NOVEL COAT OF GRIFFONETTE DESIGN.

The summer coats have been so exquisitely designed and made of such fascinating materials, it would seem that there could be nothing more introduced in this line that would be prettier than those which have gone before. This model, however, has some novel beauty points that earn it instant attention. It is a dark gray griffonette cloth coat, the effective lining of dark blue China silk, with green centered white rings fastening it. The hood fastens to the coat with a band of plain green silk decorated with buttons, while the straps at the bottom of the coat, as well as those upon the front, are made of green silk, interlined with thin haircloth to give them the desired body.

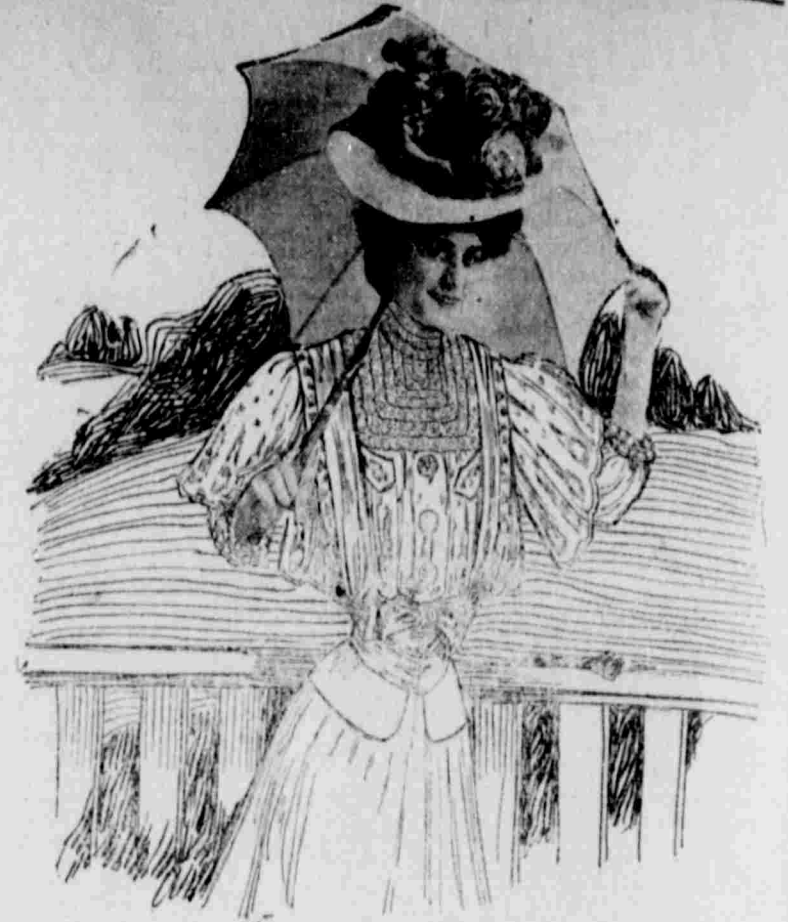

Miss Ethel Smith and enjoyed a fine literary and musical program. Refreshments were served.

SEPARATE WAISTS ARE ELABORATE

Fancy waists are a midsummer feature of this season of smart accessories. Those of light-colored crepe de Chine and chiffon are recieving the most attention at present. The above model is a piquant little affair of cream-colored crepe de Chine made with a Valenciennes lace yoke and modestly adorned with a delicate lace jacket made of handsome chantilly. The sleeves, of plaited crepe de Chine, have small featherbone caps to uphold this fulness, and are quite covered with the dainty full ruffles of the chantilly jacket. Velvet ribbon bows are also a feature.

The Summer's End At Dintwoodey's.

It seems almost like October. This weather makes us feel like we were late in arranging our Fall display, while as a matter of fact we are early.

Already we are showing many new things, yet the summer lines still offer temptations to those who study economy. Come in and see if you can't pick up something you want at a bargain.
