

MAJ. YOUNG WILL TEACH.

L. D. S. University Secures His Services for Ensuing School Year.

The trustees of the Latter-day Saints' University, upon the resignation of Dr. J. M. Tanner as professor of law, in order to take the position of general superintendent of Church schools, decided to offer the position to Richard W. Young as soon as the latter returned from the Philippines.

When Mr. Young returned and received from President Paul the offer of the trustees, he took the matter under consideration for a few days, and decided to accept the position. Mr. Young, it will be remembered by his acquaintances here, is a graduate of the University of the South, and the Columbia school of law in New York. This is one of the foremost law schools in the United States, and ranks as one of the best educational institutions of the country.

Mr. Young's legal practice in this city and his recent position as a judge in the Philippines, amply qualify him for this position, and the friends of the L. D. S. University will be pleased to learn that the services of this capable and well known man have been secured on his teaching force.

CITY IS FORTUNATE.

Has Good Water and Good Milk, Says the Public Chemist.

City Chemist Herman Harms has made his report on the analysis of the water of City Creek and is at work on the waters of Parley's and Emigration canyons. The analysis is highly satisfactory. One of the chief impurities of the water being the small percentage of ammonium ammonium. There are only .05 parts in one million gallons, and of free ammonia only .01, a total of .06 or free ammonia only. Dr. King says that if the proportion was as high as .09 the water might be considered remarkably pure. The City Creek water may therefore be considered very healthful. The total solids in a gallon are 13.05 grains, consisting chiefly of calcium carbonate and sulphates. There are 13 grains of chlorine in the gallon, and the oxygen consumed amounts to 1.46 parts per million.

The city chemist has also made an analysis of various samples of milk from sixteen different dairies. Only three of these samples are as low as 3 per cent, the standard required for fats. The majority are over 3 1/2 and several run up to 4. Almost all of the milk is of the per cent required for solids—12 per cent—and no trace of formaldehyde is discovered in any of the samples. The people of Salt Lake may, therefore, rest assured that they are getting a remarkably good article from the local dairies at least at the present. These milk tests will be made every month.

LAWYERS TO MEET.

State Bar Association Will Name Delegates to the National Meeting.

President C. S. Varian of the State Bar association has called a meeting of that body to be held in the federal court room on the night of Tuesday, July 23rd. The object of the meeting is to elect three delegates to the annual meeting of the American Bar association, to be held at Denver, Colo., on August 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

THE WOMAN IS BETTER.

Dr. Payne is Ill from Worry Over His Difficulty—His Office Visited.

The woman upon whom Dr. Edward S. Payne is said to have performed an abortion is said to be somewhat improved in health today, and Dr. McElroy and Mayo have hopes of her recovery. Yesterday afternoon Dr. Payne had a nervous attack, supposedly brought on by worrying over the charges pending against him. An unsuccessful attempt was made to draw from the doctor the name of the man who was responsible for his patient's condition.

Sheriff Naylor made an examination of Dr. Payne's office yesterday and carried off a number of instruments which it is supposed are used by the doctor in performing criminal operations.

FOUND THE ITALIAN.

Frank Gella Wanted in Utah County for Assault.

Frank Gella, an Italian wanted in Utah county for assault with intent to commit murder, is now lodged in the city jail awaiting the action of the Provo authorities. The capture was made at one o'clock this afternoon by Sergeant Brown, who found the man in the Italian saloon on West Temple street. Descriptions were sent the police department some time ago and they have been on the lookout for Gella. This morning Sergeant Brown heard that he was around and kept a sharp eye for him, locating him with some other companions in the Italian saloon. The offense with which Gella is charged was committed at Tucker, Utah.

SMELTERS AND VEGETATION.

The county commissioners have received a number of specimens of different vegetation from the farm of George Lester about a mile north of the Highland Boy smelter. The samples are sent in for the purpose of showing the blighting effect of the smelter smoke. Commissioner Harker says that the smoke is damaging the growth on his farm to some extent. The blighted specimens include potato tops, lucern, corn and other plants.

FOUND THE SCALE.

Inspector Examines the Fruit Down in Utah County.

State Inspector Hickenlooper has just got through with his inspection of fruit in Utah county, where he finds San Jose scale to have taken a serious hold. It is worse in Provo, Pleasant Grove, American Fork, Lehi and Springville. In Payson Mr. Hickenlooper found the European fruit scale. Fifty-five trees were destroyed in Provo alone last week and the inspectors have been working early and late. All over Utah county the inspectors are doing good work.

The county fruit tree inspectors have so far found none of the San Jose scale in Salt Lake county. The afternoon Mr. Hickenlooper will go through a number of orchards with County Fruit Tree Inspector Boyce, and return to his home at Pleasant View, Weber county, on Sunday morning.

QUEEN OF THE FAIR.

Much Speculation as to Who She Will Be—Lead of Votes Being Held Back.

As the hour for closing the balloting for queen of the merchants' street fair approaches keen interest is beginning to manifest itself. Indeed, the interest is becoming so keen that it is amounting to excitement. The backers of each of the young ladies who have kept in the lead thus far are growing warm with apprehension under the rumor that a body of young swells about town had a bunch of votes to turn in for a dark favorite that would just naturally leave all the other candidates so far in the rear that it will appear pathetic. The voting today has been heavy. The street fair people have gathered the votes every two hours and there will be enough to keep them busy. So far as all outward appearances are concerned Miss Evelyn Markham is far in the lead, but the rumor that bodies of votes are being held back till the eleventh hour has created wild speculation and many are of the belief that the queen will be a lady whose name has not yet appeared.

One pleasant feature of the contest is the general understanding that whoever the honored lady may be, so long as she is a Salt Lake girl, she will be a lovely and gracious sovereign to reign over the high jinks of Salt Lake's merchants.

MISS MARKHAM, THE WINNER.

Later—At four o'clock this afternoon the votes were still being counted, but according to those making the canvass Miss Markham was so far in advance of her competitors as to make her election a certainty.

Harry C. Wilbur, arrived in town today with five shows for the Midway of the merchants' street fair and carnival.

Every Saturday night will be People's night at the Salt Palace theater. Reserved seats 25c.

PENSION FOR W. H. SKILLHORN.

(Special to the "News.") Washington, D. C., July 13.—A pension has been granted William H. Skillhorn, Salt Lake City, at $2 a month.

FIVE CENT FARES.

The fare to Fort Douglas on the Rapid Transit has been reduced to five cents. This move has been made to conform with the fare which has been in vogue over the Salt Lake line for several months past. Commencing today the four-cent fare on the rapid transit will be abolished and the standard tariff of five cents put on. Notices have been put up in both street car offices to the effect that all motorists and conductors of either company will be allowed free transportation on any of the cars of the two systems, provided the men are in uniform.

In the case of Nephi Howcroft vs the Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to—but simply because they must.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph P. Laine, Flanagan, Ky., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Beware of substitutes. Buy Hood's and only Hood's.

A BALLOON TRIP FAILS.

A Brazilian Aeronaut Sails from Parc de Mudo to Eiffel Tower.

Paris, July 13.—M. Santos Dumont, the Brazilian aeronaut, made the official trial of his balloon, the attempt to win the prize of 100,000 francs offered by Henry Deutsch for a manageable balloon, before the committee of the Aero club today. Starting from the Parc de Mudo, he reached the Eiffel tower in a quarter of an hour and after sailing around the tower, started to return to Parc de Mudo, but lack of motive power necessitated a descent at Boulogne-sur-Seine. The trials will be resumed later.

The condition of the winning of the Deutsch prize is that the trip from St. Cloud to the Eiffel tower and back must be made in half an hour. Santos Dumont started at 7:40 a. m. He reached the Eiffel tower in 15 minutes, turned around it and had begun his return trip when the motor failed and the aeronaut ripped the silk of his balloon fearing disaster unless he could quickly reach the ground. The balloon pitched forward head foremost into a clump of trees on the Rothschild estate near Boulogne, where it was caught and suspended in the branches on the opposite side of the Seine from the starting point. Santos Dumont was not hurt.

A number of spectators had congregated on the platform of the Eiffel tower to watch the trial. They cheered the balloonist as he rounded the tower. The wind, which was lacking during the first part of the trip, sprang up after Santos Dumont started on the return journey and probably is responsible for the collapse of his machinery at the balloon's landing. Santos Dumont was not hurt, but he was badly shaken over on his side. It is calculated that for the accident the trip from the Parc de Mudo around the tower and back would have been accomplished in fifty minutes.

Santos Dumont, as he climbed down from the tree, where his balloon caught, when questioned as to what had occurred, he said: "My motor was badly regulated and suddenly refused to act when I was preparing to descend. I saw at once that unless some action was promptly taken the balloon would be carried away by the wind. So I risked the silk in order to come down immediately. All had gone well on my trip up to that moment. I did not succeed entirely this time, but I hope to be more fortunate with my next attempt. I am not bruised or hurt in any way."

Santos Dumont, before he made his recent trip, said: "My motor does not differ somewhat from my preceding one, and it will consequently require several ascensions before I will be able to handle it properly and control all its movements. I am satisfied, however, because the weather was favorable. One does not try a new vessel in storm and unless today be suitable, I will postpone my trip."

The aeronaut did start, however, with a light breeze blowing. When the word to let go was given the balloon rose horizontally maintaining perfect equilibrium, until the height of sixty feet was attained. Then Santos Dumont pointed the head of his balloon in the direction he wished to take the machine, and it ascended spirally in the direction of the Eiffel tower. Loud cheers greeted this successful departure. The balloon soon disappeared behind the trees. After being hidden from sight for an interval of forty minutes it reappeared on the home journey, traveling at an extraordinary rate of speed.

A few more moments would have brought Santos Dumont safely back to his port of departure, when suddenly the balloon stopped short and its screws commenced to revolve. Consternation prevailed among the members of the Aero club committee and the crowd and some one exclaimed, "He is done for."

The balloon, however, was carried slowly by the breeze towards the grounds of the Aero club but subsequently it was blown back to Boulogne where the aerial traveler ripped its silken sides and descended into a clump of trees.

PITTSBURG CONFERENCE.

It May End in Success or Go Down in Failure.

Pittsburg, July 13.—The joint conference of representatives of the steel combination and the Amalgamated association of iron, steel and tin workers was resumed this morning. While no date has been fixed for a final adjournment, several of the conference are arranging to leave the city this evening and as President Shaffer has declared that he will not consent to any further postponement of the conference it is believed that a settlement or disagreement will be reached before tonight.

President Shaffer made the announcement before entering the conference this morning that he regarded further delay as useless and harmful for both sides. The issue has to be met, he said, and there is no use in dodging it.

The conference representing the manufacturers declared that they could say nothing of the possibilities of a settlement today, but were hopeful of an amicable adjustment of the difference. Another preliminary conference of the Amalgamated officials was held this morning prior to the meeting with the manufacturers.

At 10:20 o'clock the conference opened. It was reported from Youngstown, Ohio, that James Nutt, secretary of the labor bureau of the Republic Iron and Steel Co., had been called into the conference but was not present when the meeting convened.

It was said that the fact that he had been called in seemed to indicate that the two sides were rapidly approaching peace, and that there would be little to talk were peace reached.

After a session of an hour and a half the conference took a recess for lunch. All attempts to induce the conference to talk were fruitless.

COL. SANTOS SURRENDERS.

Insurrection in North Camarines Province Practically Ended.

Manila, July 13.—Col. Santos, with forty men an thirty rifles has surrendered at Ligas, in Albay province. The insurrection in North Camarines province is practically ended.

Lieut. C. R. Ramsay Dead.

Washington, July 13.—Gen. Chaffee, at Manila, has informed the war department of the death of First Lieut. Charles R. Ramsay, Twenty-first infantry, who died from wounds received in the action at Lipa, Luzon, June 19. The death occurred this morning. Ramsay was a private in the army. A Fifth Maryland volunteer, during the war with Spain, and was appointed a lieutenant in the regular army in July, 1898.

Merchmen Defeat Boers.

Pretoria, July 13.—Gen. Methuen had a successful engagement with the Boers July 9 northeast of Zeerust in the Transvaal colony. Four Boers were killed and forty-seven captured. The Boers daringly attempted to raid a cattle ranch near here; they were driven off with loss, gun butts being used in the encounter.

Newfoundland Question Unsettled.

London, July 13.—It now seems that there is small probability of an agreement being reached between France and Great Britain over the Newfoundland question. The negotiations have not been broken off, but they have progressed so little that Downing street is inclined to regard them as almost hopeless.

Morgan Buys Chilean Railroad.

Valparaiso, Chile, July 13.—(Via Galapagos.) J. Pierpont Morgan has bought the Chilean section of the Trans-Andean railroad for ninety thousand pounds sterling.

Run on Peru, Ind., Bank.

Peru, Ind., July 13.—There was a run on the County Loan and Savings association here today. From the best information there is no ground for alarm. The June semi-annual statement shows assets of over $25,000 in gold and silver.

Ed. L. Miller, secretary and treasurer, has wired to Chicago for $20,000. The concern began banking about six months ago.

Twenty thousand dollars was paid out to 2 o'clock and the institution realized upon collateral to the amount of $50,000, which gave assurance of meeting all demands. The crush was so great that many women in the line fainted.

Bertram O'Neil Murphy in Court.

London, July 13.—Bertram O'Neil Murphy, son of a late San Francisco millionaire and brother of Lady Woolley, appeared in the bankruptcy court yesterday, the setting of creditors' claims against him aggregating £5,000. With respect to the alimony allowed by the court when the couple were divorced in 1894, Murphy, in the course of his examination, said that never since his divorce had he paid a penny towards the maintenance of his wife and child and although until June last his brother, the late Sir Bertram, had given him an allowance of £1,500 yearly, his father had disinherited him. Murphy also said a certain solicitor in London was now supporting him, and he denied the existence of a trust. He admitted he might have been known by the name of Mudie. The newspapers are using the occasion of Murphy's appearance in court to reprint the stories of his clandestine marriage with a daughter of Field Marshal Sir Donald Stewart and the kidnapping of his child in 1894.

Caveat Filed in Rogers Will Case.

New York, July 13.—Mary J. Westfield, daughter of Jason Rogers, brother of the late John Rogers, has filed a caveat in Peterson, N. J., today against admitting the will of her uncle to probate. Under the will Mrs. Westfield would receive $25,000.
