That Famous City Senator Mahone's Predictions:

WASHINGTON, 10.—The anxiety expressed in many quarters yesterday, concerning the threatened attempt to defeat General Garfield's election by getting out of the State of New York, has been effectively disposed of to-day. E. R. Apgar, from the State Democratic Committee, dis-claims any support to any such proposition, and by the apparently united efforts of the Board of Gen. Hayes, that he is totally opposed to the agitation and believes Garfield was fairly elected. It is now believed that the fomenters of the agitation will receive no encouragement from the influential leaders of the movement to invalidate the vote of the State of New York, for General Garfield. The American is not afraid of anything more than a feeble minority protest, if indeed, it does not even become simply ridiculous.

Gen. Mahone, senator elect from Virginia, arrived in Washington last night and was to-day interviewed by several small delegations. In reference to the question what will be the future position in politics, he said:
"Nobody but myself knows." There is my most intimate friend (pointing to Collector Brady, of Petersburg) and he does not even know my position.
If you will find exactly how I stand and let me know, I will give you $10,000." Not withstanding his facetiously evasive answer there have been several indications to-day that he contemplates an alliance with the republicans. Collector Brady, who is here from Virginia, is a strong republican. General Mahone, since his arrival here, has been cordially received by republicans, and not by democrats. He was in conference this morning with George C. Gorham, and immediately after the unsatisfactory interview with the reporter he went to his rooms with Collector Brady and Mr. A. M. Clapp to carry out a meeting which had been arranged by Collector Brady. Gorham said to-day he had a talk with him, that in his opinion General Mahone would act with the republicans rather than with the democrats.

Many Examiners.

OMAHA, 10.—Trains from Chicago to Omaha brought into Nebraska nearly 2,000 ex-slaves from the Eastern States. They come to view the State and purchase lands from the Grant railroads, who give up one cent per mile.

Many of these visitors will not be able to buy lands but will also remove to Nebraska. Another equally large number are expected to arrive tomorrow. Friday and Saturday.
Most of them will remain in Nebraska two or three weeks, and then be scattered over the country.

Report on the Assassination.

BUFFALO, 10.—Russel Dart, a prominent citizen, shot Emil Seifer, a music teacher, for making love to young Miss Dey while teaching her.

Seifer had been forbidden the house, but Dart's brother, being sympathetic, had a republican successor, and in such event the republicans would have the Senate, regardless of how Mahone might act. Some time ago Senator Grover was in Wilmington, Del. very ill, and there were doubtful whether he would ever recover sufficiently to take his seat in the Senate. He was subsequently reported to be recovering, but has not recently been heard from in Washington.

The Star of the evening says: A letter from Gen. Hancock was received here to-day by an officer of the army who gave it to the reporter.
In the letter Gen. Hancock says:
"I am fully satisfied that the agitation in regard to throwing out the vote of New York, nor will he have any. He is opposed to agitation, he says, and believes that Gen. Garfield was elected and should be inaugurated without any fuss."

The Fraud Investigation.

PHILADELPHIA, 10.—The Ledger's New York correspondent has learned from a perfectly reliable source that the Tammany committees are at work obtaining what are called legal proofs of the alleged illegal voting in New York, and that they are extremely anxious to have these proofs.

These committees will submit the proofs to the board of the State canvassers, which meets at Albany on the 17th. There is but one democrat on the board, Horatio Seymour, Jr., and while the majority will undoubtedly decline Seymour, it is believed that he will be overruled by the other members.

CHICAGO, 10.—The Daily News special from New York says: There was a special meeting of the Central Pacific and Union Pacific directors and the largest stockholders here last night, at the residence of President Huntington, who is president of the Central Pacific, for the purpose of arranging the consolidation and amalgamation of the two roads and branches.

Jay Gould, president of the Central Pacific, and was summoned late last night by the consolidation scheme, which was to be submitted to the stockholders. It is thought the amalgamation of over 30,000 shares of the Central Pacific stock to Long Beach, California, shows the managers' determination to float the stock in Europe.

Editors Deseret News:

Our last communication to you bears the date of July 2d. In that letter we gave an account of our missionary tour up to the date of said communication.

We were at that time in Floyd County, where we stayed for about three weeks after writing to you.
The people were very hospitable, however; that it was difficult to get bread while we were there.

This being the case we were unable to get enough to eat, and consequently had to go without bread for a week.

During this time we were engaged in getting out the horses and mules for our team, and were
