ANOTHER GAME FOR SALT LAKE.

M'Closkey Signs a New Man Who Knows How to Pitch Winning Ball.

IS BABBIT OF SEATTLE.

Local Team Captured Yesterday Afternoon's Game by a Score of Four to Three.

Manager McCloskey of the Salt Lake aseball team has signed former short top Babbit of the Seattle nine, and he at ence put him in the box to pitch. That e understands how to dish out mysteries in the way of curved balls is evident from the fact that he won his game against seattle yesterday afternoon, the score being four to three,

He pitched a splendid game from start to finish and was given all the assistance by the team behind him that he could asonably ask for.

Among the pleasing features of yesterday's game was Hanley's catch of a fly in the first inning and securing a put out at the home sack. It was a very pretty a the house start of a run Hanley was descred to the echo. Flannery also made a nice throw home, but was too late to had off the runner. He stopped a fast grounder, but it was not his fault that the runner had lead enough to land him, afe at home. Stricklett was in the box for Scattle bring the first inning, but his salary wing played out and he was forced to re-tre. Harmon taking his place. The latter was touched up for eight his, breaking even with Babbit on hits, hat the latter had better control. Jodey Kestal has been let out and will no more be seen with the Salt Lake team. Work Under Coach Harvey Holmes. Fifteen husky youths, all anxious to se-cure position on the University football team, were out yesterday afternoon on the Varsity campus for practise under the direction of Coach Harvey Holmes. The coach says that hereafter the boys will be given a chance at the tackling dummy, a modern appliance for the de-velopment of pig skin chasers. Two former high school players, Moore and Pitt, were tried out yesterday after-nooh, and a new man named Thompson was tried out as full back.

good condition, ord were strong and rugged. For 10 or 12 rounds McCarthy had all the best of it but he weakened after that and seemed unable to land the knockout punch for which he valuly tried. He was much faster than Walsh and landed almost at will, although the Canadian got in a few telling blows, one of which he any closed Jerry's left eye. Walsh domonstrated a wonderful ablity to stand pullishment and was game and ready to mix it at all shapes of the mill. In the fifth round Jerry landed a terrific small, squarely on Walsh's jaw, sending him into the ropes. It looked like the bout was all over, but Walsh came back gamely but decidedly groggy. From then on they fought viciously, but McCarthy was at no time in serious danger. When the gong sounded for the twenther and tried hard to put him out. He hammered him all over the ring but his blows did not have the necesary steam behind them and the round ended with both men on their feet. Referee T. ANNUAL SALE. TEN MILLION BOXES

A CARD. From Heber J. Grant & Co.

Having decided to add a brokerage lepartment to our insurance business, we invite all those having money to invest, to correspond with us. No matter how small the amount, we can tell you where to invest it, so that it will bring you the best possible returns. Thousands of people have their money either lying idle where it earns nothing, or invested where it only brings them 4 or 5 per cent interest. We can advise you how to invest your money so that it will be just as safely placed, and bring you much larger returns, not less than 7 per cent, and probably more. We do not deal in mining stocks, and have no connection except with institutions regularly paying dividends. The names of our officers form a sufficient guarantee that the interests of our patrons will be carefully guarded. They are, Heber J. Grant, president; Richard W. Young, vice president; directors, Joseph F. Smith, John Henry Smith, H. G. Whitney, E. A. Smith, Rulon S. Wells, Charles S. Burton and George D. Pyper. Treasurer, Heber M. Wells and secretary, John Stringham, Our charges for advising you are nothing. If we invest your money our charge will be merely nominal. Address Heber J. Grant & Co., Salt Lake City, Utah.
