

terest. Then came the sensation in the testimony of Wm. L. Pottle, the engrossing clerk of the Assembly in 1883. While the general railroad bill was in his possession that year, he was approached by Sharp, who wanted some words inserted in the bill. Pottle thinks these words were "Broadway and Fifth Avenue Railway."

CINCINNATI, O., June 17.—At Gatton, the coroner gave a verdict in the case of Mrs. Beall, to the effect that the testimony warranted him in charging the crimes upon her son, John A. Beall, aged 12. The boy was consigned to jail and the citizens are talking of lynching.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 17.—News was received here of the arrest at Salem, Oregon, of Bryant B. Crandall, formerly of Buffalo, who disappeared at Niagara Falls in April, 1886, and left a note stating he had committed suicide. A body was subsequently found in the river below the Falls and identified as his by a score caused by an axe cut on his right foot. Crandall belonged to five insurance organizations. All have paid the except one. In March last Wm. B. Sirret, a prominent citizen of Buffalo, traveling in California, recognized Crandall on the streets of Los Angeles. Upon his return Sirret had this statement published and the insurance organizations at once started an investigation. Secret circulars were sent to all the Masonic and A. O. U. W. lodges on the Pacific slope. By this means he was located at Salem and arrested last night. The identification is said to be complete even to the scar on the foot. An indictment will be at once procured and officers sent to Oregon to bring Crandall to Buffalo. Meanwhile he will be held at Salem as a fugitive from justice.

LEONARDTOWN, Md., June 17.—Early this morning a mob of fifty men took Ben Hance, a negro, aged 23, from jail and to a tree. Hance was waiting trial for rape.

ATLANTA, June 17.—George W. Smith was hanged to-day in Heard County for the murder of his former confederate in crime.

NEW YORK, June 17.—To-night Julius Zelling, a German boxmaker, shot his wife Ellen, killing her instantly, and then shot himself twice. He will die.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The official record of the presentation of the battle flag proposition to the President consists of the following letter from Adjutant-General Drum and its endorsement by

SECRETARY ENDICOTT:

WASHINGTON, April 3.

To Hon. W. C. Endicott, Secretary of War:

Sir:—I have the honor to state that there are now in this office, stored in one of the attic rooms of the building, a number of Union flags captured in action but recovered in the fall of the Confederacy and forwarded to the War Department for safe keeping, together with a number of Confederate flags which the fortunes of war placed in our hands during the late civil war. While in the past favorable action has always been taken on applications properly supported for a return of

to organizations representing the survivors of military regiments in the government, I beg to submit that it would be a graceful act to anticipate further requests of this nature, and venture to suggest the propriety of returning all the flags—Union and Confederate—to the authorities of the respective states in which the regiments that bore those colors were organized, for such final disposition as they may determine. While in all of the civilized nations of the Old World, trophies taken against foreign enemies have been preserved and exhibited as proud mementoes of a nation's glories, wise and obvious reasons have always excepted from the rule evidences of past which by appeals to arbitration of the sword have disturbed the peaceful march of the people to its destiny. Over twenty years have elapsed since the termination of the late civil war. Many prominent leaders civil and military, of the late Confederate States are now honored representatives of the people in the national councils, or in other eminent positions, and are lending their aid and their talents to the wise administration of the affairs of the whole country, and the people of the several states composing the Union are now united treading broader paths to a glorious future. Impressed with these facts I have the honor to submit the suggestion made in this letter for the careful consideration it will receive at your hands. Very truly yours,

D. C. DRUM, Adjutant-General. The endorsement of the Secretary upon this letter is as follows: WAR DEPARTMENT, May 26.—The within recommendation is approved, by the President and the adjutant-general will prepare letters to the governors of those states whose troops carried the colors and flags now in this department, with the offer to return them as herein proposed, the history of each flag and the circumstances of its capture or re-capture to be given.

(Signed) WM. C. ENDICOTT, Secretary of War.

CORK, June 17.—O'Brien was enthusiastically received on his arrival here this afternoon and was presented with the freedom of the city. He said the greatest danger he encountered was not at the hands of the Orangemen, but at the hands of impetuous friends. He feared the occurrence of anything that would compromise Gladstone or Parnell. As long as "the plan of campaign" flag was flying, the Irish beyond the Atlantic would extend practical sympathy to Ireland.

PARIS, June 17.—United States Minister McLane has demanded of M. Flourens, the French minister of foreign affairs, the release of Baron Raymond S. Elliere, brother of Princess Sogan, who was recently placed in a lunatic asylum by his relatives on the ground that he became insane respecting a fabulous fortune he imagined he was making in America through business relations with Gould and Mackay. McLane submitted information showing that the Baron in 1886, in New York, declared his intention of becoming a naturalized citizen of the United States, and contends that such a declaration entitles the Baron to the treatment due an American citizen abroad. The French cabinet will consider the question.

ST. LOUIS, June 17.—The World and Post Dispatch balloon was cut loose at 4:25 p. m. to-day, at Sportsman Park. In the car were four men, A. E. Moore, aeronaut; Professor J. C. Doughty, photographer; Edward Duffy, the World's correspondent, and Professor H. Allen Hazen of the Signal Service Bureau. Although lacking sand ballast, there is sufficient temporary weight in the freight, such as eighty pounds of water, one hundred pounds of provisions, heavy clothing and photographic and observer's instruments. Twenty carrier pigeons from different stations in Missouri were also sent, ten of which will return this evening and the others will be liberated during the day to-morrow. Professor Hazen says the current of air to the altitude of 1000 feet is northeast, and at 5000 feet is almost directly east. It is within the power of the aeronaut to ascend or descend to these currents as he desires and thereby choose his course. They will avoid the great lakes, and by to-morrow evening expect to land in Massachusetts or New Hampshire.

DETROIT, June 18, 1 a. m.—The New York World's balloon passed over this city this midnight. When last seen at one o'clock it was going west-north-west.

ODESSA, June 18.—The crops in Podolia Keef and Bessarabia are excellent, while in Taurida Kherson and around Odessa they are a failure. Drought, heat and the collapse of the Chicago clique have seriously affected markets in south Russia.

ST. LOUIS, June 18.—A telegram from the World's balloon correspondent to land at Hoffman, near Centralia, Ills., at 8:15 last night. Aeronaut Moore received a very painful injury before starting yesterday. This and the giving out of gas was the cause assigned for the descent. None of the other occupants of the car were injured and the balloon was securely anchored without a tear.

PITTSBURG, June 18.—The first train ever run west of the Allegheny Mountains with crude petroleum as the only fuel was the mail train west on the Pennsylvania Railroad that arrived here last night.

GALVESTON, June 18.—A report has just reached here that the east-bound California express on the Southern Pacific Railroad was robbed at 3 a. m. near Flatonia, about ninety-five miles east of San Antonio. The express car was robbed and nobody killed. It is rumored that the robbers secured $75,000.

PESTH, June 18.—The floods in Hungary are subsiding. The towns of of Mako and Vasarhely are now out of danger. If the present dry weather continues, the water in the flooded districts will be gone in six weeks. There is great distress among the inhabitants of the inundated regions, and there is danger of fevers arising from decaying vegetation left by the floods. Fifteen hundred farmers are totally ruined and the entire damage is estimated at $5,000,000.

BERLIN, June 19.—The trial at Leipzig of the Alsations charged with high treason resulted in the conviction of five of the prisoners. Koechlin and Clandon were each sentenced to detention for one year in a fortress. Bleich and Schmecker to two years and Trapp to one and a half years. The other prisoners, Jordan, Rebel, Freund and Humbert, were acquitted.

DUBLIN, June 18.—Several tenants arrested at Bodeky for resisting the officers have been sentenced to prison at hard labor for terms ranging from one to three months. After being sentenced they were taken to Ennis station under the escort of the police. Crowds of sympathizing people gathered and cheered them and became so demonstrative that the police were ordered to charge and disperse them. This they did with a will, and plied their batons so vigorously that several of the people were severely injured.

GALVESTON, June 19.—As the train drew up at the station, two men with drawn revolvers mounted the engine, covered the engineer, and forced him to pull the train to the open prairie, where there were eight or ten men armed with Winchester rifles. The two robbers on the engine over the man at the throttle, while the others went through the mail, express and passenger cars. Nearly all the passengers were asleep and unaware of what was going on until they were aroused by the robbers. All the passengers were relieved of their valuables, and it is difficult to form any estimate of the amount of money and jewelry secured. It is reckoned at about $5,000. The express car and mail pouches were also gone through, but the amount of money taken was unknown. The total amounts secured are now placed at $10,000. The whole country is aroused; several posses have gone in search of the robbers.

FURTHER DETAILS.

FLATONIA, June 18.—The sheriff arrived in Galveston this morning. He said there were twelve robbers in the party, and that when they entered the express car messenger Frank Folger, seeing them coming, threw away the keys to his safe. This enraged the desperadoes, and two of them wreaked vengeance on him by beating him over the head with their revolvers and cruelly splitting his ears with pocket knives. The messenger was badly used up. The robbers recovered the keys and succeeded in opening the safe. How much money they found is a mere matter of conjecture, but it is stated that the safe contained $10,000. After going through the express and mail cars turned their attention to the passengers, none of whom were overlooked or slighted. Even the newsboy was robbed of his nickels. One old gentleman, sleeping in his berth was awakened, and reaching under his pillow for his purse was struck senseless by a pistol in the hands of a robber. The robbers then secured from under the pillow a well filled purse. The sheriff says that while the robbers were going through the forward cars, the colored waiter extinguished all the lights in the sleeper, but it was useless, as when the robbers entered the sleeper they compelled the brakeman to go ahead with a lantern and stop at every berth.

of the Mexican army, was among the passengers, accompanied by a young lieutenant. When he learned the train was being robbed he called to his lieutenant to bring him his pistol quick and he would kill all the robbers. Mrs. White, the sheriff's wife, who understands Spanish, immediately cried out to the donkey colonel, telling him if he valued his life to remain in and give up his money, as the robbers had every advantage. A few moments afterwards the robbers came along with the brakeman before them, carrying a lantern. One of the gang pulled the curtain back, exposing the Mexican officer to the gaze of the leader of the gang, who was complacently sucking a huge stick of candy in his left hand, while the other covered the Mexican with a big shooter. When the bandit captain saw the Mexican he told him to disgorge, remarking, by way of emphasis, that he would as soon kill a greaser as eat his breakfast. The officer reluctantly handed over $400. Several drummers for New York and Galveston houses were in the sleeper and were all robbed, nearly every one receiving a brutal knock on the head with a revolver. The robbers were very rough and ugly in their treatment, even passenger, who was slow in finding her pocket-book. It is estimated tonight that the robbers obtained not less than $15,000 in money, besides much jewelry. Up to a late hour no news had been received regarding the hunt after the robbers. There is scarcely any doubt but that they are safely in Mexico by this time.

CHARLESTON, June 19.—The News and Courier reports a startling shock of earthquake at Summerville at 10:37 this morning accompanied by the most prolonged roaring since October 22d of last year. Charleston is quiet.

BALDWIN, St. Louis Co., Mo., June 19.—The Baldwin and Manchester stage, which runs from here to Barratt's on the Missouri Pacific twice a day, was stopped this afternoon about 6 o'clock, when returning at about half a mile from Barratt's, by three masked men. The men were concealed in the thick underbrush which skirts the road on both sides near what is known as Sugar Creek bridge, and as this stage with its fifteen passengers approached, the robbers advanced with drawn revolvers and ordered Mr. Bennett, the driver, to stop and the passengers to fall in line. There is some dispute as to the actual number of men engaged in the robbery, some passengers claiming that there were six drawn revolvers concealed in the underbrush in case any resistance should be offered. The masks worn were made of red handkerchiefs with holes cut into them and one man had the sleeve of an undershirt drawn over his head as the only covering. Considering the amount of money and valuables, the robbers made a poor haul, securing only $250 out of an estimated $2,500 in money and valuables in possession of the passengers.

TORONTO, June 19.—James A. L. Wilson, the Philadelphia forger, was arrested in this city last night. He had been living here with his wife and family under an assumed name for the past two months. His defalcations are reported to amount of $300,000.

PESTH, June 19.—Of the party of pilgrims who, while crossing the Danube River at Paks, were thrown into the water by the capsizing of a boat, 127 were rescued, 87 are still missing and the bodies of 101 who were drowned have been recovered.

LONDON, June 19.—A riot occurred during the jubilee celebration at Liverpool to-day between a party of Orangemen and a crowd of socialists. Sticks and stones were freely used and many on both sides received serious cuts and bruises. The police dispersed the rioters and arrested five of the leading parties.

NEW YORK, June 20.—In the trial of Jacob Sharp to-day, Thos. H. McLean was recalled and produced the stock transfer book of the Broadway Surface road. It was perfectly blank.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—Maxwell, alias Brooks, the murderer of Preller, is to be hanged. The supreme court refused to reverse the decision of the court below. The prisoner was unofficially notified by his attorney yesterday and he was very much dejected, saying his trial was a farce.

Brooks' counsel will now, it is said, move for a rehearing of the case, and if this fails, an attempt will be made to get it before the U. S. Supreme Court on constitutional points. The date of the execution is fixed for July 12.

A spring post was found dead in his room in the southern section of our city lately. The effort to make "early crocus" rhyme with "only mock us," proved too much for him.
