

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH. — Sept. 21, 1894.

The Erickson Case.

Judge H. W. Smith presided in the First district court yesterday, and Judge King held court in Ogden. A jury was empaneled in the case of the United States vs. Magnus Hansen, Erickson, Hansen, and others.

The defense is charged to have been committed on the 14th day of April, 1894, in Ephesus City, with Harry Hansen, his son, present.

Witnesses called by the defense testified that Hansen had been in the city at 12 o'clock.

The first witness called was J. P. Hansen, husband of Mrs. Hansen.

M. Warner, for the defense, looked upon an objection to the testimony of Hansen, as he was himself of the co-defendant, who is also indicted.

Mr. Thompson argued that the

Hansen's were co-defendants, and held that the witness was compelled against Hansen. The witness, however, was withdrawn temporarily, and Dennis Hansen was called in his place.

Charles E. Dickey, attorney for grand jury, was called for trial in his stead, and he was sworn in as a witness. A. L. Lowe and Hansen denied they had been in the city at 12 o'clock.

Charles E. Dickey, attorney for

in his stead, and he was sworn in as a witness. The defense then called J. P. Hansen, his wife, and his son, Harry Hansen.

Mr. Thompson argued that the

Hansen's were co-defendants, and held that the witness was comelled against Hansen. The witness testified that he had been in the city at 12 o'clock.

He said he had been in the city all day, and had been in the city all night, and had been in the
