ALFALFA IN WASHINGTON.

The apearance of two burley clethes line robbers at the home of Mrs. Caro-line Armstrong, at 711 north First West, early this morning, was the cause of considerable excitement in the neigh-borhood, and may serve as a warning to others who have been in the habit of leaving their washing on the line. Shority after midnight, and in the midst of a heavy rain, the two men entered the lot and started to remove the A special from North Yakima says The production of alfalfa in this part of Washington will reach very large proportions this year. Kansas City Show Kindles Great Enthusiasm Among Cattle Breeders.

The wonderful success of the Kansas City cattle show has kindled the great. est enthusiasm of all kinds of cattle breeders and . B movement is on foot to make the show a regular annual at .ir, but to admit all the breeds, says the Denver Stockman. The Galoway and Angus people were not in the show this year and they are determined to have a show next year, even if they have it alone, but the chances are that a genral show in which all beet breeds exhibited, similar to the "Royal" England, will be instituted. Reports from Chicago Indicate great interest in the coloung international show to be held in December. This exhibition will be open to all breads and all kinds of stock. The range will be well repre-sented and it promises to be the greatsteck est live stock exposition ever held in this or any other country,

CHARLES W. COLE'S WILL.

The Instrument Filed for Probate-The Beneficiaries.

C. W. Burris, the executor of the will of Chas. W. Coles, deceased, filed the will for probate yesterday afternoon. Coles was one of the principal legatees of the will of Minnie Himmah and at the time he wrote his will was expecting about $25,000 from that estate. A contest was made over the will, how-ever, and after a time he accepted a compromise, in the form of an annunity of $30 per month. The estate left by the deceased amounts only to $200. Jo-sephine Cherry, Phebe A. Jones and Ella O'Riley, are left $25 each. The residence goes equally to his brothers William B. and Wesley Coles, and Dr. T. B. Beatty.

REWARD OF MERIT.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less Than One Year. Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to se-cure even a recognition for a new articale, to say nothing of achieving popular favor, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that today it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Can-ada

To be sure, a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first in-stance to bring the remedy to the at-tention of the public but every one fa-militat witht the subject knows that ad-Line. vertising alone never made may article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree. Physicians, who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or olutiments now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, Guaacol, Eucalyptol, and Sanguinaria, Sanguinaria, They contain no cocaine nor opiate, and are given to tittle children with en-the safety and benefit. Dr. J. J. Reitiger, of Covington, Ky., says: I suffered from catarrh in my herd and throat every fall, with stop-page of the name and Irritation in the throat affecting my voice and often ex-tending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty cent package of Stugert's caterrh Tablets at package of Stuart's catarrh Tablets at my druggist's, carried them in my pock-et and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble. Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W.

Va., writes: I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my hearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrh-al colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother, who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, briged me to try them so much that I did so and am truly thankful for what they have done for noradle and me oblideer. I adverse seen invasif and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with
