THEATRICAL .- The "Angel of Midnight' was pretty well played last night, Kate Denin and Mr. Hardle acting as usual in good style, and doing full justice to the rope and America, should pay a visit to the with its presence. Theatre to-night, to witness "Formosa."

The Management have spared no pains to place this drama on the boards in an attractive manner, and have been at considerable expense and trouble in preparing scenery suitable to the existing incitients of the peice. Kate Denin assumes the part of "Formosa" in a very effective manuer, and her powerful acting, coupled with the masterly personations of Mesars. Hardie, Graham, Margetts, Lindsay, Thorne, and the other ladies and gentlemen of the company, makes the performance a complete success.

UTAH CENTRAL .- A telegram to President E. Young, from John W. Young, Es i., dated Farmington 29th, says "We have about half a mile of iron on hand; end of track one thousand feet south of switch." Iron for two miles more of the Ballard P road is promised immediately.

BENEFIT OF MR. HARBIS. - To-morrow Wednesday) night, Mr. Harris, prompter at the Theatre, will take a benefit. The bul for the occasion offers a fine variety. "onsisting of the comedy "Ireland as it is," Beatler P "Gissiplus," a negro farce, in which the Bice C M inimitable Ben Cotton gained so much applause during the late engagement of the Bormgen Minstrels here. The whole to conclude Bowk W with the musical farce "Jenny Lind." If Briggs C fun and variety are any inducement this Brown W bul should draw a good house. Kate Denin and the best talent of the company will appear on the occasion, and being for the bene t of a very deserving gentleman, as Mr. Harris has shown himself during his resilence in this city, we hope the public will give him a very substantial mark of apprecustion and favor,

INVITING .- We took an observing stroll through our Meat Market on Saturday, and were agreeably surprised to see such a show of fine meat as way then exhibited, and which contrasted pleasantly with the sight a few weeks ago. It was, at thattime, of a Dunn H hue more red and black than otherwise, Dunyon J L now it is of a rich wholesome appearance. Duncanson D The best shows were at Geo. Our cotemporary must be in a pretty tight place to need the patrenage of a defunct city, about the size of a walnut shell, like Corince, which, in its juiciest days, was nothing but a rendezvous for gau-blers and prostitutes, and whose most "enterprising" merchants were the keep-ers of hurdy-gurdy houses and faro hells. The prosperity of these worthies has de-parted now that the mushroom notoriety cained for Corinne by lying and wire workparts they assumed. To-night will be rep-resented, for the last time, that popular modern drama "Formosa," which has been so well received. Those who desire to obtain a glance at the inner workings of society in certain fashionable circles, in London and other large cities, both in Eu-
