HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM

Is an unfailing prescription for a faultless complexion. Sallowness, roughness, sunburn, moth patches, freckles, discoloration, dark spots, unwholesome paleness, tan, pimples, eruptions, redness and every other kind of blemish disappear like magic by the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. A few applications applied with a soft linen cloth will leave the delicate hues of refined beauty and youthful bloom. Its application cannot be detected, and it is absolutely free from all possible harm, warranted purely a vegetable extract from the flowers of Southern France.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank.

SALT LAKE CITY, September 28, 1876.

Buying at $1.08: selling at $1.10.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 88 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

From North.—Elder A. M. Musser, who has been on a business trip north, having been as far as the Bear Lake country, returned to the city yesterday.

Restore It.—If the aged individual who picked up a sack of clothing in the south part of the City, a short time since, will leave the same at this office for the owner, no questions will be asked as to why he didn't do so before. If he shouldn't comply, there may be some pointed questions.

They Have Come.—To-day grasshoppers have been flying over the city in great numbers, being visible in swarms overhead. They appeared to be traveling south-west, while a proportion appear to hover. They probably form the advance guard of the grand army, which great body has been slowly marching this way from the north country.

Protective.—Mr. Bassett is engaged in laying a piece of concrete work, of the same materials of which his walks are composed, along the entire length of the Z. C. M. I. building, on the north side, for the purpose of preventing injury to the structure, by water, in the wet season. The piece of work will be 318 feet long and seven feet wide. The materials being impervious to water, the improvement will be likely to accomplish the object desired.

Tooele County.—"R" writes us from Grantsville that Elders John Taylor, George Q. Cannon and Joseph F. Smith visited that place on the 19th inst., on which day two meetings were held, the members of the Quorum of the Twelve named giving much valuable instruction, and on the same occasion the new county co-operative tannery, just completed, was dedicated, the dedicatory prayer being offered by Elder Cannon.

The crops in that part of the Territory are unusually heavy and the prices of grain unusually low.

The Scandinavian Mission.—By private letter from Soren P. Neve, dated at Copenhagen, Sept. 5th, we learn that he is almost entirely recovered from the severe attack of rheumatism, by which he was prostrated on the way to Denmark, and for some time after his arrival there. He is laboring in the Copenhagen Conference, over which he presides. During the last three months 42 persons have been baptized into the Church in that Conference, and the number baptized throughout the Mission during that time was 300, and the mission generally is in good condition, under the fatherly care of its president, Bishop Liljenquist. Elder Neve also speaks highly of the course of Bishop L's predecessor in that position, Elder N. C. Flygare, who was much respected by the people.

The letter states that the Saints are generally poor, and but for the aid extended by friends in Utah the emigration would be very small. He says that the Elders from Utah and the local priesthood are doing their duty in preaching the gospel, energetically, and there are but few people in the part where he labors but have at some time or other been warned, and know something relating to the establishment of the kingdom of God in the latter times.

Brother Nede says that in going on missions good is not only done to the people to whom the Elders from Utah are sent, but the experience they gain is very beneficial to themselves, for by being brought in contact again with the world they are enabled more plainly to see the condition of the Saints and unbelievers, by comparison, and by that means are led more strongly to appreciate their peaceful and comparatively happy homes in the mountains.

Further Developments.—Register Patton continues to show his utter lack of good sense. Yesterday we gave some particulars regarding his manner of making himself supremely ridiculous in his endeavors, to annoy President Wells. Failing in obtaining troops from the garrison, he last evening drove to the lumber mills in Big Cottonwood Cañon, accompanied by some deputies, armed with shotguns and whiskey, and other deadly weapons, for the avowed purpose of arresting the employees of Mr. Wells who were hauling away the lumber, and also for the purpose of selling the property between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock to-day.

Meanwhile Mr. Wells obtained, rom Chief Justice Schaeffer, a writ of injunction forbidding the sale, and Deputy Marshal A. K. Smith and Constable B. Y. Hampton left for the cañon some time after midnight for the purpose of making service. When those officers reached the mills they found that four of the mill hands had been arrested and placed in irons by Patton and his party, who kept them under guard in a cabin. We understand that, with braggadocial flourishes and profane oaths, Patton announced his intention of disregarding the process of the Court; he intended showing the Courts in Utah he was beyond their reach, and would teach them something. The officers served the writ, however, which was their part of the proceedings.

Should Register Patton carry out his threat of disregarding the Court he may get himself into a good deal of trouble, and come out considerably the loser.

In going up the cañon Patten and party met a man coming this way with a load of lumber. They arrested him, and when he asked by what authority they acted F. Corker, according to his own statement, presenting his pistol, said that was his authority, and taking hold of the man's foot pulled him from the load, wedging him between the wheels. They also perpetrated several other drunken freaks.

Museum.—There have been received, at the Deseret Museum, proceedings of the Academy of Natural Science, at Davenport, Iowa, Vol. I, 1875, in which are many reports relating to Utah—"Hieroglyphics observed in Summit Cañon, Utah," and "Report on the Insects of Utah," by I. Duncan Putnam; "Summer Botanizing in the Wasatch Mountains, Utah Territory," by Dr. C. C. Parry; "The Indian names for Insects," by I. D. Putnam.

The entire volume is full of instructive and interesting matter.

Also received "The Colorado Plateau considered as a field for geological study," by Professor G. K. Gibert, Geologist.

Look After Your Fruit.—At ten o'clock last night a large quantity of dried fruit, at the premises of Brother E. Blair, First Ward, was all right, but this morning the proprietor discovered that a thief had been there after the hour mentioned and carried away $12 worth.

We have heard of other similar instances, which should cause people to look sharply to the safety of their fruit.

Coming Home.—Bishop Edward Hunter and Bishop John Sharp are expected to arrive from the east on Sunday evening. Both are in good health.

Winn Tracked, Pursued, and Dangerously Wounded, etc.

BEAVER, 28.—Tuesday evening Deputy Marshal Brown received intelligence that Winn was secreted in his house. He immediately proceeded to Winn's place, accompanied by Sheriff Coombs, Puffer, Nelson, and P. T. Farnsworth, jr., reaching there about 2 a.m. He surrounded the premises and waited for daylight. Early in the morning Winn was discovered standing, armed with gun and pistol, in his door, his horse near by, saddled. About nine a. m. Coombs approached near to the house, when Winn instantly jumped on his horse and broke for the hills. As he passed Farnsworth and Puffer they demanded him to halt, but he paid no attention to the order, and they shot twice, both hitting him in the right leg. Keeping right on the chase, he was continued for four or five miles, pursued by Coombes, Puffer and Farnsworth, and having the fastest horse, was soon lost in the cedars, but his wounds being so painful compelled him to return home the same evening. He sent his daughter to Beaver with a note saying he wished to surrender himself to Stokes. He is said to be so dangerously wounded that he cannot be removed.

The trial of Woods for the murder of Maxwell is expected to commence this morning.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Provo Enquirer, Sept. 27—

On Tuesday the 19th inst., Mr. Isaac Allen, of Manti, met with a severe accident. As he was driving his team for a load of wheat, they took fright, and threw him out of the wagon. The wheel passed over his right leg and severely injured it, tearing the flesh off in several places. Surgical aid was procured, and he is now doing well.

Yesterday Joseph Rogers, aged about 13 years, son of Mr. H. C. Rogers, of Provo, while plucking fruit from a tree in his father's garden, fell to the ground heavily, cutting a gash on his head, and bled profusely. He was picked up insensible, and for a few minutes his friends thought he was dead. After "coming to himself" he was carefully attended to, and appears to get better. He still complains of the pains in his head.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Conference in Sanpete.

MANTI, Sept. 26, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

A two days' meeting was held in Ephraim City on the 23d and 24th insts., under the direction of President Orson Hyde, at which were present all the Bishops and a large number of the leading Elders of the country.

On Saturday evening President Hyde delivered an able and effective discourse on the proper exercise of the elective franchise.

Throughout the Conference Elder Hyde gave much salutary and timely instruction, and during the session offered the following, which was sustained by the uplifted hands of the entire assembly—

"It is unanimously resolved by this Conference of the Latter-day Saints in Sanpete County, that we will sustain, by our faith, prayers and good works, President Brigham Young as Prophet, Seer and Revelator of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in all the world, his counsellor President Daniel H. Wells, the Twelve Apostles and all the Quorums and authorities of the church, as sustained at the last General Conference in Salt Lake City."

The Bishops and a number of the Elders participated in the exercises. Their addresses were full of spirit and earnestness in vindication of the latter-day work; with its multiplied obligations and responsibilities; especial reference being made to the necessity of carrying on our co-operative institutions in the best possible manner and to refrain from sustaining those opposed to the welfare of Israel, the abolishing as far as possible the traffic in intoxicating liquors, and its entire abandonment as a beverage; and greater care taken and exertion made to train the future hope of Israel—the children of the Saints, in the paths of truth and righteousness.

It was a general time of rejoicing, long to be remembered as one of the seasons making glad the hearts of the Saints in the sure and certain hope of the future redemption of Zion from the power of evil.

The choirs of Ephraim, Mount Pleasant and Manti, with their well trained voices, under their respective leaders, and Bishop Peterson with the Saints of Ephraim by their cordial welcome and kind hospitality, contributed not a little to the happiness of the occasion.

An appointment was made by President Hyde for a two days' meeting at Mount Pleasant on the 16th and 17th of December next.

Respectfully,
J. B. MAIBEN.

Novel Swimming Match.

HARRY PARKER vs. MR. EADE'S DOG FOR TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS.

Such a match as that contested at the Welsh Harp, Hendon, on Saturday last is, we believe, without precedent. Certainly, in recent years, nothing of the kind has been chronicled, and therefore the issue afforded the greater surprise, resulting, as it did, in the defeat of the man. That a dog could compete with any chance of success against a moderately good swimmer many were loath to believe, and, although conceded a start on this occasion, the almost unanimous feeling was with the biped. In fact, it was generously considered "a good thing" for Parker, who, as a professional swimmer, has taken very high honors, and is at the present time teaching the art of natation at both the Peckham and Kennington Baths. The articles stipulated that Parker should concede to the dog a start of thirty seconds in half a mile, the time to count from the moment the dog entered the water and not from any signal tendered by the starter. Mr. Eade has named his dog "Now Then," and he tells a very interesting story of the manner in which he first discovered the powerful merits of his animal in water. It appears from his account that being some distance off Margate in a boat, accompanied by the dog, he unfortunately lost his two sculls, and how to reach the shore he was at a loss to know for some time, until the bright idea struck him of utilizing the animal. This he did by means of a pocket handkerchief, which he attached to the collar of "Now Then," who was known to retrieve well in water, and, as a means of keeping him in the right direction, his owner cut the stretcher up into numerous pieces, and so threw them just a head of the dog, who, being thus encouraged on his way, successfully towed the boat to shore. "Now Then," a half bred retriever, is black, and shows remarkable strength in the forearm, while his paws, when spread, are unusually large, and in swimming the whole of his back is visible. A straight half mile had been marked out with flags denoting the course, and at a few minutes past six the dog leaped off the punt, his owner leaning over the stern of a skiff which preceded the animal, enticed him with cooked liver, and in the half minute allowed he had travelled nearly forty yards, the speed with which he propelled himself being particularly noticeable. Parker slightly reduced the gap in 300 yards, but, keeping a beautifully straight course, the dog began now to positively draw away, and to the chagrin of the swimmer's backers, at the end of about 450 yards the dog was seventy ahead. After this Parker eased, and never again went at top speed to the end of the journey, the dog thus winning very easily in 14m. 3s.—London Sportsman, September 4th.

—The Bridgeport (Conn.) Standard says, "The air is full of scandals just now. They range over a considerable field and comprise so many varieties that all may be supplied with the kind they particularly fancy." Is this a natural result of "our American institutions?"

PEOPLE'S TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.

HEADQUARTERS, People's Territorial Central Committee,
Salt Lake City, Sept. 9, 1876.

To the People of Utah.

The election of Delegate to represent the Territory of Utah in the Forty-Fifth Congress will be held on Tuesday, November 7th next ensuing, and it is most desirable that the candidate chosen as the representative of the people should receive their fullest support and that every person entitled to the elective franchise should exercise it on that day.

To the end that an increased interest may be awakened in election matters and to endeavor to draw out the entire vote of the Territory on this important occasion, it has been determined to hold a People's Territorial Convention, composed of Delegates from the several counties, to convene at the City Hall in Salt Lake City, on Saturday, October 7th, 1876, at 12 m.

The business of this convention will be to nominate a candidate for delegate to Congress, and to inaugurate such measures as will insure increased attention to our elections throughout the Territory. The number of delegates to compose the Territorial Convention has been fixed at seventy-eight, being twice the number of the Councilors and Representatives in the Legislative Assembly, and the allotment of delegates to the several counties has been based, as far as possible, upon their representation in the Legislature. To secure the proper election of these delegates it is suggested that each county hold a county convention, composed of delegates sent from primary meetings previously held in the several precincts. The delegates to the Territorial convention should come duly authenticated with credentials signed by the President and Secretary of the convention appointing them. It will be well for each convention to appoint alternate delegates to represent the county in case of the failure of the regular delegates to be present at the convention. It is also suggested that each County Convention while in session appoint a County Central Committee to attend to all election matters in its county, which Committee should immediately organize and place itself in communication with the People's Territorial Central Committee at Salt Lake City, that concert of action in these matters may be secured throughout the Territory.

The number of delegates to the Territorial Convention to which each county is entitled is as follows—

County.	No.	County.	No.
Salt Lake,	18	Sanpete,	5
Utah,	8	Wasatch,	2
Juab,	3	Summit,	2
Millard,	3	Morgan,	2
Beaver,	3	Davis,	4
Piute,	1	Box Elder,	3
Iron,	3	Tooele,	2
Kane,	2	Weber,	5
Washington,	2	Cache,	7
Sevier,	2	Rich,	1
Total,	78

It is hoped that the leading men in each County will take immediate steps to carry these suggestions into effect, by calling primary meetings in their precincts and County Conventions in their Counties, that the people may be thoroughly aroused to their duty, that the result of these measures may prove beneficial to our citizens, and that the delegate selected to represent us in Congress may receive, at the coming election, such a vote as was never before given to a delegate from any Territory.

By order of the People's Territorial Central Committee.

JOHN SHARP,
Chairman.
THEODORE MCKEAN,
Secretary.
