geinforcements from India - Chamberiali Was the Jonah-Thought Kruger Would Not Fight.

London, Dec. 19 .- The war office dedies either to confirm or contradict the report telegraphed by a correspondst of the Daily Mail that Gen, Buller is crossed the Tugela river and that en Methucn's communications have been cut.

London, Dec. 19 .- The Daily Mail har from a hitherto reliable correpondent that Gen. Buller, after a stiff ish, crossed the Tugela river. The errespondent also states that Gen. Methuen's communications are cut. The war office last evening posted a wised list of the casualties in the batte of Magersfontein, giving fifty-one Mitional killed.

The war office has been in communi-ation with Gen. Sir William Lock-ard, commander-inchief in India, with view of ascertaining what troops can spared from his forces, and it is undestood that as a result of these in-quiries a force will almost immediately ave Bombay for Durban, including four regiments of seasoned troops, with in ammunition column and a brigade artillery, including horses and held atteries. It is hoped this force will inforce Gen. Buller within a month. The duke of Connaught visited the varofice yesterday. Since the ap-pointment of Lord Roberts as com-mander-in-chief in South Africa the question of rank no longer bars the ake from going to the front, and as te has a strong desire to go, it is bewad that only the queen's reluctance sands in the way. It is not unlikely bat this will be, overcom

Lord Chesham, commancing officer of the royal Buckingitamishire yeomatry has been authorized to organize a force d 2000 yeomanry, who will proceed to the Cape. The yeomanry forces sent out will be drafted so as to work together with mounted infantry, and sunted militia from Canada and Aus-reach. The shipment of the army corps and all the details of the trans-port on shore may have been well managed, but it remains true that the staff did not adapt itself to the pre-cise requirements of the campaign with mounted infantry, remarkable for mobility, and the cavalry arm was neg-lected. The new program of the war of-fice calls for long range artillery and an unusual large proportion of mounted troops. It was not necessary for Lord Wolse-ley's discrete friends to explain under their breath that the queen has been their oreath that the glass has been suspicious of him since his refusal to go to Canada as viceroy, and that Lord Reberts has been sent to Capetown in order to provide the duke of Connacisht with a high command in Ireland. The cest soldier is needed for an emergency of supreme importance, and the queen's ministers have summoned him, heart-broken though he is, from the loss of his

The ministry also required a vigorous shaking up and is getting it. It is un-doubtedly true that Lord Wolseley was anxious to mobilize an army corps as early as June or July, but the chancellor of the exchequer will not agree to provide the money, and Lord Lans-downe was not convinced that such an action was expedient or necessary. Military men were furious when war was brought on with the grass green on the yeldt for the Boer ponies, and the leading martinets have been dis-posed to regard Sir Michael. Hicks-Beach as the Jonah of the ministerial ship. Many old stories have pointed to Mr. Chamberlain as the real Jonah. They assert that the ministers through-out the negotiations took from him the false cue that President Kruger would certainly give way under steady pres-sure, and that even if he did not make concessions would not make a genuine fight, and that there would be at worst not a war but a military demonstration. This is secret history as it is told by men who know what has been going on in the innermost circles. A safe com-mentary upon it would be that Presi-dent Kruger and Steyn brought on the war at their convenience, just as the Dutch commanders have succeeded in forcing the British generals to attack them under conditions most favorable to themselves. The old tories are always rolling at Mr. Chamberlain, but, unlike what is going on in Africa, it is a sham fight. At the end of the war he will settle the African question as he likes, for no other minister will interfere with him.

TAJOR GENERAL WOOD, CUBA'S NEW GOVERNOR, AND THE OFFICERS AFFECTED BY HIS PROMOTION.

Governor Leonard Wood of Cuba, who succeeds Major General John R. Brooke, will be, owing to his recent promotion he only major general in the island and will consequently outrank Brigadier Generals Ludiow, Lee and Wilson, three vetan officers. What they will do remains to be seen, although Brigadier General Ludlow has expressed willingness to serve ader Major General Wood. When the Spanish-American war pened, General Wood was appointed colonel of the Rough ders. His rapid promotion is due to his excellent record as governor of Santiago province.

Sultan's Son-In-Law Absconds. Constantinople, Dec. 18 .- The flight of the sultan's son-in-law, Mahmud Pasha, Thursday, with his wife's jewels and all the money he could collect, has caused a great sensation here. It has now been ascertained that he sailed for Marseilles on a steamer and the Turkish government has tele-graphed to the French minister of foreign affairs, M. Deleasse, asking for the arrest of Mahmud on arriving at Mar-seilles and his return to Constantinople on the charge that he is implicated in plot to assassinate the sultan. This accusation, however, is generally discredited, and it is believed the refugee is the victim of an intrigue.
