LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE THERMOMETER 28 degrees F. in the shade, at 10 a.m. to-day. Fine day.

THEATRE.—There was an audience fair in numbers at the Theatre on Saturday evening to see Captain Martin's "Hermit of the Cave." The play was very well rendered and it gave much satisfaction. The management will probably see the propriety of reproducing it by and by.

This evening the beautiful play of "Kathleen Mavourneen" will be reproduced, to be followed by the capital farce of "Ici on Parle Francais."

Tomorrow evening the benefit of Mr. A. Thorne.

BLOCKADED.—The heavy snow storm which set in yesterday afternoon blockaded the Utah Southern railroad, and one of the results of the blockade was to prevent several of the home missionaries sent from this city returning last night. Those who visited Big Cottonwood stayed at the depot at that place for the usual evening train until between 9 and 10 o'clock, when they went back to the settlement and were kindly entertained by various citizens. They came to this city this morning by team. Four others were also detained by the blockade at Draperville. Those who went to Sugar House Ward and to Sell's District reached home last night before the storm attained to its greatest severity.

THE STORM.—Last evening was about the stormiest time we have had this winter. Positively, between the north wind and the snow, of which the air was full, it was not fit for man or beast to be out of doors. February is our winter month this year. The season is proving something like a dumb bell—thick at each end and thin in the middle.

LOST, yesterday afternoon, somewhere between the 10th Ward meeting house, and the corner of Chestnut St., a red striped English blanket, bound with braid. The finder will oblige the owner, R. F. Neslen, by leaving it at the 10th Ward co-operative store, or at his residence, at the corner of Chestnut St.

DEAD.—The following telegram from St. George, Washington Co., U. T., was received by Deseret Telegraph Line this morning:

St. George, 16—Asa Calkins died last night at 11 o'clock, after a sickness of 3 days.

A THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD.—The following was received by Deseret Telegraph this morning:

Logan, 16th February.

Editor Deseret News.

One thousand dollars reward will be paid for the apprehension of Charles A. Benson, of Logan, for the murder of David W. Crockett, which was perpetrated in Logan City, February 14th, 1873, at 9 a.m.

The said Charles A. Benson is about five feet seven inches high, somewhat sandy complexion, sharp, full, darkish grey or brown eyes, dark brown hair, bow-legged, rather stout built, about thirty-five years of age, and had on at the time of his escape, brown corduroy coat and brown pants.

A. CROCKETT, Sheriff Cache Co.

RECEIVED.—The "Tribune Almanack," for 1873, published by the Tribune Association, New York, contains a mass of valuable statistical and other information, chiefly political, besides a likeness and biography of Horace Greeley. A very useful work of reference.

"Heald's College Journal," San Francisco. Much instructive and entertaining reading.

"University College Monthly," San Francisco, also devoted to educational matters.

The "Spectator, an American Review of Insurance." Treats on insurance matters and useful to those interested in that department of business.

DANIEL KENNEDY, Your Son, Obadiah, is at Bountiful.—Elder Daniel Kennedy, late of Liverpool, who came in with the last company of emigrating Saints, is hereby informed that Elder Anson Call brought with him from Liverpool, his son Obadiah. The boy reached Liverpool the night before Elder Call left, and as his parents had left for America, and he was without funds, Elder Call, on learning of his condition, concluded to bring him along, and he is now at Bountiful, at Brother Call's residence.

REACHED HOME.—We had a call to-day from Elder Anson Call of Bountiful, and Elder John Bennion, of West Jordan, who reached home on Saturday night, having just returned from Great Britain. Elder Bennion left on the 15th of last October, to visit friends and relatives in Wales after an absence of thirty-one years. He reports having had a very pleasant visit, a splendid trip each way, and returns in excellent health.

Elder Call left here on the 26th of last October, with the intention of visiting Palestine. On reaching London it was resolved however that he should stay in Britain, visit the different branches of the Church and travel in the principal stock-raising districts of the country. Since that time he has travelled in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, has visited the Saints, and preached to them and to strangers whenever opportunity offered, and has enjoyed himself very much in so doing. He also visited some of the principal stock raising districts, but on the farms he says that he found no stock to excel that recently imported into this Territory from Canada and Kentucky. At the big stock fair at Birmingham he saw cattle, sheep and pigs which excelled anything he had ever seen before.

From the Buckley pottery in Wales, celebrated for its fire bricks, some of which have been imported to Utah, he brought some of the raw material. He thinks Utah has as good, and intends sending specimens of what he has brought to different localities in Utah to have it compared and tested.

Elder Call expresses the great surprise he felt in finding the saints in Great Britain so full of faith and good works. He says that he thinks when they reach here "they retrograde fully twenty-five per cent.," a fact which "he can not understand."

During his trip each way across the water he suffered severely and without intermission from sea sickness; but while traveling there he had the best of health, although it was raining a good deal of the time. The most remarkable phenomenon he noticed while there, was "a half hour's sunshine one day in Liverpool."

ACCIDENT.—Just as we were going to press, an accident occurred in front of the Z. C. M. I. office on First South st., caused by a plank giving way on which an iron vault, weighing 2670 lbs. was being shifted, letting the massive weight down on the foot of John Vincent, one of the employes, in the packing room of Z. C. M. I. We did not learn the exact extent of the injury, but it was supposed the foot was badly crushed.

LECTURE.—A lecture will be delivered to-morrow evening, in Independence Hall, in aid of the Ladies' Library Association, by Thomas Maple, Esq. Subject, Ancient Peru and the results of Modern Civilization, as inaugurated by Henry Meigs, the great American railway contractor.

HOME MISSIONARY APPOINTMENTS.—BOUNTIFUL WARD, March 2nd—

Elders R. Miller, R. F. Neslen, G. Teasdale and J. Nicholson.

CENTERVILLE WARD, March 9th—

Elders R. Miller, R. F. Neslen, G. Swan, G. Teasdale and D. Candland.

As there are no appointments for the country for Sunday next, Feb. 23, early notice will be given of the appointment of elders for this city.

We trust the Elders will be punctual in filling the above appointments, or if unable to do so, will report in time, that other arrangements may be made.

Saints from adjoining wards and districts are cordially invited to attend.

Meetings commence punctually at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

REUBEN MILLER,
per R. F. N.

COL. PETER SAXE.—This gentleman, so famous on the western slope and in the adjoining Territories for the introduction of fine stock, is now stopping at the Townsend House, where he purposes remaining several days. He arrived from California about a week since to meet his son at Ogden, with sixty-one head of young heifers and bulls, as fine specimens of "Kentucky short horns" as the most famous breeders of the blue grass region of Kentucky ever raised. The stock are kept at Hon. L. Farr's in Ogden, where they will stay some weeks. Those desirous to invest in Durham stock may not have a better opportunity to do so.

L. F. R. S. PARTY.—The 12th Ward Ladies' Relief Society will give a select party at the 12th Ward School House, on Friday evening, Feb. 21. Dancing to commence at 6.30 o'clock. Committee, Mrs. Priscilla Staines, Mrs. Emily Young, Mrs. Ellen Clawson, Mrs. Sophia L. Hardy, Mrs. Harriet A. Hardy; Managers, L. W. Hardy, E. Snelgrove, M. G. Atwood, H. B. Clawson, and James Jack; Floor Manager, T. V. Williams. We are honored with a complimentary.

BENEFIT TO MR. THORNE.—Tomorrow evening, for the benefit of Mr. A. Thorne, a promising programme will be presented, consisting of the beautiful play of the "Serf, or Love Levels All," a grand olio, and the farce of "I've Written to Browne." Mr. Thorne is a very careful, painstaking actor, and he always acts in a conscientious and satisfactory manner worthy of public recognition.

THOMAS LLOYD.—Mr. H. U. Venables, of the ship Locksley Hall, sends a letter from San Francisco for Mr. Thomas Lloyd, butcher, late of Haverfordwest, South Wales, and now supposed to reside in this city or Territory. The letter awaits the order of Mr. Lloyd at this office.

THE "MORMON" RAID.—The New York Tribune thus limns the new raid on Utah—

"It is said that in a certain California city, where the newspaper proprietors are tied up with the various rings which afflict the country, editorial writers have this standing order—"When in want of a topic, pitch into the Mormons." Just now, this is a good part of our National Administrative policy. The Executive and Congress, when in want of a subject, instinctively turn toward the Mormons."

THE TROOPS IN THE SOUTH ORDERED TO UTAH.—We are informed in a despatch from Washington that the President has ordered the United States troops now in the South to hold themselves in readiness to move out to the Plains, near Salt Lake City. This will be truly a move in the right direction. The civil power in Utah being unable to enforce obedience to the laws, it is time that the military were called to its aid. All Mormondom will doubtless cry aloud and wax wroth at this decisive action of the President, but the saints may take comfort in the reflection that their grief will be shared by the carpet-baggers, who will now have to stand alone among the reconstructed chivalry.—New York Herald, Feb. 8.

THE UTAH RAILROAD AND MINING CO.—Washington, February 11th.—A bill was introduced in the House yesterday to incorporate the Utah Railroad and Mining Company, with a capital stock of $5,000,000, divided into shares of $100 each. The object of the company is to develop the mining resources of Utah by constructing narrow guage railroads, tramways and telegraph lines so as to connect the mining districts of Stockton, Rush Valley, Ophir and Camp Floyd with some convenient point of the Utah Southern Railroad or near Lehi. The company is to have the right of way across the public lands of the United States not exceeding 200 feet wide.—Alta California.

OGDEN.—The Indian, says a letter in the Junction, lately run over by the C. P. cars, was buried at the expense of S. W. Hill. The whisky on which he got drunk was obtained part at Corinne and part at the Ogden depot, so the Indian said.

Correspondence.

ALPINE CITY, Feb. 12, 1873.

Editor Deseret News:

Alpine is at present undergoing an attack of the epizootic, so severe that there is scarcely a team to be seen doing any kind of work. We are having a good deal of snow in this little corner, and the roads are in good condition for sleigh riding, but on account of the sickness among the horses it is very seldom that the merry ring of the bells is heard, and the young folks have to resort to some other kind of amusement.

Last Monday was election day, and passed off very peaceably, with slight opposition.

During the year 1872 we erected a fine new rock meeting house which is so far completed as to admit of holding meetings in it and to dance occasionally. So far as it has gone it has cost about $5,500. The windows and doors are circle tops.

Alpine is not much behind in regard to a co-operative store. We have a beautiful frame building of redwood, costing in the neighborhood of one thousand dollars. Much credit is due to Bishop J. McCullough for the manner in which he has attended to the erection of these buildings, and the manner in which he attends to all public duties. Many other improvements, too numerous to mention, have also been made, which all tend to the building up and beautifying of our peaceable little settlement.

ONE WHO RIDES.

The above is only a portion of the communication of "One Who Rides," the remainder being a complaint about the rates charged for riding on railways in the Territory. "One Who Rides" says if the railway companies would reduce the fares they would make more money.—[ED. D. N.

General Grant's Hobby Horses.

The New York Sun covers the Mormon case wholly in the following statement of it. It involves a very excellent description of one of several of General Grant's hobby horses:

"On the whole, it is a good time to begin a crusade against the peculiar institution of Utah. Nothing could be more shrewdly devised than the President's proposition to go for the twin relic of barbarism. The party of moral ideas has pretty much exhausted its great Indian philanthropy. Its Christian statesmen have been falling away in public estimation and its capital as a great moral engine is pretty much exhausted. With Congress occupied entirely with investigations into the moral obliquities of Senators and representatives, and the whole country aghast at the astounding disclosures of infamies the like of which had not been suspected or dreamed of, and with the general belief growing in the public mind that the whole Congress and party are rotten to the core, it seems a very shrewd and cunning device to distract the attention of the public by stirring up excitement in regard to the Mormons, an inoffensive people who, if their peculiar institution is a blot upon civilization, are at least working their way out of it under the pressure of public opinion and the increase of light thrown upon it by the opening of communication with the East." [Are they?]

This is exactly our own view of the Mormon question. It is by no means new. As long ago as three years this paper denounced the institution of Polygamy in Utah, and pointed the way of its certain overthrow. But all this would not do. Political gamblers at Washington, "political convicts and superannuated cripples," as Mr. Taffe calls them, from other parts of the country, desired to speculate upon this "twin relic," and the result is what has been seen. General Grant wanted Polygamy as one of several hobby horses. Unhorsed by the foolishness of Judge McKean in the first raid, he now essays another. He rides it now to divert attention from the leading attraction at Washington.

Another of Mr. Grant's hobby-horses is the Cuban pony, and another is the Mexican nag. But the Mormon is the leading horse for the time, and Mr. Grant will perform a full circus upon it, if possible, Parson Newman acting as ring-master.—Omaha Herald.

BY TELEGRAPH.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN.

NEW YORK, 17.—It is stated that President Grant's southern tour will be of the greatest significance to the people in that section. The President contemplates starting on the 20th of March, and he will be accompanied by nearly all the Cabinet besides many distinguished gentlemen, Senators, members of Congress and others. Richmond, Va., will be the first stopping place. It is the President's purpose to make this the initial movement in his next administration of an attempt to harmonize the people of the North and South. He will look into the condition of the South socially, and into the local government of the States to be visited. At Richmond and other places along the line of his visit, preparations are being made to give him an enthusiastic reception.

EUROPEAN.

ANTWERP, 17.—The Common Council of Antwerp has voted forty millions to enlarge the docks and to construct piers.

WEST INDIES.

HAVANA.—News of the abdication of Amadeus and the proclamation of the Spanish republic was published this p.m., and had the immediate effect of unsettling business and advancing premiums for gold to 23 per cent. There were no sellers. Ceballos will issue a proclamation on the new condition of political affairs, declaring that everything will remain as hitherto respecting Cuba's relations with Spain, and he as well as other Spanish officials will obey whatever government is constituted in Spain. The most intense excitement exists among the people, the city however is tranquil.
