New Zealand.—Native affairs are more reassuring, the Maoris being less aggressive, and it is hoped hostilities will be averted honorably. Sir Wm. Fitzherbert has resigned the speakership of the house of representatives, and accepted the same position in the legislative council.

A Portland dispatch says: The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company executed a mortgage yesterday for $6,000,000 to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York, as trustees. The mortgage is given for a like amount loaned the O. R. & N. Company, which will be used to extend their lines.

Over 10,000 people were at the Pavilion last evening to witness the finish of the six days' match. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and the various contestants were loudly cheered as they went around the track. Edwards was walking slowly, occasionally jogging a lap or two, but with no need to hurry, as he had seven miles the lead. He was apparently in good condition, with the exception of weariness from the exertion of the last few days in obtaining the lead. McIntyre, after a rest of 20 minutes, resumed the walk at nine o'clock, going stiffly, but improving somewhat after a few laps.

Contrary to expectation, Scott also made his appearance on the track, walking remarkably well considering the broken down condition in which he left it. Callahan had apparently given up the contest for the third position, and just before 9 o'clock, Bowman, who was walking briskly, and running frequently, scored 352 miles, placing him even with Callahan. Newhoff, Armstrong, and McFarlane made some good laps on exhibition. The old veteran Kennovian plodded steadily on, and Chenoweth came forth from his long retirement, and hobbled painfully around several laps. About 10 o'clock most of the contestants retired from the track until a few minutes before 11, when Edwards reappeared and ran two laps briskly.

This stimulated Scott, who went round at a rapid run amid tremendous cheering. On nearing his tent his trainers took him from the track by main force. At five minutes to eleven, Edwards, bearing the stars and stripes, and surrounded by all the contestants except Scott, walked slowly round a couple of laps, thunders of applause following the march. Scott's friends raised him on their shoulders and bore him to the judge's stand where the closing score was announced as follows: Edwards 371 and 3 laps, winning the belt and first money of $1,000; McIntyre 364 and 2 laps, second money, $750; Bowman 357 and 4 laps, third money, $500; Callahan 352 miles, fourth money, $250; Scott 315 and 4 laps, Newhoff 248 and 6 laps, Kennovian 218 and 3 laps, Armstrong 202 and 2 laps, McFarlane 188 and 3 laps, Santos 184, Thomson 180, and Chenoweth 172. The prizes will be distributed to-morrow evening.

principle at stake he could not deem himself justified in neglecting such a proffered opportunity. In consequence of the retirement of Dr. Fiske from the ministry of ecclesiastical affairs, the ecclesiastical laws have been enforced with more leniency, and this may ultimately have the effect of procuring a recognition of the ecclesiastical laws by the Vatican.

Bills have been introduced in the Bundesrath for the alteration of those articles of the Germanian Institution by which the legislature must meet, and the budget be voted annually and by which the duration of parliaments are fixed at three years.

The bill which proposes to substitute biennial meetings of parliament and a biennial budget have created considerable sensation attending to further free the government from parliamentary control. The technical reason alleged for the change is the inconvenience of discussing two budgets, Prussian and Imperial in the same year. It was suggested some time ago that they might be taken up in alternate years.

The creation of a department for the control of Imperial railways is also regarded as a step towards rendering the government less dependent on parliament.
