

NEWS OF THE WEST.

GENERAL AUTHORITIES

By Killed by a Horse Slipping On Pavement.

INDIANS FROZEN TO DEATH.

Fatal Scalp'd-in Action.
Hasten—A day later saw men—now in snow.

There are now about 70,000 bushels of wheat in storage at Albany, Or., held by farmers.

Porterville, Cal., furnished Salt Lake City its first carload of fresh Thanksgiving grapes oranges.

An 18-month-old son of Paton of Fort Verde, Calif., accidentally fell in a water tank, was taken to hospital, resulting fatal injury.

Cannabis is growing wild in large quantities between Cheyenne and Evanston, Col., and is being gathered for medical use.

Oakland Stockmen, Dec. 14: White-and black co., prominent in stock and commerce, circled, had twenty-two cars of cattle from Elko, Nev., that quarters are at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Elko Springs, Colo., a salaried all signs don't fail, the merchants in Elko are going to have a hard time at this winter. They are all well sized for the holidays but the people are poorly supplied with the "handy-to-hold."

Ray Johnson, 10 years old, was killed by a southern Pacific train at Los Angeles, Cal., Sunday afternoon.
The boy was trying to jump a passing train and missed his hold.
He was mangled in a horrible man-

The novel spectacle of miners playing with a bunch of snow in Washington recently, says the Star Register. This was possible by the snow falling before the ground was to any extent.

The sprouting of the blossoming spruce on the streets of Fresno, Cal., caused much interest in the city. A Chinaman, aged 11, was walking on a horse along Mariposa street when in front of the Grand Central Hotel, the animal slipped and fell.
The lad was thrown head foremost against the pavement, sustaining fatal injuries.

Oakley, Idaho, Sun: Mr. Hawe, who one time drove stage for General Wade, who was a member of the Confederate army, arrived in town the other day. He relates the information that a man was last evening shot from Duck Valley, Nev., reported having passed by an Indian camp, and that the camp contained 30 women and children each to death. No tracks were seen in the neighborhood of the encampment.

Arizona Citizen: A. J. Wakefield is to return from David's canyon and reports to the Citizen the facts of the remains of a mountain man Joe Lambert who died. Some of the men were exposed to a large white and attracted attention. Excavations were begun and resulted in uncovering a number of bones and teeth which had doubtless been the specimens of giant monsters which had probably inhabited this country in long gone by. This is not an uncommon find in this section. There have been many instances of these remains unearthed in the same method of Q. Jesus, and an over into method of Q. Jesus.

National Stockmen: The sacrifice of feeding flocks, which has been a feature of the sheep industry during the late year of sheep numbers and wool, has not been checked. Sheep numbers are increasing in the country and there is an increase to be made in the sale of lambs for sheep or lambs for sheep.

Another cause to secure the obligation to secure the sheep industry is to be taken in Oakland, Cal. The final public announcement of it was made at the convention of the Christian Evangelists Sunday when President T. E. Miller, Berlin, President of the Idaho, Presiding Counselor, Wm. H. Biggs, Driggs, Fremont County, Idaho; T. D. Brown, Bettong, Fremont County, Idaho;
T. C. Nichols, Idaho.
