

Market Construction and the second second second second statement of the second s Second s Second se Second sec Currel Cand FRIDAY FRIDA and SATURDAY. and Green Friday and Saturday Great Millinery Bargain Days At the Paris. For FRIDAY and SATURDAY of this week we offer a Splendid Value in Ladies' Trimmed Hats-Large Assortment of newest styles, including a large black Neapolitan Hat, extra good value at $7.00, for only SEE WINDOW. An extra Special value in Misses' Hats -Misses' Cuban Hats, elaborately trimmed. in Flowers and Ribbons, value $3.00, for only..... See Window. 33 1-3 OFF ON ALL PATTERN HATS. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY. REMNANT SALE OF RIBBONS. 800 Remnants left over from our great Ribbon Sale of last week at cost. FANCY BEL/TS, value $1.25-Saturday only 75c FANCY SHIRT WAIST SETS in 25c to $1.25 Mother of Pearl from..... White Shirt Waist Special. For two days, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, at 65c, 95c,

$1.25, $1.50, $1.65, $1.95, $2.25, $2.45, $2.65, $2.85.

SEE WINDOW

OUR GREAT SUIT SALE.

Still on. Extra fine values at $6.95, $9.00, $12.50, $17.50 and й на на население на население на страни со население на население на население на население на селение на сел

HOME FIRE OF UTAH

Managed by the following Board of Directors:

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

Makes it worthy the confidence and patronage of the

HEBER J. GRANT & CO.,

George Romney, Vice Prest. L. S. Hills, Treas.

Cen'i Agents.

Ellas A. Smith, Henry Dinwoodey, Joseph F. Smith,

Heber J. Grant, Prest. H. G. Whitney, Secy. John Stringham, Asst.

David Eccies, David Eccies, John Francis M. Lyman, John Henry Smith,

Thos. G. Webber, Chas. S. Burton, David Eccies, insuring public.

Nos. 20 to 26 So. Main St.

000

One Night Treatment with Cuti-

Postmaster-General Payne, in reply to the latter's letter requesting any information Mr. Tulloch might have to sustain his published statements charging irregularities in the postoffice department and the Washington City postoffice several years ago, Mr. Tulloch, in his letter, which was mailed to the postmaster-general tonight, takes exception to personal comments of Mr. Payne and refrains from giving any facts bearing on the investigation, suggesting that the officials to whom Mr. Payne has written have all the necessary data if they choose to give if. While thus refusing to give any infor-mation in the letter under the circum-stances. Mr. Tulloch said tonight that stances. Mr. Tulloch said tonight that he is ready to substantiate everything he has said, but that he wants first to read the replies of the persons to whom the postmaster-general has written be-fore going into details. Mr. Tulloch's letter to Mr. Payne says:

today's developments in the postoffic

TULLOCH ANSWERS

letter to Mr. Payne says: "I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 5th inst., referring to certain statements said to have been made by me reflecting upon cer-tain officials, and which appeared in the Washington Post. "According to accounts published throughout the daily press it would ap-pear that the postmaster-general dur-ing a public interview with reference to the article in question and in the presence of representatives of the the presence of representatives of the leading newspapers of the country re-ferred to me as a 'mere windbag,' as one who should make good his hot air or be publicly branded as a calumniator, a sianderer and a liar. Such lan-guage at such a time, was apparently unnecessary and certainly undignified. unnecessary and certainly undignined. "It is also publicly stated that you have addressed letters to ex-Postmas-ter-General Charles Emory Smith, Fourth Assistant Postmaster Bristow, R. J. Tracewell, comptroller of the treasury, and John A. Merritt, post-mater at Washington D. C. request. master at Washington, D. C., request-ing them to inform you as to the truth of the statements contained in the interview as published. If the gentlemen in question will reply and tell the truth. the whole truth and nothing but the truth, they cannot. I believe, but fully substantiate the statements made, and anything further from me is unnecessary. "Considering, however, the language attributed to the postmaster-general. I would consider it a favor to be furn-ished copies of the replies received in the request."

response to this request." Mr_{c} Tulloch, in an interview with the Associated Press tonight, said: "In an-swering the postmaster-general's letter Mr_{c} to be accessed to me to be necessed.

with hot water and Cuticura Sonp, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales. and soften the thickened cuticle Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cutlcura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and southe and heal, and lastly, take the Cutlenra Resolvent, to cool and cleanse the blood. This treatment affords instant relief. permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of Eczema and other liching. burning and scaly humours, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure of torturing, disfiguring humours, from pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to age, when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

Sold throughout the world. Cutieurs Resolvent, Mc (in form of Chocolete Coared Fills, Mc, per vial et al.) Oint Chocolete Coared Fills, Mc, per vial et al.) Ointent Soc. Soc. Soc. Deposite London, St Chartenhouse Nai, Farts, S Rue de la Phix; Borten, 187 Columbus Ave. Poiter Drug & Chem, Corp., Sole Proprietors err Seud for "How to Cure Every Humour."

gang, with headquarters in New York, and who was arrested at Allentown, and who was arrested at the strug-Pa., yesterday, after a desperate strug-bearing before United gle, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Craig today and committed to prison in default of $5.000 hall. The postal inspectors say that through a letter addressed to "J. Smith, Parkville, Mo.," the green goods conspiracy was first discovered. The letter was opened by mistake by the postmaster at Hamilton, Mo. A postal inspector acted the part of a "come on" and met Heiser at Allen-town yesterday. The inspector at-tempted to arrest him on a trolley car-and in a struggle in which several shots were fired, he was subdued and brought to this city for a hearing. States Commissioner Craig today and ley and John Sullens, well known ranchers near Whitehall, were drowned ranchers hear withtenan, were drowned in the Jefferson river yesterday. They attempted to ford the stream, which was badly swollen by melting snows. Their horses were carried off their feet.

Two Ranchers Drowned.

treatment for every homour of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, may now be had for one dollar. Bathe 19922

Anaconda, Mont., May 7 .- John Fin-

as I did, it seemed to me to be neces-sary that I should put myself right before the public, as the postmaster-general alluded to me in the terms mentioned in a public manner, and as he stated that the gentlemen to whom he wrote did not confirm my state-ments. I reserve to myself the right to read the replies of those to whom he wrote as a result of the publication of my statements and to refresh the memories of those parties, if necessary. I stand, as I always have stood, ready to make good any statements that I as I did, it seemed to me to be to make good any statements that I have made. Before going further in have made. Before going further in the matter, however, or exposing the evidence I have inhand. I want to have an opportunity to read and criticise the replies of the persons mentioned in my letter. That is only fair. The next move now rests with the postmaster-general. "The postoffice department is today making a careful investigation of its affairs. The facts I have stated are by no means new. They are known to scores of persons in this city and are known to Fourth Assistant Postmaster-Ceneral Bristow and his associates. known to Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow and his associates. There is no necessity for my appear-ing as a public prosecutor in the case. I was willing at the time of the original investigation to render Mr. Bristow what aid I could by stating the condi-tion of affairs in the bostoffice depart. ment and the Washington postoffice four and five years igo, with which I was personally familiar at the time of my removal as an 'obstacle.' "Conditions are now more important than details. It is a well known fact that Thomas W. Gilmer, the special ex-pert of the comptroller of the treasury's office and one of the most efficient men in the service, was removed by Comp-troller Tracewell by order of Acting

In the service, was removed by Comp-troller Tracewell by order of Acting Seey, Vanderlip, who, I believe, after, ward repented of his hasty action and advised Mr. Gilmer to arply for a de-tail to another burcau of the treasury department. Mr. Gilmer had the writ-ten orders of the comptroller at the time of his removal, prohibiting him from taking up the affairs of the New York and Washington postoffices As York and Washington postoffices, As far as known no further investigation of the succeeding and still more inter-esting quarters of the year was made by anyone else At the postoffice denartment today Postmaster-General Payne said there were no new develorments in the in-vestigation. The inspectors are still at work in most of the branches of the lepartment and Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow has reported to Mr. Payne that he expect to submit his report on the investiga-tion between June 1 and June 15. The scent reconstruction of salaries of derks in the presidential postoffices is being minutely examined, and it is expected that the rolls in many of the inter postoffices will have to be over-hauled.

COL. W. H. DEWFY DEAD.

Was One of the Foremost Mining Men of Idaho.

Boise, Ida., May 8.-Col. W. H. Dewey died of dropsy at 12:55 this (Friday) morning at the Dewey Palac-hotel at Nampa. He was 80 years old and a native of New York. Col. Dovey was one of the very prominent men of the state. He made a fortune in the mines of Silver City and more recently developed the Dewey mine at Thunder mountain, which is now known to be of great celle.

He built two short lines of rallway, one from Nampa to Murphy, the other rom Nampa to Emmett. Another mon-iment is his Namoa hotel, which was prened three months ago. It cost $250,-300. His estate is estimated at from $1,000,000 to $1,250,000.

Green Gouls Men Arpested.

Philadelphia, May 7.-Edward Hel-r, whom the postal authorities charge with being a member of a green goods tum va Coffee

OMARA STRIKERS. Judge Munger Modifies Injunction

Against Them. Omaha, Neb., May 7.-Judge Munger today modified the injunction issued against the teamsters' union. One sec-tion of the order which restrained the union from continuing their organiza-tion and conducting their business was so sweeping as to prevent the men from holding meetings, employing counsel or even declaring the strike off, Judge Munger eliminated all these provisions but the remainder of the order remains unchangedd.

Dead of Typhoid at Stanford.

Stanford University, Cal., May 7 .- The eventh victim of the typhoid epidemie is Edward Irving Frisselle, 1903, who died at the Phi Delia Theta fraternity house after struggling against the fever for over four weeks. He was a major in the department of physiology and registered from Fresno. No new cases have been reported for two days. Several patients are still very low

Washington, May 7.-Funeral services over the remains of the late Bishop John Fletcher Hurst, of the Methodist Episcopal church, were held this afternoon at the Metropolitan M. E. church. Ad-dresses were delivered by Charles H. Fowler of Buffalo, and Bishop Charles C. McCabe of Omaha, who succeeded Bishop Hurst as chancellor of the American university. The Rev. Dr. Henry A. Butz, president of Drew theo-logical seminary, offered the prayer. The interment was at Rock Creek cem-etery and was private.

HEAVILY INVOLVED. A Failure Impending.

Improper feeding brings on disease The use of coffee for instance is almost ertain to cause organic ills. The whole system of health becomes involved and the physical failure known as collapse is always impending. No financial trouble can cause half the suffering that follows disease and mos disease comes from what we eat and It is no guess work but solid, scientific

It is no guess work but solid, scientific fact that coffee hurts about 9 of every 10 that drink it. It attacks the vital organs directly, and indirectly its fil re-sults are frequently seen in the remot-est corners of the body. All the while scrious organic diseases may be grow-ing that will be hard to cure and the coffee drinker is subject to such suffer-ing as headaches, biliousness, flatu-lence, insomnia, nervousness and a huninsomnia, nervousness and a hun dren and one other Ills. "Once upon a time, as they say in fairy tales, when I was controlled by the coffee fiend," writes a lady of St

John, Canada, "life was a weary bur-den to me on account of the wretched headaches, utter weariness of both mind and body and general biliousness. all due as I afterwards found out to the use of coffee. Acting upon an old friend's advice I quit coffee and drack Postum and presto, in a week I was transformed into a different being. "in a month I was gifted with bound-ing energy in place of my former lass-tude and a general uprising of my for-merly dormant ambitions was plainly evident. I benefited so greatly that constituted myself a missionary among constituted myself a missionary among my friends to spread the truth about Postum and I can tell you of many of my friends who have used it with won-derful good results." Name given by Postum Co. Battle Creeck, Mich. Don't go into health bankruptcy. Look into the scientific points of Pos-tum vs Coffee.

perial Russian ministry for foreign af-fairs to the United States of the intention of the Russian government to maintain the policy of the open door in China, as that policy has been advo-cated by the United States and ac-cepted by all the powers who have com-mpire ment of the United States is now, as it has always been heretofore, animated by the desire to secure for all nations entirely equal intercourse with China. and I am instructed to present to your excellency the request that the imperial Russian government will give due attention to the foregoing con-iderations, which have also been adressed to the Chinese government, and o express to your excellency the hope

States. dorff: 'The imperial government, al ways desirous of cultivating and devel oping the best relations with the United States, is fully disposed to remove that anxiety which the proposed arrange-ments between Russia and China, appear to have caused the cabinet at Washington, but it feels itself bound at he same time to declare that negotia-ions carried on between two entirely. independent states are not subjects to be submitted to the approval of other powers. "There is no thought of attacking the principle of the 'open door,' as that principle is understood by the imperial government of Russia, and Russia has no intention whatever to control the colley followed by her in that respect policy followed by her in that respect up to the present time. "If the Russo-Chinese bank should obtain concessions in China the agree-ments of a private character relating to them would not differ from those here-tofore conceded to so many other for-eign corporations. But would it not be very strange if the 'door' that is 'open' to certain nations should be closed to Russia, whose frontier adjoins that of Manchuria and who has been forced by recent events to send her troops into hat such measures of procedure may be adopted as will allay the apprehen-sion of the government of the United

Funeral of Bp. Hurst.

RUSSIA'S REPLY.

Following is the reply of Count Lams.

ecent events to send her troops into that province to re-establish order in the plain and common interest of all nations? It is true that Russia has con-quered Manchuria but she stiil mainains her firm determination to restore t to China and recall her troops as soon as the conditions of evacuation have been agreed upon and the necessary steps taken to prevent a fresh out-break of trouble in the neighboring teritory. "It is impossible to deny an inde-pendent state the right to grant others such concessions as it is free to dispose.

and I have every reason to believe that the demands of the Russo-Chinese bank do not in the least exceed those that have been so often formulated by other foreign companies, and I feel that under he circumstances it would not be easy or the imperial government to deny o Russian companies support, which is fiven by other governments to com-anies and syndicates of their own nationalities. "At all events I beg your excellency to believe that there is not nor can there be any question of the contradic-tion of assurances which, under the or-ders of his majesty the emperor. I have had occasion to give heretofore in re-gard to the principles which invariably direct the policy of Russia." Because of the announcement of the Anglo-Japaneze agreement at about the same time Mr. Hay addressed the Rus-

Anglo-Japanese agreement at about the same time Mr. Hay addressed the Rus-tian government relative to the Russo-Chinese bank, Mr. Hay directed Am-bassador Tower to advise the Russian rour imment that this government did not know that negotiations for such an arrangement were pending and that neither Great Britain nor Japan was consulted regarding the note.

the demonstration had been planned that California hospitality is really what he had heard it to be. At the east side of the grounds company G was stationed, uniformed in blue, with campaign hats, leggings and guns. The New York society was at the south, aercial interests within the Chinese and along the west were formed the Y. "I am to assure you that the govern M. C. A. cadets in uniform.

At 12 o'clock carriages in waiting took the president to the Casa Loma hotel in the following order:

Marshal and staff, mounted escorts, president and party, company G, Teddy's Terrors and band, New York society, Y. M. C .A. infantry.

There was an ovation all along the line until the hotel was reached. SAILINGS BAYS TO EVERY THURSDAY FOM NEW YORK Thousands were gathered in the streets. On the corner opposite the baicony from which the president spoke 1,500 school children were seated on a grand stand put up for the occasion.

As the president approached each of the children waved a flag, and their young voices were often raised in cheers. They also sang the national airs.

President Roosevelt was presented President Roosevelt was presented to Gov. Pardee and Lieut. Gov. Ander-son. The party then took their places on the balcony, where all the members of the legislative committee and their ladies and prominent local committee-men were seated. Just below the balcony were ranged the Grand Army veterans, while near by were "Teddy's Terrors" in their warlike uniforms. Mayor Fowler introduced Gov. Par-

Mayor Fowler introduced Gov. Par-dee, who in a brief address welcomed the president to California. Assemblyman Gover T. Johnson then delivered an address of welcome in be-derivered an address of welcome in be-half of the state legislature. The great throng cheered itself hoarse when the president arose to de-liver his address. It was several minutes before he could proceed. He said, in part:

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

"I am giad indeed to have the chance to visit this wonderful and beautiful state, but I didn't have to come to know you to like you, for I know what the sons and daughters of the state have done. If I did not appreciate their achievements I would indeed be a poor American. But for the country itself though I had been told so much of its beauty and its wonders. I had never realized or could not realize in advance all I have seen. Coming down over the mountain, I was impressed

A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by over-eating. An eminent authority says the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't over-load the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food with-out the stomach's aid. This rest and out the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contains soon restore health. Dieting unneces-sary. Kodol quickly relieves the feel-ing of fulness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. Absolutely cures indigestion.

Kodol Nature's Tonic. Prepared only by E. C. DEWITT & Co., Ohicar

GÉNÉRALE TRANSATLANTIQUE OVERSMILLION TAST GIGANTIC PASSENGERS LINE MAILAEXPRES CARRIEDIN SAFETY STEAMERS Commanded by Naval Officers, strict man-of-war discipline. Every 20th century device for comfort, speed and safety. Celebrated cui-sine. Company's Special Four Hour Parlor and Dining Car Train awaits passengers at Dock in Havre for Paris the beautiful, where conveni-ent connections are made for all continental points. Marconi Wire-less Telegraphy English-speaking attendants. For Hustrated booklets and special information apply to and special information apply to Salt Lake City Agents, L. J. Kyes, Oregon Short Line; I. A. Benton, Rio Grande Western.

White House

Cook Book.

Good Men Furnished.

The National Cleaning Co.

131 South Main St.

Wax Floors and Fine Furulture polished

Wall Paper, Kalsomine & Fresco Cleaning

$24.75.

Pints, 2 dozen, - $1.50

NESTLER & CO., No. 323 North First West 'Phone 1370 y.

The Deseret News, SALT LAKE CITY.

This standard book, well bound in oil cloth covers, with colored plates, weighing 41/2 pounds, on sale at the Deseret News Book Store

$1.25--Former Price $3.00.

SPECIAL NOTE: Any paid up subscriber of the Descret News (Dally, Saturday or Semi-Weekly) can have the book at half price-65 CENTS-by applying to the cir-culator's window. Postage 25c ex-tra

WE WILL GIVE

THE BOOK FREE

to any subscriber who sends us the name of a new subscriber to the Daily, with the price for one year, 43,000. We will give the book for 50 CENTS to any subscriber who sends us the name of a new subscriber to the Semi-Weekiy or Saturday News, with the price for one year, $2.00.

$9,00