SENATE.
WASHINGTON, 5.—Wallace from the select committee to inquire into alleged frauds in the late election, submitted a report on the result of the investigation on the subject of denial or abridgment of suffrage in Rhode Island, and reported a bill to enforce the provisions of section 2, Article 15 of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States;

Wallace also presented petitions of citizens of Rhode Island, praying for relief from the rule on suffrage observed in that State referred to.
Blaine stated there would be a minority report on suffrage in Rhode Island.

Butler submitted a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Interior for copies of the reports of Captain John W. White, United States Revenue service, made while on duty.

Booth, from the committee on public lands, reported favorably the House bill for the relief of settlers on public lands, and it passed. It provides that when a pre-emption, homestead or timber culture claimant shall file a written relinquishment of his claim in the local land office, the land covered by the said claim shall be open and subject to entry without further action of the land commissioner. Where any person has contested, paid land fees and procured the cancellation of an entry, he shall be entitled to the register of the land office of that district, and shall be allowed 30 days to enter land. Any settler who hereafter proceeds to enter under the homestead law, shall be allowed the same time to perfect his original entry as is now allowed settlers under the pre-emption laws, and his rights shall relate back to the date of settlement, as if he settled under the pre-emption laws.

The bill to sell Fort Logan, Montana, and establish a new post on Musselshell River, Montana, was passed.

On motion of Voorhees, a bill for a joint commission to inquire into the better accommodation of the congressional library was taken up to allow him to speak in its support.
He described the lamentable condition of the library, saying it was a reproach and disgrace to the nation.

The Kellogg-Spofford resolutions were temporarily laid aside, and the district of Columbia appropriation bill taken up, discussed at great length, and pending the debate the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.
WASHINGTON, 5.—Reagan, chairman of the committee on commerce, reported the river and harbor appropriation bill, ordered printed and recommitted.

Wells, of the committee on appropriations, reported back the Indian appropriation bill with Senate amendments, with the recommendation that some of the amendments be concurred in and some be non-concurred in. The amendment touching the law in regard to 10 cent stamps, as it stands at present was rejected; yeas 65, nays 67. The amendment striking out the language of the bill rejected; yeas 68, nays 127. The bill then passed; yeas 133, nays 67.

Hooker asked leave to report from the committee on Indian affairs, the bill to transfer the Indian Bureau to the War Department.
Conger objected.

The House then went into committee on the Indian appropriation bill. The bill appropriates $8,676,420, being $1,294,000 below the estimate and $940,000 above the appropriation last year.

Shelly submitted an amendment appropriating $500,000 for the purchase of land for the purpose of building machines; adopted.

Money moved an increase to the appropriation for mail transportation on railroad of $500,000, and the amendment was adopted. The bill providing that if $9,500,000 be appropriated for the railroad mail service, $150,000 may be used for securing the necessary special facilities for such service; ruled out on a point of order.

Dibrell moved to increase the appropriation to $9,400,000. The amendment was adopted, and the amendment and quoted from the report of the two quarters or the current fiscal year, the bill appropriated $9,400,000, but $9,400,000. A vote on this amendment resulted: yeas, 67; nays, 67.

The amendment was adopted authorizing the General Land Office to use $250,000 of the $9,400,000 appropriated for the railway mail service in securing necessary and special facilities.

Atkins, chairman of the committee on appropriations, reported a bill appropriating $25,000 for carrying on the public printing office the current fiscal year. Atkins stated that the sum was the same as appropriated by the bill voted by the President.
The bill passed without division.

The morning hour having been disposed of, Mr. King called up the joint resolutions confirming the Monroe Doctrine.

Blackburn raised a question of consideration, stating that he desired to proceed with the postoffice appropriation bill. The House by a decisive vote refused to consider the Monroe Doctrine resolutions, and went into committee of the whole on the postoffice appropriation bill.

The amendment increasing the appropriation for the railroad mail service to $980,000 was rejected, 70 yeas, 127 nays.

King submitted an amendment increasing from $325,000 to $350,000 the appropriation for inland transportation by steamboat routes; adopted.

The claim relative to transportation by Star routes having been reached, Blackburn proposed various amendments to the proviso, modifying it so as to read:

Provided, That no Star mail route upon which the increased compensation is beyond 50 per cent. over the actual original contract price and cost of service for additional trips, allowed during the years ending June 30, 1879 and June 30, 1880, such service shall be decreased, curtailed or discontinued hereat at a rate of compensation for the increased expense of such trip, not to exceed 50 per cent of the original contract price and cost of service for additional trips.

Blackburn explained that the proviso proposed to make the contracts on seventy-three routes and to put them exactly on a dead level with those which the late law of Congress had put all the future contracts upon which the Department might thereafter enter.

Ewing moved to strike out the proviso. It proposed roughly and rudely to say that contractors on seventy-three great routes of the West should be thrown back to a 50 per cent increase. He was in favor of economy, but he would rather have public expenditures reduced in any other department than in the postal service, and if it must be in the postal service he would vote to reduce expenditures anywhere rather than among the hardy pioneers of the frontier. Let Congress economize by putting salaries back to where they had been before the war, and by catching rogues in the Internal Revenue service, but let it not attempt to do so by impairing the progress of civilization and by breaking down the mail service of the West. Without coming to a vote the committee rose.

And in all cases while the the delegates already assembled party against the nomination of Grant to a third term. A strong effort is to be made to prevent the name of any other presidential candidate being mentioned and to prevent an expression of any preference as to who the republican nominee shall be. Resolutions have been drawn up by a member of the executive committee of the anti-third term movement, to be presented to the convention. The chief points are unalterable opposition to the third term, limit of presidential tenure by a constitutional amendment to two terms of four years each, or to one term of six years, and pledging the members to support in congressional nominees who will not vote for such constitutional amendment, the nomination of a President to be made by delegates appointed and instructed by congressional districts. State conventions to have the power to instruct only delegates at large; strict adherence to the constitution and precedents that the convention will name no candidate, but declare unhesitatingly that in the event of the nomination at Chicago of a third term candidate, a national executive committee to be appointed by this convention shall call on the National Convention in Philadelphia to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States.

A dispatch was received by the executive committee to-day from George Wm. Curtis, expressing his sympathy with all republicans in opposition to a third term for which no good reason can be urged. A letter will be read to the convention from Secretary Schurz, in which the following criteria should not fear that I shall remain silent and inactive when the real ty of war comes, if it does. As to my post of duty under such circumstances, my mind is fully made up.

While no delegate to the anti-third term convention has arrived, Senator Henderson declares he has trustworthy letters that twenty Pennsylvania delegates have signed a pledge to break instructions.
Ex-Senator Woodin, of New York, yesterday at Chicago has taken a pledge to vote against Grant.

Wisconsin Republicans.
MADISON, 5.—R. W. Baker, chairman of the republican State central committee was re-elected. The State convention was called to order at 12 m. In his remarks he said that a solid south had been organized and would be met by a solid north. He hoped the Wisconsin delegation would go to Chicago uninstructed and unite in a man about whose election there was no question of success.

A temporary organization was effected by the election of W. E. Carter, of Grant, as president, and Willard Brown as secretary, and the appointment of the usual committees.

Wm. P. McLaren was elected permanent chairman, H. M. Kutchin and W. H. Josslyn secretaries.
Considerable discussion arose as to the manner of electing delegates. It was decided to elect delegates at large to the Chicago convention, which ended in a call of the roll for votes on the presidential question, resulting, Washburne 88, Blaine 59, Grant 39, Edmunds 3. The discussion was on the choice of delegates at large the Washburne Sherman and Grant delegations combining to keep Blaine from having a representation.
The following delegates at large were chosen: C. B. Cassady, Edward Sanderson, Thos. B. Scott and George Nanteworth, alternates, R.
Carver, David G. Davis, George B.
Scott and Paul Lackmann. The district delegates were then chosen by their districts. Electors were chosen as follows: At large, George and John K. Campbell, district electors; first district, I. S. Blake; second, John Kellogg; third, George W. Weatherly; fourth, Wm. P. Mc-Laren; fifth, U. P. Loyd; sixth, E.
L. Brown; seventh, F. H. Keyes; eighth, John F. Kingston.

Tennessee Republicans.
NASHVILLE, 5.—The republican State convention, met to-day at Re-presentative's Hall and was called to order by John R. Dillon, chairman of the State committee. Hon.
L. C. Hoock, of Knoxville, was nominated for temporary chairman. W. H.
Young (colored), of Davidson, Henry Ryan (colored), of Brownsville, were nominated for permanent chairmen.
The name of W. H. Young was put to the convention first and by viva voce vote declared elected. After the appointment of the credentials, the convention took a recess.

Jas. R. Dillon and Thomas H.
Reeves were reported by the majority and minority of the committee on organization, respectively, for president of the convention. In the ballot by counties, Dillon received 255 votes and Reeves 255. Mr. Dillon, on taking the chair, said that the incident preserved the paper. In the third term and anti-third term, and by his election resulted in a triumph for U. S. Grant. He declared himself in favor of a strictly State credit platform. A committee on resolutions was appointed, and pending their action the convention was addressed by Hon. Stanley Matthews.
A motion was carried requesting the delegates from congressional districts to select two delegates each to the Chicago convention. The convention then adjourned until to-morrow when 20 delegates will be chosen by districts to be reported, 14 of whom are for Grant.

LYON'S KATHAIRON. This elegant, cheap article always makes the Hair grow freely and fast, keeps it from falling out, arrests and cures gray-ness, removes dandruff and itching, makes the Hair strong, giving it a curling tendency and keeping it in any desired position. Beautiful, healthy Hair is the sure result of using Kathairon.
