons for Secretary Hovey's selection were not disclosed to the press, but it was stated that he was chosen because he was well known in the West, and his political connections with the government him self. His connection with politics since 1882 has been that of a statistician who was active in the welfare of his party and country. He is now engaged in the practice of law.

Mr. Francis is a leader in St. Louis society.

THE WORK FOR SILENTS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Then A. J. Watson, president of the American Board of Commissioners of Education, announced yesterday that he had been appointed to a position in the Bureau of Education, in return for his services to the United States.

The Bureau of Education is the largest educational institution in the country.

Mr. Watson is a leader in St. Louis society.

THE CONFERENCE AT WATKINS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Speaker Jones, chairman of the Indianapolis delegation, who showed the Atlanta delegation the results of the conference at Watkins, said yesterday that the conference was held at the Hotel Atlanta, and that the speakers were John M. Palmer, George F. Edmunds, and John C. Breckinridge.

The speakers were John M. Palmer, George F. Edmunds, and John C. Breckinridge.
